The office of the State Librarian shall be abolished as of the end of the term of the present incumbent.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the aforegoing section hereby proposed as

Book of Books .....

People wonder today what is America's greatest danger. Is it the godless materialism represented by Russia and Communism? or is it the godless materialism of America herself? Which is the greater threat—the possibility of an atomic bomb hitting us or the possibility of our foundation crumbling under us?

A recent survey found that 68 percent of the 17 to 22 year old children of Protestants do not attend church regularly and fewer than 28 percent consider themselves "religious." Less than 30 percent of those surveyed passed a simple test on the Bible. It was William Lyon Phelps, Yale university professor, who said, if he had to choose between a thorough knowledge of the Bible and a college education, he would take the Bible every time.

The youth of today are the foundation of America's future. They have deep hungers. They would like to build a better world than we are leaving them—of that we are sure. But if they are unacquainted with the Bible, where and how will they develop the spiritual strength on which their dreams and the survival of our country depends?

The 18th annual Bible Week, under sponsorship of the Laymen's National Committee, is to be observed from October 20 to 26. The purpose it to waken and reawaken the American people to the great values that lie between the covers of the Holy Bible.

Those planning this event are hoping and praying that millions of Americans and Canadians and people throughout the world will realize the importance of reading the Bible more fully and following its teachings. We also hope that this might come to pass. Observance of this week would just be a start. We could grow with it, day by day.

Speakers Secured For Demo Rallies

Edward J. Ryan, Cumberland, a former Democratic candidate for Congress, and Edward Storm, a candidate for Congress in the recent primary election, are speakers scheduled to appear in Garrett county, it was announced by Lewis Hutson, chairman of the Democratic committee of Kitzmiller.

Ryan will address a rally on Friday, October 24, at the William-James hotel in Oakland. Storm will be the speaker at a rally in Grantsville on October 29. County candidates are set to tour the county on Saturday, November 1.

The Oakland group of the Federation of Democratic Women's clubs of Garrett county met Tuesday at the hotel with Mrs. A. T. Matthews presiding. Twenty-two were present.

It was announced that Mrs. B. I. Gonder would be corresponding secretary of the women's group in place of Mrs. Edward Crowe. Persons volunteered their services to assist on or before election day. Another meeting is set for Tuesday, October 28.

Names Committee For UN Week In Community

Mayor Russell L. Smith, Oakland, and Emile Germain, Mt. Lake Park, were named committee members for United Nations Week in the Community. UN week is to be observed during the week of October 19 to 26.

The men said some posters would be displayed during that week but that no particular observance was being planned. Willard L. Hawkins, county superintendent of schools, said some program would be presented in each school of the county sometime during the week

President Dwight D. Eisenhower has issued a proclamation proclaiming United Nations Day, in observance of the anniversary of United Nations charter on October 24, and caller upon the citizens to observe that day in some special manner which would demonstrate their faith in the United Nations and contribute to a better understanding of its aims, problems and accomplishments.

He declared the United Nations provides an unique international forum and constantly seeks to improve its machinery for collective security and the peaceful settlement of disputes.

U. S. accused Red China of giving other nations distorted information about its negotiations on Formosa crisis.

"Night of Harmony" Set For Friday In Southern High Gym

The Pittsburghers, an international champion barber shop quartet from Pittsburgh, will headline Oakland's fifth annual night of Harmony, sponsored by the local SPEBSQSA in the Southern High school gym this Friday evening at 8 p. m.

Opening the program will be the Oakland chapter chorus, directed by Aza Stanton, singing many of the old favorites. The twenty- member chorus will make its first appearance in newly purchased outfits.

By popular request the local organization is bringing back for this year's show The Beauty Shop Quartet, girl barber shoppers from Grafton, W. Va. Other quartets to appear on the program are "The Mad Flatters," Euclid, O.; "The Freeloaders," Fairmont, W. Va.; "The Prestonaires," Kingwood; and "The Mountainaires," Oakland.

The event is co-sponsored by the Oakland-Mt. Lake Park Lions club. The club is arranging for the sale of Delores Truly candy in the lobby of the gymnasium. Mrs. Truly is the former Delores Kerins, of Oakland, and resides in Frostburg.

Striped Bass Stocked

Some 630 striped bass were stocked in Deep Creek Lake last week, it was announced by Bill Harman, regional fish culturist.

The fish were from the Eastern area of Maryland and the fish arrived in good condition.

As an experiment the army flew a load of 50 striped bass to the lake in a helicopter. About 50 percent of the fish were lost but Harman said better results are expected by this method after certain conditions are checked.

Weather Is Ideal

Weather on the Mountain Top during the past week was considered almost ideal. There was a cold wind Friday and Saturday but skies were clear. Sunday was cool and clear and the only frost of the week occurred Monday morning. Most of the day remained clear, however.

Tuesday and Wednesday were clear and warm and there was every indication that Thursday would be the same. Temperatures were in the 80's.

Two thirds of the half played in all Northern territory.

Southern High's Highlanders made their crash into the scoring column a worthwhile one last Saturday when they pushed across two touchdowns to defeat their county rivel, the Northern Huskies in a 12-0 victory at Oakland.

Previous to yesterday's contest Southern had been held scoreless in five games, all of which they lost. But Terry Colaw, Highlander righ halfback, had different ideas Saturday when he plunged over in the first period.

An intercepted pass at Northern's 40-yard line set up the TD. After driving to the five Colaw smacked the middle of the line for the score. The drive started when Quarterback Dick Stuck dropped a pass in the hands of Keith Butler.

Northern, coached by Denver Mitchell, had their backs against the goal line again in the third period and were attempting to move out when Stemple, Southern Center, pounced on a Huskie fumble at the latter's one-yard stripe. Quarterback Stuck on the next play sneaked through the line and gave Southern its 12-0 margin. Both points after touchdown failed.

Dick Cerne recovered a Northern fumble to set up the second TD. Butler's run around left end failed.

Northern never got close to the Southern goal line, getting only to the 30 yard line in the first half. In the second half all play was in Nothern territory. Southern intercepted three passes, blocked two punts, recovered three Northern fumbles and allowed the Huskies only 53 yards gained.

The game initiated Southern's first year in staging a homecoming event. A pep rally was held at the football field Friday evening. Saturday's game followed a short parade which included the Southern High band, floats and the Boy Scouts. Nancy White was chosen as Homecoming queen and was crowned at the dance Saturday night held in honor of the football players. The High school dance band, the Diplomats, played for the dance.

Both Southern and Northern bands put on halftime shows for the small crowd that shivered under strong winds and cool temperatures.

Band Booster Group Is Organized Monday

The following officers were elected: M. C. Cargo, president; H. M. Riley, vice-president; Mrs. B. B. Snyder, secretary; Mrs. Marguerite Miller, treasurer; Harry C. Coddington, publicity chairman.

Mr. Cargo urged that a large number of persons join the group, regardless of whether or not they were band parents. He announced the formation of a "Buck a Month club". Persons belonging to this group will be able to attend concerts without paying admission.

Another short meeting is planned for Monday, October 20, at 7:30, prior to the Southern High Parent-Teacher meeting.

Bank Filled With Smoke

A choked up incinerator filled the Garrett National Bank in Oakland with smoke last Thursday evening and brought the Oakland firemen to the scene.

There was no fire, however, and the alarm was not sounded. The excitement occurred while the stockholders of the bank were having a dinner meeting at the Mt. Lake Hotel.

In All-State Chorus

Seven students, two from Northern High school and five from Southern High, are in Baltimore this week representing the schools in the all-state chorus. The chorus is scheduled to sing at the State Teachers' convention being held Thursday and Friday in that city.

Alice Madigan, Lois Swartzentruber, Harvey Winters, Edward Umstot and William Burgwald are the representatives from Southern High school. They were selected by Mrs. Russell H. Brown, music instructor.

Strategies Used By World Communists Outlined In Talk

The various strategies in use by the International Communist party were clearly and concisely outlined before a group of interested persons Monday evening by Bayard Keller, of Silver Spring.

Mr. Keller, a former resident of Grantsville, is present division chief of the Department of Defense, and he addressed an open meeting sponsored by the Garrett Branch, American Association of University Women, held in St. Paul's Methodist church assembly room.

Mr. Keller explained the seven major strategies that had been used up to the present time but pointed out that the ultimate goal of the Communist party, that of world domination, had never been forgotten. He asserted that these strategies changed only as conditions seemed to make them necessary but that they still had only one purpose, that of world revolution. He reminded his listeners that of a world of some 2,750,000,000, almost one billion, or 1 in 3 were under Communist domination.

He listed the strategies and their dates: 1917 to 1921, as immediate world revolution; 1921 to '27, continued agitation and propaganda; 1928 to '33, revolutionary extremist policy, about the same as the first, and blaming external capitalism; 1934-'39, posing as a united front, with cooperation with progressive forces; 1939-'41, period of World War II, declaring the war an imperialistic war, with roots in capitalism, until Russia was invaded by Germans; 1941-'48, a period of united war effort with political alliance between western democracies and semblance of cooperation; 1946 to present, national revolutions, taking advantage of lack of unity at various points of the globe. In this latter phase he declared Russia was trying to get the United States in the position of being identified as being interested in keeping things as they are, with no changes in the present system of governments of the various peoples of the world.

Mr. Keller felt that people must stress the positive values of Democracy and make adjustments to the Asian revolution now under

Building Program For School System Under Discussion

The building program in the schools of the county came in for discussion at the meeting of the Board of Education on Tuesday. Mentioned were the band room at Southern High school, plans for the Center street all-purpose room, and the possible addition of two rooms to the Loch Lynn school.

Willard L. Hawkins, county superintendent of schools, reported progress on the band room at Southern had been slow. He said the contractor claimed he had encountered many difficulties in getting materials.

Construction at present is held up pending shipment of windows which were supposed to have been made from Chicago last week. He said the room was nearing completion and should be ready for use around November 1, providing there were no further delays.

Mr. Hawkins said the architect was completing plans for the Center street all-purpose room with expected approval set for next week. The School Board hopes to put the project out for bids around November 1.

The possibility of adding two rooms to the Loch Lynn school also came under consideration. Board members felt this would be necessary in a few years to prevent overcrowded conditions in the two Oakland elementary schools. It was felt that a large portion of the work on such a project could be done by maintenance and custodial staff during the summer months.

New Business Discussed

Under new business the superintendent presented a request from Grantsville school as a polling place November 4.

The board expressed its willingness if necessary but felt there would be other suitable places. Hawkins said some parents had

Breaks High Tension Pole With Auto

Bruce Albert Knox, of Grantsville, was discharged from Garrett County Memorial hospital in Oakland on Monday after having been a patient there since last Friday night when he wrecked his automobile on Monte Vista road, in front of the Harry L. Porter residence.

The automobile became uncontrollable as it rounded a turn, scraped a stone wall in front of the George Hanst residence and contiuued over the lawn of Mr. Porter, finally coming to a halt when it collided with a high tension electric pole. The jolt snapped the pole about three-fourths of the way up, and the middle phase of the high powered line burned in two.

Mr. Knox was helped from his automobile by Guy William Hinebaugh and taken to the hospital where it was discovered he had lost all his teeth and was otherwise bruised and cut.

A new electric pole was placed that same evening. Electric current in some parts of town was disrupted for about an hour.

Autumn Glory Train Packed With 834

The Autumn Glory excursion train unloaded 834 persons at the Oakland station Sunday for the annual event sponsored by the Garrett County-Deep Creek Lake Promotion Council, the Mt. Top Chamber of Commerce and the Garrett County Turkey Growers. It was an overflow crowd and took 22 busses and one extra automobile to accommodate the large number who arrived here from Baltimore, Washington and Silver Spring.

The train was fifteen minutes or more late in arriving but all passengers were ready to be taken on their bus ride within a few minutes. Half of the busses started for Swallow Falls and half headed for the new State Park area on Deep Creek Lake. Both groups later switched areas so that all were able to spend some time around the Lake and around the Falls area. Six turkeys were given away during the afternoon.

Concession booths were set up but food was short after about the first hour. There was one minor mishap during the afternoon. One bus broke an axle ascending River hill, just west of town, causing a slight delay, but another bus was procured and the tour continued.

There were seventeen cars on the excursion train, one of the longest on record. All excursionists were returned to the B. and O. station about 4 o'clock after three and one-half hours of viewing the sights of Garrett county.

Fifteen of those participating were newspaper reporters and officials and they expressed great delight over the trip. It was the first view of Garrett county for several of them.

Beef Cattlemen To Meet October 23rd

The first meeting of the Garrett County Beef Cattlemen's association will be held Thursday, October 23, at 8:00 p. m. at Northern High School, according to Virgil Jones, acting chairman. The purpose of this meeting is to elect officers, begin on a set of bylaws, and sign up charter members. All beef producers in Garrett County are invited.

The purpose of the Association is to promote and publicize beef production in Garrett County. The chief activity for the coming year will be a baby beef show and sale at the 1959 Garrett County Fair. Publicity from such a show and sale will benefit all producers in the county, Mr. Jones said.

A special junior membership with reduced dues has been designed for all boys interested in feeding a calf for show at the fair.

An initial organizational meeting was called by Virgil Jones, local beef breeder, on October 10. At this time a committee of local beef producers met with C. R. Winters, President; and B. F. McConnell, Secretary of the Preston County Beef Cattleman's Association. It was decided at this meeting to call another meeting of all beef producers to elect officers and accept charter memberships. Virgil Jones appointed by the group to act as temporary chairman pending the election at the October 23 meeting.

Processing Plant Plans Expansion Program In City

Further Growth, However, Depends Upon Agreement Over Water Supply

Plans for the expansion of the Oakland plant of the Sterling processing company were revealed Monday evening at a meeting of company officials and local business leaders.

But any future expansion, it was stressed, depends upon the working of an agreement between the town and the company concerning water.

At present, the plant receives most of its water from its own wells. However, this is often not adequate and the municipal system supplies water. When the plant opened several years ago, a contract was signed whereby it could buy from the town up to 100,000 gallons per day at a cost of 5c per thousand gallons. At the present time the town is charging 37c per thousand, which the company feels is excessive, and at times water is not immediately available when needed.

J. W. Ruby, president of the corporation, cited a case last Friday when the company's wells became slightly muddy and town water was needed. It was then discovered that the valve at the pumphouse which conrols Sterling's supply, had been closed. Ruby said his plant was out of production for over an hour until the valve could be opened again. He declared that has happened frequently, and cited his losses at $4.50 per minute when the plant is not operating.

Mayor Russell Smith said he did not know why the valve is closed since that line is metered and all water passing through is accounted for.

Paul Styles and A. D. Summers, vice-president, gave some statistics about the local plant. They said the company had spent over $400,000 here and was prepared to spend approximately $150,000 more if the water controversy could be solved. The expansion program would provide 40 to 50 new jobs, they said. Present plant payroll is $7,500 per week, and they are hiring more than 100.

Mayor Smith said that while he felt there was sufficient water at this time, it would be necessary in the near future to construct an impounding and filtration plant. To finance this, he recommended the issuance of self retiring revenue bonds.

Smith also said that approximately 40 percent of the water users are not metered, but this is being corrected as fast as funds are available. He also said that about 25 percent of the water pumped into the reservoir tanks is unaccounted for. The mayor said the town is now trying to determine the cost of producing water.

In an effort to reach an agreement between company and town officials, a special meeting of the mayor and council has been called for next Monday evening in the city hall. It was indicated that a large number of businessmen plan to attend.

To The Citizens Of Garrett County.

Our Party Candidate for Governor has told us that one of his first aims will be attract industry into our state. If elected, I will gladly cooperate in this program with special emphasis upon attracting industry to Garrett County.

During the coming four years our County will see more new road construction, under the Twelve Year State Roads program, than we have seen in the past, because, the Twelve Year program is just beginning to get into full swing. Various problems will arise that will require careful study and some corrective legislation. At the present time, more than half of the men working for the contractors constructing new roads in our County are from other States. A committee has been appointed to hold hearings and make recommendations to remedy this situation. As Chairman of that committee I expect to hold hearings in Cumberland, and perhaps in Oakland. I cannot foretell what recommendations the Committee will make. Personally, I am convinced that we ought to enact a law that will require the successful bidders on construction jobs, let by the State, to employ local residents, in so far as the local labor supply will suffice. Provided, however, that the successful bidders be permitted to bring their own supervisory force, not to exceed 10 percent of the total men employed.

Coal is one of our important products. Deep mining and strip mining provide employment for several hundred men. A fair portion of the coal produced here is shipped to our State institutions where it is used for heating, but during the past several years there has been a tendency to convert the heating equipment in some State buildings to the use of oil, instead of coal. Your Representatives in Garrett County, and Allegany County, have been doing everything possible to stop this practice. We have had some success in this, but if elected, I intend to increase my efforts in this direction. To this end, I will introduce a Bill to require that all new equipment purchased for this purpose must be coal burning equipment, especially in new buildings. By using coal for heating our many State owned buildings, instead of oil, our taxpayers in the State can be saved many thousands of dollars each year.

I believe that our Fish and Game Officials can supply many more fish to stock our streams than we are now getting. This Department does not receive any tax funds from the State. It operates on funds received from the sale of licenses, and fines, and on Federal funds. However, they have recently increased the license fees and, in return for this, our people have a right to expect better fishing. I shall do everything possible to get them to stock our streams more heavily, and to stock all the streams in our county that will support fish life, including the Yough River below the Power House. I will also cooperate with interested persons at the Lake, in trying to establish better conditions there.

There is also some need for further study of our Natural Gas law which was passed in 1956. The law we have now was approved by our Garrett County Farm Bureau, and we did the best we could in the light of conditions at that time, and in the face of strong opposition from lobbyists from the drilling companies. THE LAW DOES NOT REQUIRE POOLING, but the drilling companies here have refused to drill unless our land owners signed unitization, or pooling agreements. Yet, after getting unitization agreements from the farmers for large pools, the drilling companies have, in most cases, set up their wells in one corner of the unitized lands, as close to adjoining lands, not in the pool, as the law will permit. The law prevents them from coming closer than 1000 feet. The law does not require a land owner to agree to these large pools. However, where large pools are agreed upon by the land owners, I believe the law should be amended to require that the well be drilled somewhere near the center of the pool, in order to make certain that the gas is drawn from the lands included in the pool, instead of from adjoining lands, not in the pool. If elected, I will call a meeting of interested citizens to consider if some changes in the law would be helpful.

I respectfully solicit your support.

Who's Who At Northern High

By RUTH STANTON

Miss Patty A. McKenzie

If you would be visiting in Northern High School during an assembly, you would see a pretty senior girl open it. This young lady is Miss Patty A. McKenzie, 1958-59 Student Council President. And if you would be watching a parade and see the Northern High School band, you would see Pat as the Drum Majorette leading the band.

Patty is an active student at N. H. S. Along with her busy life as Student Council President and Drum Majorette, she is a member of the Future Teachers of America and Majorette Clubs, plays the alto saxophone in the high school band, and is a past member of the National Junior Honor Society. This past summer at the majorette camp in Wheeling, W. Va., the tall brown haired, blue eyed miss won two medals, one for outstanding solo twirling and one for outstanding drum majorette work.

Her interests are mainly dancing, reading, band majorette, and music. For hobbies Pat has an interesting coin collection and plays the piano.

Along with Pat's school activities she is a member of the St. Stephen Catholic Church, church choir, and the Catholic Youth Organization.

When Pat was asked about her plans for the future her reply was, "I plan to attend college and study for a degree in nursing."

F F B L Enthusiast Raises Chickens And Runs Milk Route

Claude Bishoff, a poultryman near Friendsville, finds time to raise 11,000 broilers at a time, four times a year, and still have time to run two milk routes in northern Garrett county and in adjoining Pennsylvania.

The Bishoff family, who annually enroll in the Farming For Better Living contest in Garrett County, live on a 32½ acre farm in the Hoyes Community. The alfalfa fields on the farm, kept green by the poultry manure, are operated by Mr. Bishoff's father, E. Hobart Bishoff, who runs a dairy farm across the road. Mrs. Bishoff and daughter, Anita, help with the chickens.

"I like to haul milk," Mr. Bishoff said. He started hauling milk with his father when he was sixteen years old. He worked in industry in Baltimore for six years before he served in the second World War. After the War, he again became a milk hauler, and has been a poultryman for the past six years since he built his 11,000 capacity broiler house. About a year and a half ago, he purchased a glasslined tank and truck and began hauling milk for dairymen to a Uniontown milk company. Each of the thirty-five dairymen on his two routes have installed a new stainless steel bulk cooling tank on his farm. Bishoff picks up milk every other day on each farm. Each farmer's bulk tank is large enough to hold at least five milkings.

Bishoff reported very little difficulty in running his milk pick-up routes, even in last year's severe winter.

Elect BERNARD I. GONDER
STATE SENATOR

Dear Friends:

I realize that to represent you in the State Senate is a great responsibility. Happily, I can do so with the knowledge that in the past you have entrusted me with this most important position, and I believe my record while a member is one to which I can refer with satisfaction.

During that term, it was my good fortune to be able to work harmoniously and progressively with other members of the State Legislature, regardless of party affiliation. Since that time, I have kept abreast of local and state problems and feel that my experience and interest will enable me to serve our county and state well.

During the next two weeks, I will discuss in this space a few of the more important measures which I either sponsored or supported—some of them of immediate benefit to Garrett County, and some which were part of a long range planning program which even now is bearing results.

My pledge at this time is to represent the county in such a manner as to meet the approval of the people generally; I have no selfish interests to serve and no enemies to punish. I want, as far as possible, to advance and improve the interests of the people of our county. If elected, it is my intention, with God's permission, to serve a full four-year term.

Sincerely,

BERNARD I. GONDER

Helen Moon A Director Of Children's Work

A parish paper of the United Brethren church, published at Indianapolis, Ind., carried a front page article in September about Helen Moon, who had been named a director of Children's Work. Miss Moon is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth G. Moon, of Loch Lynn Heights.

The article is reprinted:

"Miss Helen Moon has been officially elected Director of Children's Work of the Evangelical United Brethren denomination. She will be living in Dayton, O., following two years of graduate work at Yale university Divinity School. Her present address is Yale University Divinity School, New Haven, Conn.

"She will become co-worker with Dr. W. R. Montgomery, director of Adult Work and former University Heights pastor in Indianapolis. She will be working under leadership of Dr. E. Craig Brandenburg, denominational Christian Education leader and former Indiana South Conference superintendent. She succeeds Miss Rachel Brant.

"Rusty," as many have learned to know Miss Moon, has served selflessly and effectively in the church for ten years. She started working as a part-time secretary while an Indiana Central student. Later she became the assistant to the minister and during the past year was director of Christian Education. Her efficient service was especially noteworthy during the transition periods aroused by the departure of Dr. Turley and untimely death of Dr. McCormick. Helen "held things together" during these trying days of adjustment. She has devotedly worked with children and youth of our church in addition to secretary-bookkeeping responsibilities. Her leadership of the Children's Choir and her superb ability with youth work will long be remembered. She has been a channel of God as lives have been changed under her leadership. Helen had become so much a part of University Heights church that it is difficult to think of her as actually in a new area of work. We rejoice in the new horizons of Christian service which beckons to her."

W. Kenneth Johns, explorer adviser for Oakland Explorer Post No. 31, was in Greensburg, Pa., Tuesday night attending a planning for a meeting boy scout trip to Philmont ranch next summer.

Reviews Evaluation Report On Schools

At a meeting of the Board of Education on Tuesday, Willard L. Hawkins, county superintendent of schools, reviewed the evaluation report given by Dr. Willard Elsbree following his two-day visit last week in the schools of the county.

His evaluation was summed up as follows:

Physical plans show great improvement and are being placed in excellent condition.

Custodial service was good. Most of the plants were well-kept, clean and neat in appearance.

Staff morale appeared to be high on all levels. Relations on part of supervisors, principals, teachers and pupils were superior.

Class size in most instances was good and fairly consistent.

Students are living in pleasant classroom environments. There appears to be no major disciplinary problems. There also appeared to be a relaxed feeling in the classrooms. Rapport between pupils and teachers was good.

Improvement in professional qualifications of teachers has increased considerably over past decade. The record shows that only 30 teachers are now teaching without Bachelor's degrees and that 38 on staff of 184 have master's degrees.

Enthusiasm and interest of teachers toward the desire to constantly improve their work and willingness to make progress in their work was noted.

Various observations of excellent instruction noted.

The man also listed items of recommendation to which the school system might give more attention:

Improvement of county-wide testing program, especially in area of achievement. It was pointed out by superintendent that Federal funds probably would be available for this program with some of the money available perhaps before end of school year.

Need for supervisors and principals to keep pace with rapidly changing trends and experiences in education.

Need for improvement in library facilities, particularly in elementary school. It was pointed out that much had been done to increase amount of funds allotted for library services during past several years.

Identification of problems of instruction in individual schools. What is the best program and is the level of expectancy high enough.

Consideration should be given for special education for severely mentally retarded children. This problem is under consideration but no facilities or funds are as yet available.

Southern Greets Four New Faculty Members

Bob Michael, Joan Clary Hold Highlander Positions

In the eleventh grade he went on the trip to the United Nations. In the ninth grade he won second place in he Garrett County Spelling Bee at Kitzmiller.

After school hours he works at Oakland Pharamacy. In his spare time he enjoys working on his two hobbies, which are model railroading and radio and electronics.

After he finishes high school, Bob hopes to further his education objected to the use of the school as a polling place.

After consulting the school law pertaining to the use of school buildings, a request from Louis R. Beda, Connellsville, circuit supervisor of Jehovah's Witnesses, to use Southern High school for a three-day religious gathering, was denied.

Transportation costs were compared by Mr. Hawkins. He indicated that even though there were numerous bus extensions through consolidations and shorter hauls and elimination of some routes, the total cost of transportation this year would be very little more than that of last year.

Transportation cost in this county is the highest in the state per pupil, and had been mounting steadily due to increased demands and services over the past several years. Board members said that further bus extensions would have to be scrutinized carefully before being approved. They felt that maximum transportation service was now being rendered and that the cost of further extensions could no longer be justified.

The board considered the list of several bus stops submitted to it by the school bus association as being dangerous stops. Mr. Hawkins was instructed to notify drivers of the buses making these stops, to check with state police and see if existing hazards could be eliminated.

The board appeared sympathetic with a request of Fred Onderdonk, Jr., president of the Red House PTA to have the board blacktop a small playground area for that school but said no funds for this purpose were available at present.

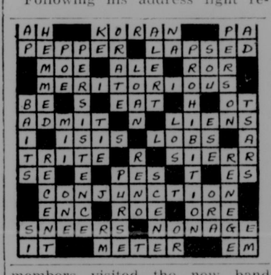
way in various stages of development. He felt that Democracy was rooted to the principle of growth and that whatever nation had the power to grow as the world changed would eventually be on top in this struggle for supremacy.

Mr. Keller held his audience for over an hour with his discussion of this struggle which seemed to have no end. Mr. Keller has given lectures at the University of Oklahoma and at Central State college, Edmund, Okla., speaking to over four thousand persons. He has been invited to return to Oklahoma City to address some four thousand additional persons in the municipal stadium there.

He is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bayard T. Keller, Sr., of Grantsville, and a nephew of Miss Ruth Keller, Oakland. He spent a number of years in Switzerland and did post graduate work at the University of Zurich. His assignment have included contacts at Yale, Columbia, Cornell, Syracuse and he recently returned from a mission to San Francisco.

Following his address light refreshments were served and the discussion continued with a question and answer period.

He was accompanied to Oakland by his wife, and after a visit with his aunt, they returned to Silver Spring early Tuesday morning.



FRIENDSVILLE

A birthday dinner was given in honor of Airc William Capel at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Frazee last Sunday. Around thirty guests were present.

Wed In Deer Park Church

The Assembly of God Church, Deer Park, was the scene of a candle light ceremony on August 2, at 7 o'clock p. m., which united in marriage Miss Geraldine Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith, Butler, Pa., formerly of Deer Park, and Mr. Louis Boucher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boucher, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. E. W. Blizzard, pastor, before an altar adorned with bouquets of red roses and white asters.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length gown of imported Chantilly French lace over satin styled by Maurer. The gown was fashioned with a yoke of tull embroidered with seed pearls, long pointed sleeves and a full skirt of tulle with scalloped overskirt of imported lace.

Her finger tip veil of tulle edged with imported lace was held in place by a halo of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a white Bible covered with pink sweetheart rose buds and white carnations with lover knotted streamers.

Miss June Boucher, Milwaukee, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of aqua net over satin with matching head piece and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of white carnations.

Miss Barbara Boucher, Milwaukee, and Mrs. Jeannette Venske, Ironwood, Mich., sisters of the groom, were bridesmaids. Both wore identical gowns of net over satin with matching headpieces. Miss Boucher wore light blue and Mrs. Venske wore pink. Each carried an old fashioned nose-gay of white carnations.

Rev. William Venske, brother-in-law of the groom, Ironwood, was best man. Ushers were Roger Kellar, Mt. Nebo, Pa.; and Robert Klier, Mt. Lake Park.

Mrs. Gilbert Filsinger, Deer Park, played the traditional wedding marches and also accompanied Mrs. Irving Steiding, Oakland, as she sang "Wither Thou Goest," and "The Lord's Prayer." During the ceremony the groom sang to the bride "I Love You Truly."

F F B L. Families Look Forward To Banquet

Farming for Better Living families in this county and 24 West Virginia counties are looking toward this month and next to having dinner with the business men and civic leaders who sponsor the farm improvement program.

Over 30 banquets are being scheduled in these counties in which Farming for Better Living is sponsored. At these events county awards will be presented to winners. In most counties the business men of the county sponsor the banquet with the FFBL enrollees as their guests.

The 1958 FFBL program in this county will conclude with a dinner on November 14, at 6:30 p. m., at Southern High school, Oakland, it was announced recently by S. T. Naylor, chairman.

Not only will the county champion be named at this time but other awards will be distributed, ranging from cash to merchandise and award ribbons.

More than 1,800 farm families in the 25 counties enrolled last fall in the 19th annual competition. At enrollment time they received a book of recommendations on good farming practices and a scoring sheet to be filled out and turned in for grading before the banquet season starts.

The local county councils are now at work grading and scoring the project sheets in order to select the top county winner and the runners-up. The sheets of the past county winners will be judged for regional honors. The 1957 winner in Garrett county was the Claude W. Wagner, Jr., family, north of Oakland.

The farming for Better Living program, sponsored for the past nineteen years, is designed to dramatize the good farming practices advocated by agricultural education groups and at the same time better acquaint farmers and business men with one another. It is co-sponsored on the top level by the Agricultural Extension Service and the Monongahela Power company.

WEEKLY SERMON

IS APOLOGY ENOUGH?

Some folks seem to think that if they apologize for their sins to God that this is all that is required! For those who take such a light view of their sins it would be well to investigate the Doctrine of Forgiveness found in the Scriptures. Sin is no light matter with God. His justice demands that the offender be punished for his crime. The very sentence of death is passed upon him by reason of the broken law. No apology, no admission of guilt, no confession of wrong doing will set that sentence of death aside. Is this not true in our standard of justice? Would my confession of robbing a bank set me free and absolve me of guilt? No, the penalty for breaking the law must be administered. God's plan for the forgiveness of sin is centered in the substitutionary death of Christ for the sinner's sin. When one places his personal faith in Jesus Christ, God counts his sin as paid for in the person of His substitute. He then is free to pardon the guilty. If we have no Saviour we remain under the condemnation of death and our sins remain unforgiven even though we have confessed them. This Saviour offers to become your Saviour if you will but repent and turn to Him.

THE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Luke	2	21-33
Monday	Luke	2	41-52
Tuesday	Matthew	2	19-23
Wednesday	Genesis	18	19
Thursday	Proverbs	1	8
Friday	Proverbs	23	22-25
Saturday	II Timothy	1	5

It's THE birthday. The third birthday, which, in the custom of Joe's church, brings a child to the threshold of formal religious education.

Already Dad and Mother have taught him his prayers. Simple Bible stories have brightened bedtime. And Joe has enjoyed many a happy hour in the church nursery while his parents worshipped.

But during this important third year of his life he will become a full-fledged Sunday School pupil. He'll be a "regular" in the Beginners' Department.

And Joe's parents are going to join an adult class. For, while starting-age may vary slightly in one church or another, all Christendom knows that sound religious education depends on The Big Three—Father, Mother, and Child!

Uncelebrated Day

Lesson for October 19, 1958

THE DAYS we celebrate are milestones, turning-points. They are days marking a line between Before and After. A birthday, a wedding day, a Declaration of Independence, these are days worth celebrating. So the church does right in celebrating, as we do, various important events connected with the life of Jesus. Not all churches observe all these days, but over wide areas of Christendom they are celebrated by many congregations: the annunciation to Mary the Virgin, the birth of Jesus, the presentation in the temple when he was 40 days old, his crucifixion, his resurrection, his ascension. But his baptismal day is uncelebrated, that day when he, then about 30 years of age, was baptized by his cousin John.

Dr. Foreman

A Decisive Day

It seems all the stranger that the church should not celebrate this day, because it was such a turning-point in the life of Jesus. On the one hand, this was the day before which Jesus was a private citizen, a carpenter, a home-town man, but never again. This was the day after which Jesus was the dedicated Teacher, the mysterious Messiah, as never before. This was the line between Jesus' private and his public life. On the other hand, on the day of his baptism and from that day forward, Jesus was endowed with the Holy Spirit as never before. Whether you take the story of the dove literally or as a symbol, it is clear that John, who had a keen spiritual eye, realized that this was the day the Spirit came, an event as definite as the settling of a dove on a man's shoulder. Immediately after this great day we read in one gospel the Spirit "led" Jesus. For another gospel writer the word is not "lead" but drive. Why should the church not celebrate that high day?

Embarassing Baptism

The reason for the church's peculiar silence about this great day is perhaps that we are embarrassed by one thing that took place then: Jesus was baptized! This baptism of John's was distinctly understood to be a baptism "of repentance, for the remission [forgiveness] of sins." But what sins did Jesus commit? How could he need forgiveness? The church finds it easy to understand the Spirit's coming; the Voice from Heaven may be harder to understand, but it "fits" what we believe. But the baptism does not appear to fit. It looks as if either Jesus was a sinner after all, and confessed his sins in being baptized; or else he was making people believe he had sinned—which of course would be a sin in itself.

This is indeed a puzzle, but we may be able to find an answer. Let us be bold enough to rule out three possibilities at once.

Jesus was not baptized in order to have his own sins forgiven. The church is surely right in affirming that Jesus lived without blemish, the one perfect man in history.

Jesus was not baptized to fulfill the Old Testament law; for no law in the various codes of the Old Testament requires all men to be baptized. "Fulfilling all righteousness" is not the same thing as obeying a specific law.

Further, Jesus was not baptized as if he were playing a part, encouraging others to do as he did. A perfectly healthy mother will sometimes encourage a timid child to take medicine by first taking some herself. Is Jesus our considerate Elder Brother who takes a "cure" he does not need, in order to coax us to take it because we do need it?

Calvary Began There

No: no to all these theories of the why of Jesus' baptism. The real reason lies deeper. This was the day (so far as we know) Calvary began. Jesus became known in his lifetime as the "friend of sinners" and afterwards and ever since, he has been called the savior of sinners. The Bible shows us that he did this by becoming one of us, dentifying himself with us, even the worst of us, so that as St. Paul says, "he who knew no sin was made sin—for us." Jesus publicly, dramatically, decisively, by his baptism declared and declares that he sides with the repentant sinner, always, rather with those who in their own eyes need no repentance.

MAYOR AND TOWN COUNCIL
Oakland, Maryland

What Kind of a Man Do You Want to Represent You in the U.S. Senate?

Glenn Beall, who considers it a high honor to be a United States Senator and who has made all Marylanders proud of his record

Or, a man who openly declared that he did not want to be Senator because that office did not permit him to hand out enough political jobs.

Glenn Beall, who is liked and respected throughout the State and who has served all Marylanders well—regardless of where they live or how they vote

Or, a man who is tied to the apron strings of a Big City Political Boss!

Glenn Beall, who has helped create jobs for thousands of Marylanders by helping bring new government and private industry to the State.

Or, a man who has deprived Marylanders of job opportunities because of his tax policies which has driven away Maryland industries and kept new industry out of the State.

Say Your Say .....

Maryland Farm News carried this item about voting in its October issue. We've hashed and re-hashed this problem, but the Farm News gives it a different slant that may be more effective. It declared:

"How many times have you heard someone say: 'I wonder how HE ever got to be governor, or senator, or a congressman, or a mayor'. The answer of course, is that you voted him into office. 'I did not', you reply indignantly. 'I didn't even vote'! That's exactly why the man to whom you object so strenuously is in office. By your not voting he did not have to combat the protest vote you would have cast.

"Successful candidates for public office are supposed to be the choice of ALL the people, not just some of the people in the locale from which they are elected. Granted, everybody doesn't vote for the same man, and the majority must, of course, decide the issue, but at least let's see that the winner really WINS—that he IS the choice of the majority of citizens and doesn't just ride to victory on the strength of a small vote."

Your vote is your voice—use it! It has long been a source of concern to all thinking people that in a great democracy where every citizen of voting age has the privilege of casting his ballot as he sees fit, not few but THOUSANDS disregard that privilege and do not even bother to go to the polls.

We waste a lot of time complaining about the men elected to public office AFTER the elections—why not use a few minutes to take time to cast our ballot BEFORE elections?

In the modern age in which we live where radio and television bring voices and personalities right into our living rooms, in a land where our free press has the right to, and does, speak out regarding the character and characteristics of the men who seek our votes, there is no possible way we can justify our ignorance as to what is going on.

"All that's needed for evil to prevail is for good men to do nothing," said Burke. It is well worth repeating—and heeding.

Let us be different this November. Go to the polls. Say your say. Do your part to put the right men in the right places so your state's affairs will be run right. VOTE!

Rare Coins On Display At First National Bank Here

Oakland residents who haven't had a face-to-face meeting with a "Fugio" cent, the first authorized U. S. coin, or a Jackson "Hard Times" coin will have a chance to get acquainted with them here at the First National Bank, according to Mr. George K. Littman, Cashier.

An exhibit, containing a representative collection of old coins which date back to 1722, has been obtained from the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond.

The first panel of the display includes types of coins which circulated in the American Colonies and early days of independence—76 in all, from the 1722 Wood's Coinage farthing and halfpenny through the Civil War tokens of 1864.

Panel one also features Spanish reals which were legal tender in the United States until 1857, as well as two Virginia halfpennies minted in 1773. The first U. S. pattern coin, the "Nova Constellatio," is shown in this panel, along with the "Fugio" whose legend was by Benjamin Franklin. The "Fugio" was the first authorized U. S. coin.

Additional coins in this panel are the Continental period cents which were minted by various states, and types of tokens which have circulated as money in different periods of American history.

The second panel features regular issues of U. S. coins from the large cent pieces of 1794 to the dimes of 1952. Mr. Littman said that one oustanding coin in this panel is the 1865 two cent piece which was the first coin to carry the motto "In God We Trust."

"Probably the most unusual coin in panel three of the exhibit is the Trade Dollar," Mr. Littman said. Originally issued for circulation in the Orient to compete with the Mexican peso, the Trade Dollar was demonetized by Congress in 1887. However, many of them still circulate in the Orient.

In panel four can be found various types of American coins, gold issues, as well as regular and commemorative issues. The familiar "double eagles" are included in this panel.

The last panel in the collection shows U. S. silver commemorative issues, beginning with the Columbian Exposition half dollar of 1892 and continuing through 49 other commemorative half dollar issues ending with the Washington Carver Memorial of 1954.

The coins are being exhibited by the First National Bank to present to the people of Oakland a compact representative collection of U. S. coins of historial significance.

City Water To Be Available For Sterling Plant

Council Considers Plans To Increase Water Capacity

A resolution to extend the water contract of the Sterling Processing company was passed Monday evening at a special meeting of the Oakland Mayor and Council.

The subject of furnishing municipal water to the company has been a matter of controversy since the plant's original water contract expired last summer, and Monday's action was expected to solve the question, at least for the present.

The resolution came as the climax of an evening of discussion between members of the council and about 25 local businessmen who appeared before them to urge the furnishing of water.

As presented by Councilman Henry W. McComas, the resolution provides for three things:

1. To sell to Sterling as much "surplus" water as the town may have at any one time.

2. To furnish water at a cost not to exceed ten cents a thousand gallons, production cost to be determined by a water engineer, the contract to remain in force for ten years.

3. To proceed "with dispatch" with plans to greatly increase the present supply, probably by the construction of a surface impounding and filtration system.

Earl Zepp, local businessman, explained the company's position, stating that plans for expansion of the plant here were stymied until the council took a postive position regarding furnishing water. He said unless water was available not only would the expansion program be moved elsewhere, but some operations here would be curtained or eliminated. He asked for an immediate answer to three questions:

1. Can the Sterling comapny count on having water which the town doesn't need for essential purposes;

2. Can the water be furnshed at the actual cost of pumping, cost to not include capitalization of the system;

3. An indication of the town's future intentions regarding expansion of the water supply.

The motion finally presented and passed unanimously by the council covered the three points propounded.

Present, too, at the meeting was William Powers, of the Chester Engineering Co., who has recently completed a survey of present and future water needs. He said the present supply is inadequate at some seasons, and his company recommended the filtration installation.

Hawkinson Tread Employes Strike; Place Picketed

Operations at the Hawkinson Tread plant in Oakland remained at a standstill today following a strike yesterday morning by eight employees. A picket line was established early yesterday afternoon and was still being patrolled this morning.

The issue involved in the strike is whether the employees are to affiliate with the Teamsters Union. Two union organizers from Cumberland Local 453 are meeting with the men and plan to meet with the plant owners, Fred Glotfelty and Playford Ryan.

At a meeting of the Union representatives and employes Tuesday night, eight of ten shop employees agreed to affiliate with the local, which is the same union represented at the Sterling Processing Company. Following Tuesday night's meeting, three employees on the night shift were discharged for attending a union meeting on company time. The following morning the day workers failed to appear for work and the picket line was set up.

Robert Bayard, one of the organizers, said this morning he and his companion, Francis X. Cuzzens, would attempt to meet with the plant owners at the earliest possible time to work out arrangements for possible union recognition and a resumption of work at the plant.

The owners indicated they had no knowledge of an attempt to organize the plant until they heard of the meeting Tuesday night and entered the building after 10 o'clock and found the meeting in progress and the plant shut down.

HOPES TO REPEAT HERE—This hunter killed his deer with bow and arrow in Pennsylvania, near State College, a few weeks ago. He hopes to repeat the performance when the bow season for Garrett county comes in on Saturday, November 1. The hunter is Larry Klein, an employe of the Forestry department, who moved to Oakland in July. He lost no time in joining the Mt. Top Archery club, and hopes to get another deer in this county during the two weeks open season. Interest in the bow and arrow season appears to be running high in this area, it being the first year for such a season. Bucks or does will be fair game. The regular deer season will be open later, the first week in December. Klein also got a red fox for good measure on his recent trip, which is shown in the picture along with his good sized deer.

Gas Production Shows Decline

County Commissioners Get Check For $14,087 As Share Of Total

Natural gas production in Garrett county over the past three months ending September 30 showed some decrease over the last report, and was the least of the four checks during the past year. The report was received this week by the County Commissioners. The check was for $14,087.91 and some $6,000 less than for the previous check.

The number of cubic feet produced in the period totaled 787,766,000, more than eight million cubic feet per day. The marketable gas was valued at $201,255.87.

The gas company's check was the amount for the seven percent tax on the marketable gas which was just $6,570.30 less than for the previous 90-day period. The largest check received for any 90-day period was $28,573.82.

The breakdown of the latest tax receipts showed $5,635.16 as the purchaser's proportion of the tax (2.8 percent) and $8,452.75 as the producer's proportion of the tax (4.2 percent).

Thirty-three wells were listed as producing wells at this time, one less than the previous report. Eliminated was a Miller well of Columbian Carbon company that showed only 83,000 for the June report. No new wells were added.

Biggest producing well this time was the Arnold George well with over 121 million cubic feet. Next largest was the Bowser well with over 97 million, while third in the group was the Herman and Hanlin well with over 92 million cubic feet. Other big producers were the Barbara Miller well with over 68 million, Mitchell-Rush, with over 62 million, Earl Knox well with over 48 million, the Collier and Whiteface wells with over 40 million.

The check was the fourth one on the new year for receipts. Last year's total which ended September 30 showed $85,619.57. The first $50,000 went toward expenses of the school bond indebtedness. The next $25,000 went toward expenses of the Garrett County Memorial hospital. Any amount above $75,000 went into a fund for new school building repairs or additional new construction. The total for this year now is $83,888.56, which means that $8,888.56 will go into new school construction or repairs.

Since the first check for the tax on the marketable gas was received by the Commissioners in July, 1951, the county's governing body has received $365,216.84.

Survey On Health Clinic In Accident Area About Ended

A survey, to determine whether or not a health clinic could be established in the city of Accident, which was started a few days ago, is about to be brought to a successful conclusion, according to information received from that city this week.

The survey covered Accident, McHenry, Hoyes, Bittinger and Keyser's Ridge areas, wherein it was found there were more than 300 telephones, a thousand mailboxes and a total population of well over 3,000.

The survey was conducted by a team of eight persons, Carl Wharton, Mrs Ernest Glass, Ross Speicher, R. C. Turney, Edward DeWitt, Harry Collier, Earl Haenftling and Walter Harman.

On the basis of the figures revealed they felt it was apparent that the area would be able to support two medical doctors and a dentist to be located in the proposed health clinic, and that the residence of these professional men in the area would not be an infringement upon the practice of any of the nearby physicians.

Those involved in the survey are hoping that the results will bring a positive reply from the Sears-Roebuck Foundation which is sponsoring the survey.

It was pointed out that the group was planning a health clinic, not a hospital, since the cost of a hospital would be out of reach and out of reason for the represented wealth in the areas.

To facilitate and expedite the matter of conducting a survey, Mayor Ernest Glass of Accident selected the individuals who conducted the survey. The person suggesting the action that is being taken was the Rev. H. H. Droutz.

What DEMOCRATS think about their senatorial candidate:

In the Democrat primary for U. S. Senator, 65% of the votes were cast AGAINST D'Alesandro. Public statements by prominent Democrats reflect their true sentiments.

Dr. R. Walter Graham In an article headlined "Little Hope for Spending Curbs Under D'Alesandro", Graham, Baltimore's City Comptroller declared "They aren't going to reduce expenditures. That would mean discontinuing certain jobs which is suicide for an aspiring politician". Baltimore News-Post, Aug. 27, 1954

Clarence W. Miles "These are clearly not times in which the nominee for the United States Senate should be chosen on the basis of purported political expediency or the primary purpose of satisfying individual political ambitions" Baltimore Sun, Jan. 15, 1958

Dr. Clarence Long: "The "little guy" that the Mayor is for is a 200-pound guy named Thomas D'Alesandro. His claims of allegiance to the little guy are phoney and a cruel joke. The Mayor's tax program drove many firms out of the city and caused widespread unemployment, and it was the "little guy" who suffered most." Baltimore Evening Sun, April 16, 1958

James Bruce: "James Bruce saw in the D'Alesandro campaign for the United States Senate a plot of Jack Pollack to take over control of the city and state". Baltimore Morning Sun, May 8, 1958

East Baltimore Democratic Club: The East Baltimore Democratic Club sent out circulars with sample ballots, reading: "Do you remember full time employment in Baltimore—until D'Alesandro drove industry out of town". Baltimore Morning Sun, May 15, 1958

And, here's what Mr. D'Alesandro said about the office he now seeks:

Baltimore Sun, Oct. 8, 1957: "If they tell you that the United States Senate is the top of the ticket, don't you believe it. I DON'T WANT THAT JOB!"

Baltimore Sun, Dec. 9, 1957: Mr. D'Alesandro was quoted by Thomas O'Neill of the Sunpapers as saying that, as Senator, "the only jobs you get are a couple of elevator operators".

Baltimore Evening Sun, Oct. 20, 1957: Asked if he would run for the Senate, Mr D'Alesandro said: "No, sir! They want me to run. You know why? They want a strong Baltimore man on the ticket to help drag an OLD NAG across the finish line."

Elect BERNARD I.
GONDER
STATE SENATOR

To My Friends:

One of the yardsticks by which you can judge a man's probable future actions is an examination of his past, for a man is merely a composite of what has gone before.

And one of the most satisfying experiences during my previous term as your State Senator was the harmony with which I was able to work with other members of the legislature, regardless of party.

Because of this harmony, a number of important things were accomplished during my term.

For one thing, it was during this term that a survey was begun by the State concerning the need of a hospital at Oakland. I was instrumental in having the State Planning Commission begin this survey in this county, and, following the death of the late George Loar and his generous bequest, Federal funds were quickly forthcoming to construct the modern institution we now have.

My concern was also with the schools. A program was proposed and passed which supplied much needed money for the various schools of the county and helped considerably in the years before the present long-range high and elementary school program was initiated.

There was at that time on the books legislation requiring the County Commissioners to advertise two weeks for purchasing road machinery in the amount of $500 or more. Furthermore, there was an annual limit of $10,000 for the purchase of new machinery. For the sake of efficiency and economy, the advertising requirement was eliminated, and the purchase limit was raised to $25,000. In view of present conditions, however, it probably should be raised again as the limit is very restricting because of the present prices of heavy machinery.

During my previous term, too, the county treasurer was authorized to issue automobile licenses for the convenience of the public.

I was instrumental in raising the amount of the county allotments to the various volunteer fire companies, thus making it possible for them to operate more effectively.

I aided in establishing the Livestock Sanitary Service, which now operates a full time laboratory in Oakland at small cost to the county, the bulk of the expense being borne by the University of Maryland.

Other legislation in which I was actively interested, and of particular benefit to the local area, was the recodifying of the fish and game laws, consolidating all of these laws into one act. Following this, it was arranged for three carloads of small mouth bass to be stocked in Deep Creek Lake—one of the largest operations of this type to date. I also sponsored or supported acts pertaining to county libraries whereby the state provides financial help; aided in reduction of state tax to ten cents per $100, the least it had been in 100 years, and aided in reducing the state income tax fifty percent.

Of course, time and situations change. Some of the things for which I worked are of no present concern, but at the time they were important. But I believe I can take pride in a record of solid and permanent progress in a number of fields.

Should you return me to the State Senate, I shall carefully consider each issue and problem as it arises, and do what I believe best for the people of my county and state with their advice and consultation.

Sincerely,

Bernard I. Gonder

City Water

per day, in which case the supply would be imperiled under present conditions.

The specific recommendations of his company were:

1. The construction of a pumping station on the Youghiogheny river near the junction of the Little Yough;

2. Continued use of present well water as long as available, supplemented by the river water;

3. The construction of a 500,000 gallon per day filtration plant;

4. Reinforcing the existing mains, and the construction of larger mains, to move the water more efficiently;

5. An additional storage tank in the east end of town, near the high school, to serve the outlying district and to increase fire protection in that area;

6. The immediate metering of all consumers to increase water revenues and to more accurately account for water consumption.

When questioned, he estimated the complete plan would cost approximately $500,000, of which about half would be for the treatment plant and half for distribution and storage. However, he said, an immediate improvement would be made if larger lines were laid, especially in the business area.

This prompted a lengthy discussion about costs and ways to raise the funds required. It was the final concensus that self-retiring water bonds in the amount of $500,000, to be sold as needed, would be most economical. This involved a 40 year retirement plan and it was estimated that under this program consumer water rates would be raised about 80 percent.

Powers said other sources of water besides the Youghiogheny had been considered, but he felt the recommended source the best, both for reliability and quantity. He indicated his survey showed that during the driest period the river flowed 500 gallons a minute. By the year 2,000, he estimated, the town would require 500 gallons a minute under normal growth conditions. This would be increased should more water-using industries move in, he emphasized.

Other sources considered and discard for various reasons included Miller's Run, Murley's Run and the Broadford section.

Some discussion also involved the necessity of a sewage disposal plant in the near future. However, council felt such a plant should be a joint undertaking of Oakland, Mt. Lake Park and Loch Lynn, and financing would be aided by the federal government. Under the Chester Engineering plan, no federal funds are available for water expansion, the entire cost being borne by the town.

Following passage of the resolution, council instructed Powers and James Lewis, water superintendent, to determine at what water level in the reservoirs thee Sterling company could begin pumping, and at what point they must stop.

The new water agreement is retroactive to the time of expiration of the company's contract last summer. During the life of the original contract, the company had paid five cents a thousand gallons for water used. Since that time, the plant has not been billed for water, pending production cost statement. However, the council at a meeting several months ago set a 37c figure, but later agreed to hold the matter in abeyance.

Lewis said the Processing company's consumption of water for the past seven months has been only about 5,000 gallons per day, for ice making and drink. It was indicated that processing operations would require up to 100,000 gallons per day of town water, if it were available.

The Sterling company maintains its own wells and seeks to purchase city water only when its own supply is low.

Loar Auxiliary Meets

What an Auxiliary can do for a hospital was outlined to members of the Loar auxiliary of the local hospital at a luncheon meeting last Thursday, October 16, at the William-James hotel in Oakland.

Speaker for the occasion was Mrs. Earl Chambers, president of the Maryland Association of Hospital auxiliaries. Mrs. W. W. DeWitt, Hoyes, president of the group, presided.

Mrs. Chambers pointed out that the prime purpose was to help serve God's sick. Other reasons: public relations, volunteer service and fund raising. The first educates the community to the needs of the hospital. Under fund raising projects she mentioned gift shops, gift carts, canteens, rummage sales, benefits of all kinds, Christmas tours. She also gave several ideas about publicity.

It was announced that Mrs. Emroy Bolden and children, Mrs. David Worgan, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. James Helbig, Oakland; and DeCorsey Bolden, Washington, had donated $25 to the Memorial fund of the hospital in memory of Emroy Bolden.

Donations of books have been received recently from Catherine S. Barrick and Lenora Welch of Kitzmiller, from John Pope, and from Mrs. Joseph Helbig.

Celebrations commemorating the 100th anniversary of the birth of Theodore Roosevelt have focussed national attention this year on the 26th President of the U. S. Roosevelt was born on October 27, 1858, in New York City. Books by and about Roosevelt available at the Ruth Enlow Library portray him not only as an oustanding 20th century President but as a big game hunter, outdoorsman, historian and an unusually sympathetic and understanding father.

"The Roosevelt Family of Sagamore Hill" by Herman Hagedorn, is a recent book which gives a lively account of the home life of the Roosevelt family and their life at Oyster Bay and in the White House. It contains many anecdotes about the six children and their father.

"Hunting and Exploring Adventures of Theodore Roosevelt," which was published in 1955, is a selection from Roosevelt's own writings together with colorful anecdotes related by those who knew him. These writings show Roosevelt as a great outdoorsman. His "African Game Trails," which was first published in 1910, is still popular with hunters and naturalists, as well as general readers.

Roosevelt's "Winning of the West," which is an account of the exploration and settlement of our country during its period of Westward expansion, is now regarded as a classic in American history and shows his remarkable ability as a historian.

Other books about Theodore Roosevelt include "Theodore Roosevelt Treasury" edited by Herman Hagedorn, and "Theodore Roosevelt," a biography for young people by Clara Ingram Judson.

Support Leslie E. Savage For House Of Delegates

To All People of Garrett County:

May I take this opportunity to introduce myself as a candidate for the House of Delegates. I wish also to state my sincere beliefs concerning my qualifications for this important public office.

I was born July 20, 1899 near Friendsville, Md., and am the father of eight children. At present I live on the home farm and am engaged in building and contracting, as well as a bus contractor. In the latter I have served 20 years.

I am the past president of the Bus Drivers' Association and have always felt the needs for better schools and other educational opportunities for our Garrett County youth. I have supported every progressive measure in behalf of teacher welfare as well as children and school buildings. I am active in the Parent-Teacheer association and have always felt the need for better schools and more educational advantages for the youth of our county.

I earnestly believe in industry for Garrett County. At present I employ 5-10 men. I would like to see larger industry come into our county, which would raise the economic level of our people. More industry would also provide a closer and certain market for our farmers' products.

I am active in the Grace Lutheran Church, Friendsville, and serve as Vice-President of the Church Council.

I have always supported worthy community projects and am a charter member of the Rotary Club at Friendsville.

I feel that religion and education are the vital necessities in the lives of the American people. We must endorse both and pray that we do have candidates who will give their best in these two areas of American life.

I have not made any promises or political commitments to any group. I stand on democratic principles, and will serve all the people of Garrett County.

In closing I sincerely hope that you elect men on November 4th who have pledged themselves to work for all the people of Garrett County, and in so doing will bring honor and respect to all concerned.

Sincerely,
LESLIE E. SAVAGE

JOSEPH FORGIVES HIS BRETHREN

(This story is based on Genesis 43 to 45)

HELLO BOYS AND GIRLS! Do you ever carry a grudge against those who wrong you in any way? Jesus has taught us to pray: "Forgive us . . . as we forgive," and if you will but ask Him, He will gladly help you to freely forgive even your worst enemies.

In today's story we shall find that Joseph did not hold a grudge against his brothers despite the great wrong they had done him in selling him into slavery. He eagerly waited for their return, and also for his youngest brother, Benjamin. When Benjamin finally stood before him, he was overcome with emotion and so hurried into a nearby room and there wept for joy. Washing his face, he rejoined his brothers, seated them according to their ages, and ordered that a banquet be spread before them.

On the following morning they were sent home, but Joseph asked his steward to place his silver cup in Benjamin's sack of food. The brothers had no more than left the city when the steward overtook them and accused them of stealing Joseph's silver cup. Conscious of their innocence, they said to the steward: "With whomsoever, it (the cup) be found, both let him die, and we also will be thy lord's bondmen." To this the steward replied: "He with whom it is found shall be my servant; and ye shall be blameless." It was, of course, found in Benjamin's sack.

How sad and dejected they were as they returned to face Joseph who spoke roughly to them and said: "What deed is this that ye have done?" Then Judah, one of the brothers, stepped forward and with tears in his voice made his eloquent plea for Benjamin. Said he, "When he (his father) seeth that the lad is not with me....he will die....Thy servant became surety for the lad unto my father, saying, If I bring him not unto thee, then I shall bear the blame.... for ever. Now therefore, I pray thee, let thy servant abide instead of the lad a bondman to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren." In other words, Judah was willing to take Benjamin's place as a slave.

Just think, boys and girls, this was the same Judah who years before had urged his brothers to sell Joseph as a slave! What a change had taken place in his character! Joseph was now convinced that Judah and his brothers had truly repented of their terrible sin and that the time had come for them to learn that he, the prime minister of Egypt, was their brother Joseph. He wept aloud as he said, "I am Joseph, your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt." They were terrified supposing that Joseph would now punish them for what they had done to him. But instead, he embraced and kissed every one of them, assuring them of his forgiveness, and urging them to go home and bring Jacob their father back with them. Can you imagine how happy they all were as they journeyed home —not only that Joseph was still alive, but that they were forgiven by both God and Joseph for their great sin. No wonder the Bible says, "Happy is the man whose transgression is forgiven and whose sin is covered."

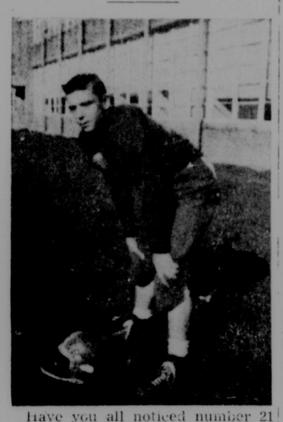
By RUTH STANTON



Have you all noticed number 21 on the "Huskies" football team? That's one of Northern's hottest players. This huskie is Donald Jenkins, a senior and the 1958 football captain.

Don has been active in sports since coming to N. H. S. He has received school letters in football for the past three years, playing both positions as quarterback and halfback. He participated in baseball, playing in the centerfield.

Along with his sport activities he is a member of the Letermen's Club, a library assistant, and was on the Honor Roll for three quarters last year.

When Don was asked of his interests and hobbies, guess what his reply was? "Sports, but I also enjoy reading, traveling, and getting along with everyone." He has traveled in Delaware, Virginia, West Virginia, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania.

Brown haired, blue eyed, seventeen year old Don is a very active person in his church work. He belongs to the choir, M. Y. F., and a member of the Mt. Zion Methodist Church on Route 40, seven miles east of Grantsville.

Before coming to Northern High he attended the Mt. Royal Elementary School in Cumberland and the Grantsville Elementary School.

This past summer Don was a whistling milkman in Frostburg, working for Turner's Dairy.

"After graduation I plan to join the Air Force and attend a Cadet School" replied Don, when asked about his future.

Don lives on a large farm near Frostburg and is the eldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Jenkins.

WORKS FOR D.H.I.A.—Harland Beachy, inseminator for the Maryland Artificial Breeding Cooperative, is shown above at the farm of G. O. Janoske, route 2, Oakland. He is the second person to be described in articles about the Dairy Herd Improvement Associations in recent weeks. Daniel W. Klotz is the other supervisor. Beachy has been employed by Garrett County Unit No. 1 for three years. He is a veteran of the farm and dairy business, having served as president of his FFA Chapter in 1948-49 and being a member of the North Glade 4-H club for ten years. He has also served as local leader of the club for five years. He is a member of the 4-H All Stars. Beachy was graduated from Oakland High school in 1949 and served as D.H.I.A. supervisor for Unit No. 2 for seven years. He married the former Miss Barbara Riley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood D. Riley, Route 2, Oakland. They have three sons, Michael, Gary and Larry. Mr. Janoske, with whom Beachy is talking at present milks about 20 cows for the grade "A" market. He has been breeding his predominantly Brown Swiss herd artificially for about eight years.

Teen Corner

By DICK CASTILOW

Elections were held on Friday the tenth at the Teen Age club in Oakland. President is Dick Stuck and the vice president is Don Stemple. This year the offices of secretary and treasurer were combined and Darvin Friend was elected. All of the officers are known to be very competent.

There is to be a record hop tomorrow night in the armory. Bob Brinker of WCUM in Cumberland will be spinning the platters. Bob is liked very well by all who attend the record hops, and along with his top platters he has a very smooth line of patter.

We are planning to hold the annual Masquerade Hop on the 24th. There will be a number of prizes for those who come in costume. Be sure you have your Teen Age Club card by November 7, or you will be left right out of all the fun and special activities planned for the year.

This is a special invitation to all teen agers from up Northern way: Come on down and join our Teen Club; we can have a lot of fun together. Our club is not just for the teens of this end of the county, it is for all in the whole county who would like to attend.

Last Friday night your columnist took a survey to determine the top three tunes in the area. Here are the results. The top platter was Tommy Edwards' "It's All in the Game." Second in line, trailing by just one vote, was Cozy Coles' "Topsy" (part II) and behind "Topsy" also by one vote is the Everly Brothers' "Devoted to You." Incidentally, our selection of "It's All in the Game" coincided with Billboard's selection for the nation's top tune.

Other tunes in the running are "Bird Dog," and "Chantilly Lace."

There is a new band about town called the Royales. They dip into the black art of rock 'n' roll. They have a guitar, an alto sax, and drums. The members are Bob (Ollie) Oliverio, who does the vocals and Dale King and a very well known guy, Jim Callis.

Sunday night the Royales were the source of an entertaining evening in St. Peter's school. A dance contest was held and the winners for the rock 'n' roll number were Lester Bittinger and partner, Barbara Jo Rice. A slow contest was held and Carroll Miller and Ann Lee Lohr walked off with the honors. Jim Callis did "Tipsy I," and "Topsy I." He was so well received by the group in these drum solos that he was almost exhausted in his successful effort to give the crowd what it wanted.

The Beall High Mountainers of Frostburg scored 13 points in each of three quarters to rout Northern High's Huskies 39 to 7 at Accident last Saturday afternoon.

Beall tallied a pair of touchdowns and an extra point in each of the first, second and fourth quarters and held the Huskies of Coach Denver Mitchell to a third period score in registering the win.

Beall pushed across its first score the first time it got its hands on the ball. After taking a Northern punt the Mounties marched to the enemy nine-yard line from where Zumpano smashed through for the TD. He also kicked three extra points for the Beall team and tacked on his second score in the second period after Beall recovered a Northern fumble at the Huskies 20. Bill Hyde, Mountie halfback, also accounted for a pair of touchdowns, one just before the first period ended and the other to close out the scoring in the final quarter.

Both of Hyde's scores came on long gallops of 75 and 67 yards. The last run came after an intercepted pass on Northern's 33.

A pass from quarterback Ronnie Linn to end Chet Carter covering 30 yards and a three-yard plunge by Linn accounted for Beall's other two touchdowns. George Patton, who blocked two of Zumpano's extra point attempts, starred defensively for Northern.

Scientists say that the chemicals in our bodies are worth only a few cents. God says that we belong to the highest order of His creation, made in His own image.

Statistics lose us in a multitude of more than two and a half billion people living in the world today. God tells us that He knows us as individuals. Each of us has a place in His plan. No one else can fill it, because no two people are exactly alike.

Friends say that they love us, but that love sometimes fails. God's love has given us our families, our friends, our possessions, our world, our very lives . . . and He gave us His only Son. It was He who taught us to call the great God of Creation our Father.

The Church of Christ invites us to come, to worship our Heavenly Father, and be forgiven by Him. Then we may revaluate ourselves as individual children of God, not merely as part of a multitude.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Lesson for October 26, 1958

THE TEMPTATIONS of Jesus have been the subject of tens of thousands of words explaining them. Some people seem unwilling to believe that Jesus could ever have been really tempted. Of course if he could not really be tempted, he could not really be human. Being tempted is not the sin, it is yielding to it that is the defeat.

Choice Always Means Temptation

Many Christian theologians believe that the three special temptations described for us by Matthew were, so to speak, official not personal. That is, they had to do with the question of what Jesus was to accomplish with his life in this world. If he was really and truly human, then like human beings everywhere he would have to think out his problems.

Dr. Foreman

He was born to be king: but what kind of king? He was born to set up a kingdom: but what matter of realm would it be, and how was he to go about getting it started? That he had a high destiny, he knew. But still the question bored into his mind: What next? What do I do now?

Choice always brings temptation. For in every choice there lies the possibility, and the attractiveness, of choosing something less than the best. And to choose less than the best, even when that is a good thing in itself, is wrong.

The Good Instead of the Best

Looking at the temptations of Jesus from this angle, we can see that the first two of them were temptations to use his great powers in ways that were good . . . only not the best. Remember Jesus had at this time never performed a miracle. It is quite possible that he was conscious of possessing supernormal powers, and if so, he must have given thought to the question, What should he do with his power? This is a special form of the problem every Christian must decide: How shall I use the gifts and the powers which God has given me?

The first temptation suggested that he use these powers to feed the hungry. We forget Jesus' overflowing generosity if we fancy that if he had turned stones into bread, it would have been used as food for himself alone. Stones are useless, bread is useful. The country was burdened with hungry people. What was wrong with feeding them with miracle-bread? Nothing was wrong with it. The point was, it was less than the best use he could make of his God-given powers.

The second temptation was like the first. He was tempted to perform a miracle in the most public and spectacular fashion. He was invited to defy the law of gravity to prove that God would take care of his own, no matter what. Who will deny that Jesus could have won friends and influenced people by such astounding miracles? But he would not do it. It wasn't that the thing was sinful in itself. It was the wrong way to the throne.

Bad Means to Good Ends

In the third temptation, Jesus was tempted in a different way, namely to attain his great purpose of setting up a universal kingdom, by the use of bad ends. Here he is tempted to something evil in itself; but the end in view, namely control of the kingdoms of the world, would surely justify whatever method Jesus might take to achieve that end. Or so the tempter might argue. But Jesus knew better. He knew that if an act is really evil, all the good intentions in the world, all the noble purposes of a Messiah himself, will not glorify the evil thing.

Jesus was born to be king, king of mankind. But he would not be the King of the Full Stomach, he would not be the King of the Astonished Mind. Still less would he be the King of what could be seen from the devil's most high-flying airplane. He would be king of men's hearts. He would be the Savior-king, Lord of transformed hearts. And this he could be only by going to the cross. For that, after all, is what all these temptations were: signposts pointing him down this way and that, away from the cross. If he had taken these byways, he could not have become what he is, Savior of the world.

Wed At Elkins

A pretty fall wedding took place Saturday afternoon, October 11, at 2:30 o'clock in the First Baptist church at Elkins, W. Va., when Miss Anita Marie Marstiller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mason Marstiller, of Elkins, became the bride of David Edmond Hardesty, son of Mr. and Mrs. David B. Hardesty of Keyser, formerly of Oakland.

The church was decorated with arrangements of white gladioli and mums with silver leaves. Mrs. Ruth Fields played appropriate organ music prior to the ceremony.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Warner DuBose, pastor of the Davis Memorial Presbyterian church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a bridal sheath of brocade faille fashioned street-length with boat neckline and long sleeves. Her headdress, a shoulder-length veil, was held in place by a circle of seed pearls. She carried a cascade arrangement of pink and white feathered carnations, on an ivory fan.

Miss Evelyn Wasmer, of Elkins, was maid of honor. She was attired in a pink lace sheath, white feathered hat, and carried a silver fan with an arrangement of pink and white carnations.

Herndon Wilkins was best man. Ushers were Kenneth Hardesty, brother of the groom, and Ronald Cross.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the assembly room which was decorated with white gladioli and mums. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake. The cake was served by Mrs. Ivan Hartman, aunt of the bride. Punch was served by Mrs. Kenneth Hardesty. Miss Mary Elizabeth Fallon had charge of the guest book. Aides were Miss Anna Mae Nester, Miss Carol Lynn Harrold and Mrs. Herndon Wilkins, sister of the groom.

The bride was graduated from Elkins High school, class of 1956, and attended Potomac State college two years where she was a member of Eta Upsilon Gamma sorority and the Home Economics club.

Mr. Hardesty was graduated from Southern High school at Oakland. He served three years in the U. S. army and attended Potomac State college. At present he is a trainee for the H-P Stores management. The couple will reside in Franklin, W. Va.

Among the out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. David B. Hardesty and daughter Carole, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Robinson and daughter Gayle, Mr. and Mrs. William Gardner, Keyser; Mr. and Mrs. Herndon Wilkins and daughter Debra Lynne, Morgantown; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Knode, Shepherdstown; Mrs. Robert Wibberly, Winchester, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hardesty, Mrs. Alma Menke, Mr. and Mrs. William Eggers, Mr. and Mrs. William McRobie, Reynold Ashby, Mrs. Charles Meyer, Oakland; Mrs. Eula Schrock, Miss Lenora Schrock, Aurora, W. Flashing their best form of the current season, Coach Dick Travis' Highlanders of Southern High school scored in every period last Thursday to upset the Kingwood High School Stags in a football game at Oakland. The final score was 33 to 7.

The victory was the most decisive credited to the Highlanders since 1955 when they defeated the West Virginia School for the Deaf 40 to 13. It also marked Southern's first victory over the Preston countians in four meetings and it was the first time since football was inagurated at the Oakland school in 1954 that the home team has scored two wins in a row. Southern whipped Northern High the week previous by the score of 12 to 0.

Bill Duling and Keith Butler scored two touchdowns each and Wayne Callis accounted for the other Southern six-pointer.

Kingwood scored first on a 19-yard pass play engineered by Sample and Wilkinson and the same passing combination accounted for the conversion. Southern, however, roared back to knot the count at 7-7 in the first period on a 67-yard pass play executed by Dick Stack and Bill Duling and the same pair clicked for the extra point.

The Highlanders forged ahead in the second period when Keith Butler circled right end for two yards. Ed Sanders' placement kick was wide and Southern led 13-7 at intermission.

In the third period Butler slammed over from the one to climax a 65- yeard drive after a 15-yard penalty against Kingwood had placed the ball on the one. The pass for the point failed. Later in the same quarter Oakland tallied on a safety when halfback Menear of Kingwood was trapped in the end zone by Ron Colaw. Ron set up this score when he quick-kicked 60 yards and the ball rolled to the one. The Stags got back to the four in three plays and on the fourth down Menear was unable to run the ball out to the end zone being tackled.

The Highlanders scored twice in the final period. Wayne Callis made it 27-7 by plunging over from the one but the pass for point was incomplete. Wallace Bolyard intercepted a pass on the 45 to set up the final score which was credited to Bill Duling who snared Dick Stuck's 25-yard aerial. Sanders' placement was wide.

Southern will play Keyser High School Friday afternoon in the local gridiron.

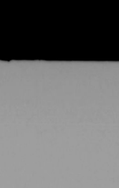
DO YOU HAVE "HALF FAITH"?



A letter came to my desk this morning with a quotation of D.L. Moody printed across the bottom of the stationary. It said, 'Oh, the foolishness of a 'half faith'!" What did this mean? Simply this, a faith that believes but not to the extent of doing something about it. For example, a man who sees the warning on TV that a hurricane is approaching his area, he hears the blast of the local warning system, but does nothing about it. How foolish is this man's 'half faith'. Now it appears to me that a good many people have 'half faith' concerning Christianity. If you ask them if they believe the Bible, or if they believe that Jesus Christ died for them that they might be saved, or that He arose from the dead, or in the reality of heaven and hell, to all of this they would answer — surely I do. But the sad part of it — they have only a 'half faith' because they do not put their faith into action whereby they receive the Lord Jesus as Savious and take their stand on His side. Such 'half faith' is no better than no faith at all unless it is acted upon by obedience to God's command, "Call upon the name of the Lord".

THE REPUBLICAN

Pratt Library

With One Exception ....

Voters have four days to decide who shall occupy the seats of public trust in Garrett County, the State and the Nation. The decision, as in all elections, is one of supreme importance, affecting us all for years to come—either for good or for bad. Garrett County requires the good.

This newspaper finds the preponderance of qualified candidates to be on the Republican ticket: capable men and women who have served well in the past, and others aspiring to public office for the first time who have won their spurs by integrity and personal achievement. Such candidates are worthy of support and we highly recommend their election.

There is one prominent, glaring exception, however, and it concerns the top county position.

We refer, of course, to the office of State Senator, now held by Clifford Friend, who is seeking re-election.

It is our considered belief, as it was in the primary, that Mr. Friend's record does not recommend him to the post. He has demonstrated an extraordinary inability to cooperate and work harmoniously with other state and county officers, members of his own party, or the citizenry at large. We are certain nothing of importance can be accomplished by a man with this attitude—and we submit that nothing of importance has been accomplished.

Mr. Friend's strength has been only from his self-styled fight for all who pay taxes. He would have every citizen in the county believe that he alone is the "champion of the taxpayer," and that he has accomplished much in their behalf. Those who believe him might be appalled to learn that Mr. Friend could not possibly understand the burden of property taxes as do the hundreds of farmers, merchants, and homeowners who are taxpayers. Mr. Friend owns no property! He pays no tax! He is the only person in the county who holds the unique position of being able to legislate without affecting his own finances. He therefore holds no real stake, no true personal allegiance in this county of ours, except his own desire to control it—at somebody else's expense.

We feel that this point, compounded with his sterile record of four long years, disqualifies Mr. Friend from any positive consideration for a repeat performance as the representative of Garrett Countians in Annapolis. This newspaper is not insensible to the merits of party harmony, but for this very reason it feels obligated to withhold its support from Clifford Friend who doesn't give two hoots for party solidarity. Without him, the Republican party will inevitably gain strength and stature.

Bernard I. Gonder, Mr. Friend's opponent, has served the citizens of Garrett County in Annapolis with a much more distinguished record. He has proven that he is able to work smoothly with others, regardless of party or issue.

We believe Mr. Gonder will give us the successful, dignified representation we need and which we have not had during the past four years.

For this reason, and we feel for the best interests of Garrett County, we urge the voters to go to the polls Tuesday and elect Bernard I. Gonder State Senator. —R.B.S.

Arc Welding School Will Be Available

An electric arc welding class will be offered to adults beginning Monday, November 3, at 7:30 p. m., in the VoAg department of Southern High school. This special school will be taught by Richard Bishoff, VoAg instructor. It will be sponsored by the James F. Lincoln Arc Welding foundation. Welding machines and supplies will be donated by Wilson Welding Supply, of Cumberland.

The course will consist of ten three-hour sessions and the basic fundamentals of arc welding will be taught. The class will study a prescribed text book, see movies on arc welding fundamentals, observe arc welding techniques, and practice arc welding in the farm shop and at home. A special feature of the school will allow class members near here to take the welders home for a week of practice application after they have completed the course satisfactorily.

The registration fee will be one dollar and any one interested is urged to attend the organizational meeting on Monday, November 3, at 7:30 p. m., at Southern High school VoAg shop.

Stores Are Entered

Two stores in the Bittinger area were entered on Saturday evening and robbed of a quantity of articles, it was reported by county officers.

Sheriff Jim Frantz said the burglars had entered Buckel's store through a cellar window and had also broken into Brenneman's store. State Trooper Glenn Folk is investigating.

A quantity of clothing, some money, a radio, and other items were stolen.

Labor Meeting Called

An attempt to stir up interest in the organized labor groups will come to a head this evening.

A labor rally sponsored by Western Maryland Central Labor Council AFL-CIO, will be held this evening at 7:30 p. m., at the Moose Hall on Third street in Oakland.

Handbills being distributed have announced speakers to propound the labor issues. A question and answer period will follow.

Eisenhower to Make State Talk Friday

President Eisenhower decided to deliver a major speech in Baltimore Friday night, and will mark the second time this campaign that a top man has invaded the territory.

Vice President Nixon preceded Eisenhower into the state last week on behalf of GOP candidates. Secretary of Agriculture Benson appeared earlier in the campaign and Sen. Javits of New York will speak this week at a testimonial dinner honoring Sen. J. Glenn Beall, who seeks re-election.

Eisenhower's 30-minute speech which will be televised on a national hook-up, probably will be his last appearance in the campaign.

State GOP party leaders immediately issued an "open invitation" for all to attend the rally in the 5th Regiment armory at 7:30 p. m. in a move to assure a capacity crowd. It was announced that Eisenhower's speech would be preceded by professional entertainment from New York. There will be no admission charge.

The entertainment will include Noble Sissle and Eubie Blake, composers of numerous top tunes; Margaret Tynes who recently toured Europe as a vocalist with a "Porgy and Bess" troupe; and recording star Maxine Sullivan.

Farm Flocks To Be Discussed at Meeting

Farmers concerned about the farm laying flock in today's economy or quality egg production are invited to attend an Extension meeting on these subjects. The meeting will be held 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, November 4 at the Yoder school.

Dr. Harold D. Smith, Agricultural Economics Department, University of Maryland, will discuss "The Place of Farm Flocks in Today's Vertical Integrated Farming." Dr. Smith will also discuss various forms of farm finance pertaining to egg production. Dr. N. V. Helbacka, Poultry Food Technologist, will discuss "Quality Eggs and How to Produce Them" and "The Difference Between Double A and grade A Eggs". There will be a practical demonstration on candling and breaking open grading. Farmers throughout the county are invited to attend.

New Band Room and Board Offices To Be Open For Inspection

An "open house" for both the new music room at Southern High school and the offices of the Board of Education at the Annex building on Sunday afternoon, November 16 has been announced. The public is being invited to attend.

Open house for the music room will be from 2:30 to 4 p. m., and for the school board officers, from 3:30 to 5. A special music program will be presented by the high school band under direction of Raymond Borrell, in the new music room, from 2:45 to 3:30. The new addition to the school facilities contains a 40 by 40 room and a corridor enclosing the walkway from the main building to the industrial arts and agriculture building.

The music room contains storage space for band instruments and uniforms, one practice room, and a large band room with permanent risers designed for band use. The room is lighted with skydomes and windows and is acoustically treated with latest Fiberglas material.

The room was built at a cost of $35,000 and money for construction was received from the state incentvie fund for school construction.

Willard L. Hawkins, county superintendent of schools, said the completion of the new facility supplied a vital need at the school for an additional classroom and also removed the constant interference to other classes caused by the instrumental music program. William Hardesty and son Lawrence Hardesty, were the contractors.

While the school board has occupied its new quarters since June 15, it waited until this time to have open house in order to extend its invitation to the public to visit its headquarters at the same time the invitation was extended for the visit to the band room.

The front portion of the old Annex building was remodeled and renovated to provide adequate and modern facilities for the Board of Education and staff. There is now a board meeting room, offices and storage, a fireproof vault for financial records, private offices for each supervisor, offices for the superintendent and secretarial help, a mimeograph room, curriculum library and conference room. The money used for this improvement was realized from the sale of the Annex playground and from the sale of abandoned school properties.

Red Cross Drive To Be Conducted Here In November

The Garrett County Chapter of the American Red Cross has announced its fund raising campaign for the month of November.

The drive formerly was conducted in the spring. Leaders expressed their reasons for the fall campaign as 1, More favorable weather conditions for soliciting; and 2, The Chapter needs money to carry out its 1958 program.

The county has been divided into seventeen districts and a district chairman will be recruited for each district. The campaign will be conducted on district levels with each chairman responsible for whatever fund-raising procedure he may wish to conduct in his area.

A goal of $4,800 has been established by the local chapter. Fifty percent of any money raised will remain in the county for administrative purposes and for the various Red Cross activities.

It was pointed out again that the burden of the blood donor program on the Garrett County chapter has made it more necessary than ever for people to contribute generously.

Garrett County Leads In State-Owned Land

A preliminary report by the State Planning Commission shows Maryland agencies own more than 180,000 acres in the state.

The report is part of a larger study initiated last September when commission members learned no central record of state-owned land existed.

The full study is expected to take many months and will also determine what land is available for new state facilities.

The preliminary report showed that Garrett leads all other counties and Baltimore City in state-owned land with 75,743 acres. More than 72,000 acres of this is forest land and not suitable for construction. There are 33,250 acres in Allegany.

Auxiliary Installs

Those installed were Alice Smith, president; Mary Georg, vice-president; Mary Alexander, second vice-president; Lenice Vitez, secretary; Rosie Moon, treasurer; Oma Custer, chaplain; Ruth Glass, historian; Margaret Alexander, rehabilitation officer; Margaret Friend, child welfare; Florence Shoemaker, community service; color bearers, Olive Herring and Jean Friend; sergeant at arms, Florence Shoemaker; poppy chairman, Jean Friend, Eleanor Carlson.

Mrs. Cleda Stewart, of Oakland, Mt. District vice-president, was in charge.

Changes Announced For Checking Deer

Some changes have been declared in the deer checking stations in Garrett county this year, it was announced by state game officials.

The sheriff's office at Oakland has been abandoned and those who bag deer in that section may have the animal checked at the state propagation area at Mt. Nebo, about three miles from Oakland, north on route 219. The property is adjacent to the Ferndale Baptist church at King's Run, where Harold Harmon resides.

The checking station at Grantsville will be the Edwards' Dodge garage instead of Floyd Hetz's place. Other stations in the county are at Murphy's Service station, Friendsville, and at Matt Storey's at Deep Creek Lake. There is no longer a checking station at Swanton. Hunters in that area may take their deer to Westernport, Allegany county, for checking.

These stations have been designated for bow and arrow hunters during the special 12-day deer season which gets under way in the three Western Maryland counties on Saturday, November 1. The season will end on Friday, November 14, and archers may bag one deer of either sex during that period. The hours for hunting each day except Sundays are sunrise to sunset.

This is the first year for the bow and arrow season in Garrett county and there is much interest in the sport. All bows used in hunting must have a pull of over thirty pounds. Arrows must be of wood with a broadhead tip.

Supervisory Staff At State Meetings

The supervisory staff of the Board of Education spent three days this week in Baltimore attending a state-wide meeting for professional supervisors, under direction of the State Department of Education.

The meeting was called to deal with matters of curriculum supervision, guidance and pupil personnel work. Attending from this county were Foster D. Bittle, high school supervisor; Edwin W. Elias and Mrs. Caroline Wilson, elementary supervisors; and John L. Fitzwater, supervisor of pupil personnel.

Willard L. Hawkins, superintendent of schools, also attended a special meeting of county superintendents Monday afternoon, under direction of Dr. Thomas Pullen, Jr., state superintendent.

The latter meeting dealt with the matter of state aid for schools. Mr. Hawkins said the county receives more than 75 percent of all current expense money spent for schools from state sources. The county pays its teachers from $3,400 to $5,200, the lowest scale in the state. Other areas have a salary range from $4,000 to $6,500 and are now beginning to move beyond that figure, he said.

By way of comparison he showed a beginning teacher with two dependents and $3,400 salary would have a take-home pay of $2,783.80 or if no dependents, the total would be $2,496.50. If on a maximum salary of $5,200, with two dependents the take-home pay would be $4,045.24, or $3,757.24 if no dependents.

Double Birthday Dinner

A double birthday dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Sliger in Tunnelton, W. Va., in honor of her mother, Mrs. Mary McCrobie, 87, formerly of Garrett county; and also a sister, Mrs. Steve Glover, of Fairmont, W. Va. Friends attended from Pennsylvania and West Virginia towns.

Three Amendments To Constitution On November 4 Ballot

Besides electing candidates to fill 36 positions the voters of Garrett county and all the rest of the state of Maryland will be called upon November 4 to vote on three state constitutional amendments.

Judging from their response in the 1954 and 1956 general elections, only a small percentage of those balloting will bother to express a choice on the constitutional amendments.

Of the three issues on the ballot, only one is likely to attract much interest. The first is a constitutional amendment which proposes that the salary of any appointed public officer of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore may be increased or decreased at any time; except that the salary of such an officer who is not in the Classified City Service may not be increased or decreased more than once during his term of office.

The second proposed constitutional amendment is the one which might interest some Garrett county voters. This is designed to cure what amounts to an ambiguity in the present Constitution concerning filling of vacancies in the office of State's Attorney. The constitution now provides that a vacancy is to be filled by "the" judge of the county or city having criminal jurisdiction and there are also at least three judges in Baltimore City with criminal jurisdiction.

The proposed amendment would give the appointment to all the Circuit Judges in a county and to the entire Supreme Bench in Baltimore City.

Proposed by the third amendment is the abolition of the job of state librarian. This office is an inactive one and the $1,500 salary is totally inadequate at the present time.

DeCorsey Bolden Is Hurt In Car Mishap

DeCorsey E. Bolden, 33, of Bethesda, was admitted to Garrett County Memorial hospital in Oakland Tuesday afternoon with a possible concussion after being forced off the highway by an unidentifed driver and striking an embankment.

Trooper first class Robert D. Henline, who investigated, said Bolden, who traveling alone, said he was forced off the highway, lost control of his car, careened across the road and struck an embankment on State route 135, about one half mile east of Swanton.

The trooper said the failure of the unidentified automobile to keep to the right of center on the highway was the probable cause of the accident.

Bolden's condition was reported as fairly good. He was enroute to Oakland to visit his mother, Mrs. D. E. Bolden. His automobile was completely demolished. He received a cut on the head and one on the cheek and was bruised and shaken.

School Enrollment Increases Slightly

Garrett school enrollment moves up slightly from year to year. The present enrollment of 4788 shows an increase of 270, or 6 percent over the enrollment of 1953. This is the smallest school population growth in the state other than Allegany County, where the growth over the last five years shows an increase of only 0.8 percent. However, the 2.1 percent increase over last year is as large or larger than that shown in six other counties of the state.

Factors contributing to school population trends in the county as listed by Willard L. Hawkins, County Superintendent of Schools, are:

1. Persistence to graduation of a larger percentage of pupils.
2. Better educational facilities and program for all.
3. Some improvement in the economic stability of the county - recreational development, home and road building being important factors.
4. Greater uncertainty of job placement in other localities.

The most noticeable school population growth in the county is found in the Red House, Oakland, Grantsville, Route 40 school areas. Slight decline is found in the Friendsville, Kitzmiller, Bittinger, North Glade areas, Mr. Hawkins said.

Initial Signs Of Winter Noted This Week

No measurable snow fell but there were noticeable flurries mixed with some rainfall in not only Garrett county but also Allegany county.

R. E. Weber, weather observer, reported a light rain with scattered snow flurries mixed in during the day. The rainfall became heavier in the evening and .29 of an inch of rainfall was recorded. Temperatures ranged from a low of 31 to a high of 41.

Judge Prescott To Be On Ballot

There is one man whose name will appear on the November 4 ballot who is unopposed and is running without any political label.

He is Judge Stedman Prescott, of Rockville, Montgomery county, who is running for a 15-year term on the Maryland Court of Appeals. Judge Prescott was appointed by Governor Theodore R. McKeldin and qualified October 11, 1956, for the position vacated by the resignation of Judge Edward S. Delaplaine.

There is a younger judge in point of service, Judge William R. Horney, who was appointed November 4, 1957, and qualified the next day for the Court of Appeals. Dr. Carl N. Everstine, director of the Department of Legislative Reference, stated that the Constitution provides that a judge may serve a year before he is to face election. Judge Horney's first year will not end until the day after the election.

School Principals And Supervisors To Make Further Study

School principals and supervisors will meet in the Accident school library Wednesday evening, November 12, at 7:30 p. m., in another of a series of meetings to study and evaluate aspects of the county school program.

Some phases of the studies being made stemmed from the recent two-day visit to schools of the county by Dr. Willard Elsbree, of Teachers College, Columbia university, New York City.

Willard L. Hawkins, county superintendent of schools, said the main theme for the in-service training of all teachers this year centers around discovering and caring for the individual differences of children. He said many educators feel that this need is prerequisite to improvement in quality of instruction in any area and is a concern of first importance for every teacher.

Assignments in seven groups are to be studied:

1. To study needs and make recommendations for county-wide testing program, Mrs. Thelma Hanlin, chairman; Ralph Beachley, Lester Bolyard, Edwin Elias.

2. To study problems relative to grouping of children and make recommendation for what seem to be the best practices, also research on trends, Kenneth Johns, chairman; Mrs. Phyllis Williams, A. B. Dean, F. D. Bittle.

3. To study library facilities and recommendations for improvement, Robert Rodcheaver, chairman; Mrs. Lenora Buckel, Carl Everly, Mrs. Caroline Wilson.

Bells Will Remind People of Oakland To Vote On Tuesday

Church bells will become liberty bells in Oakland next Tuesday, November 4, Election Day.

R. T. Thayer, president of the Oakland-Mt. Lake Park Lions club, which is sponsoring the "Bell activity" said these bells would be rung every hour on the hour on that day as a novel way of reminding the people of the heritage, and honor, and the obligation and privilege which they have to cast their ballot. All four churches of the community are providing the use of their church bells for this service to the club in an effort to get a large number of people to vote.

Thayer said this activity was decided at the regular meeting on Monday night. It is in charge of the Citizenship and Patriotism committee under Art Calhoun, chairman, Herbert Leighton and Dwight Stover.

Mt. Lake Brownies Conduct Investiture And Fly-Up Ritual

An investiture and fly-up ceremony was conducted Monday evening, October 27, by Mt. Lake Park troop 2, at the Bethel Methodist church in Mt. Lake Park. Parents of the girls were guests.

Following a flag ceremony the new Brownies were invested. Mrs. Foster Riggs and Mrs. Wesley Schaible pinned Brownie pins on Kathy Meyers, Merry Lynn Sweitzer, Patty Kitzmiller, Patty Myers, Judy Nice, Susan Gnegy, Rita Brooks, Eva Jean Brooks, Sharon Kay Riley, Karen Schaible, Kathy Bigler, and Bonnie Cullers. Laura Seaman and Linda Friend, unable to attend, will be invested at the next meeting.

Membership stars were pinned on older Brownies who were Judy Simpson, Mary Jane Meyers, Vicki Meyers, Lois Prince, Eva Mae Perando, Beverly Liston, Connie Baker, Susan Schoonover, Sharon Tasker, Lois Teagarden and Linda Gnegy.

Fly-up girls receiving membership stars were Kathy Kahl, Stanya Snyder, Judy Teagarden and Carole Kay Upole.

By candlelight the new fly-up girls received their wings from Mrs. Don Teagarden and Mrs. Riggs. They then passed through a flower-covered arch and were met by intermediate girl scout leaders, Mrs. Stanley Snyder and Mrs. Elliott Shaffer, who pinned them with girl scout pins. Girls receiving wings and pins were Kathy Kahl, Stanya Snyder, Judy Teagarden, Carole Upole, Sheila Ream, Donna Lee Shaffer, Nancy Henline and Patsy Henline. Four other intermediate girls also received pins. They were Patty Hinkle, Margaret Wildesen, Janet Nice and Linda Sue Brooks.

The program concluded with the singing of "America, the Beautiful." Refreshments were served.

The Old Log School

The Old Log School House near Grantsville, "Mars Hill," was built in the late 1700's. It stands amidst shade trees and is quite unique tor its age. If it is properly preserved it can last another century. This log school building would make an ideal museum and memorial for the citizens of Garrett County who gave their energy and skill and showed their rugged individualism in constructing what they then thought was quite modern, to meet the needs of their time.

Miss Viola Broadwater, of Grantsville, gives us some information of people who were associated in some way with this school.

Mrs. Armanda Compton Enlow, of Akron, Ohio, was born in this log school house. She was the oldest child, born about 1873.

Miss Molly Dorsey, Mrs. Emma Bender, (still living); Mrs. Ella Castell, Jonas E. Hershberger, Edward Bender, Florence Baker Bittinger (living in Harrisburg, Pa.); Lester Boncher (Boulder Dam, Colorado (still living); Prof. U. G. Palmer, who was the County Examiner for years (still living).

The school was moved to "Mt. Nebo," called "Mars Hill School."

The teachers of this school were Mrs. Henry Durst or Mrs. Elizabeth Miller Durst. Members of this school are Elsie Custer, (still living); Harvey Baker, Janelle Stoops Conne, Miss Jane Grindle, Althea Engle Goetz and Leo J. Beachy.

Persons who attended the original Compton School still living are: Ernest Compton, Lawrence Compton, Pittsburg, Kans.; Howard Miller, Akron, O.; Armada Enlow Compton, Akron, O.; Mrs. Elizabeth Miller Durst, Grantsville; Mrs. Laura Miller Fresh, Akron, Ohio; Mrs. Maggie Wisseman Warnick, Greenwood, Del.; Mrs. Annie Hershberger, Wesseman, Mont.; Floyd Durst, Grantsville, Md.; Lee Myers, Jennings, Md.; Lawrence Green, Lowell, Wis.

At the G. C. H. S. meeting in June, the group suggested that the school be moved to Oakland, as a shrine.

Gas Plays 3-Fold Role In Living

Natural gas plays a three-fold role in modern living, as a fuel, tool and a raw material, members of the Oakland Rotary were told at their meeting last Friday night by Peggy Quinn.

Miss Quinn, information representative of Cumberland and Allegheny Gas Company, reported that these uses of gas in industry evolved because natural gas is a versatile and easily controlled nature-made product.

As a raw material, she said, natural gas components serve as the basic source for many synthetic fabrics and modern plastic products that make for more colorful modern living. She explained how gas can be broken up and re-arranged in multiple forms to provide everything from antifreeze to the living room drapes.

Natural gas derived products can be lifesavers too, Miss Quinn said. Synthetic blood plasma, plastic heart buttons, nylon arteries, and light-weight surgical instruments are only a few of natural gas's medical miracle workers.

Her most striking exhibit of the use of natural gas as a raw material was her own costume. She was dressed in an "all-gas" outfit—accessories, dress, coat, jewelry and even her shoes—were made from gas derived synthetic fabrics.

Editorial Credit . . .

Editor George H. Hanst, by virtue of having been elected to serve the Republican Party as a member of the State Central Committee, could not, in clear conscience, break his obligation and speak out editorially in opposition to any candidate on the Republican Ticket. This obligation he has kept.

Examines Candidates . . .

The Baltimore Sun newspaper on Sunday and Monday published an appraisal of the candidates for state and national offices.

It recommends the re-election of U. S. Senator J. Glenn Beall over Thomas D'Alesandro, and the re-election of Congressman DeWitt S. Hyde over John R. Foley. It recommends the election of John A. Derr for Comptroller of the Currency.

In recommending Glenn Beall the Sun said the choice between him and D'Alesandro offered no difficulties. Mr. Beall, although not termed one of the senatorial "greats" was declared to be one who served honorably and well, has modest good sense, is effective in committee work, is useful in informal discussion. He has served ably and his voting record is one of an enlightened, steady and generous-minded man. He has been the faithful guardian of Maryland's interests, said the Sun.

In endorsing Mr. Derr for Comptroller the Sun said there was nothing exciting about his brief record in the Legislature, as mayor of Frederick or as a business man. But it also said there were no visible blemishes on it either and that there was a special reason for endorsing a Republican candidate to serve as a balance on the Board of Public Works. The newspaper pictured Mr. Goldstein in the picture as part of the same political deal that gave Mr. D'Alesandro the senate nomination. "In his long experience in Annapolis in the legislature, he was became famous chiefly for his skill in putting the interests of the few above those of the many."

Both D'Alesandro and Goldstein want to be elected because they look upon the office as a booby prize, something to advance their own interests.

Of Mr. Hyde the Sun declares: "Mr. Hyde, now running for his fourth term, previously served with distinction in the House of Delegates and the State Senate. He has served his district well, is an authority in the field of conservation and water resources, has made a real place for himself in Congress and by Maryland standards is an outstanding congressman. He is an Eisenhower Republican." The election of Foley, the Sun declared, would add one vote to the strength of the liberal wing of the Congressional Democrats but would add no great strength to its deliberations.

The Sun advocated the election of Tawes over Mr. Devereux, the Republican, for governor, but here we would like to take exception with the Sunpapers. The biggest reason why it selects Tawes instead of Devereux is because of experience, and we contend that experience, when it is not on a high level of action, can be a detriment to the welfare of the state.

The Sun admits that Mr. Devereux has gained in stature during the campaign. "He has not backed away from any significant issue. His statements have for the most part made good sense, and in some cases they have required courage. Mr. Tawes, has in contrast evaded commitments wherever he could do so, and on the few occasions when he has addressed himself to the substance of an issue he has said the politically easy thing, not the brave or wise thing. If behavior during a campaign were the whole story, Mr. Devereux would be the obvious choice."

What better recommendation could a man have? The man is sincere. He is a fighter of principle. He was a marine general during World War II and distinguished himself in battle. He rose from the ranks which indicates to us that if he were given the opportunity he would make a competent governor. The Sun admitted it was indorsing Mr. Tawes. "with no great enthusiasm."

So we could very easily get enthusiastic about Mr. Devereux and agree heartily with their recommendations in the case of Senator Beall, Congressman Hyde and John A. Derr.

Mr. Wallace, candidate for attorney general, the newspaper considered as blameless but having no recognized stature to qualify him for the office. Mr. Wallace is a capable man and one who would do justice to the office which he seeks.

The Republican recommends the election of all the Republican candidates for the national and state offices.

No Visible Means of Support

Destruction Not Funny . . .

Destructive pranks are not funny . . . they're criminal, Keystone Automobile Club declared in an appeal to parents, police and school teachers to help cut down on the annual wave of vandalism occasioned by Hallowe'en celebrations.

The club pointed out that vandals particularly pick out costly automobiles as objects for defacement and disablement.

Considering the high cost of ownership and maintenance of the modern automobile, it is imperative that children be warned against defacement and breakage in the mistaken belief they are having 'fun'. Parents should make certain the youngsters do not overstep the bounds of legitimate revelry. And police must see to it that private property is not made a target for unthinking demonstrators. Action should be taken where such practices result in damage.

Motorists too long have been subjected to destructive acts by children that are absolutely inexcusable. Painting or marking cars with chalk and soap is an obnoxious practice. The finish on many expensive cars has been ruined on 'mischief' nights. Breaking of bottles is another practice that must be discouraged and the breakers punished. The motoring public is penalized thousands of dollars for damage caused by glass in the streets. When 'fun' reaches this expensive stage it becomes plain vandalism. Broken door handles, and stolen radiator caps and gas tank caps, are other items of needless expense.

We appeal to parents and teachers to help prevent such acts of Hallowe'en vandalism. We also suggest that motorists put their cars in garages especially on Hallowe'en night and the night before in order to cut down opportunties for destructive behavior.

Modern Farm Shop Takes On New Importance

Many farmers will be taking a closer look at their farm shops this winter, with an eye to equipping them with up-to-date tools, points out Guy W. Gienger, University of Maryland extension agricultural engineer.

A study of farm shops in Wisconsin by two agricultural engineers shows a growing awareness on the part of farmers they surveyed that a well-equipped shop is needed to enable them to do more of their repair work and minor building thereby reducing their over-all operating costs.

The anvil, hand forge, and other hand tools typical of an earlier day farm shop are now giving way to electric hand drills, power saws, abrasive wheel, grinders, air compressors, soldering irons, hoists, arc and gas welders, table saws, and other power tools in the good farm shops of today.

The Wisconsin survey showed that the majority of farmers with well-equipped shops built their own portable hog houses, wagon racks, feed bunks and other equipment out of wood. Relatively few attempted to build such equipment as feed mixers, elevators, or auger self-feeders. Many farmers do their own engine tune-ups. A few have the tools to do complete machinery overhauls.

A major handicap to a large percentage of farmers in making fuller use of a farm shop—if they have one—is in the lack of time to use it. This is especially true during such periods when regular field work and chores demand attention, Gienger said.

WOMEN, TOO, HAVE RIGHTS

Within the past few years a peaceful social revolution has been taking place in the Sudan, accompanying the growing political awareness which recently led to the Sudan's declaration of national independence. For the women of the country, spurred on by the democratic spirit in the land, are now preparing to take an increasingly active role in the social, economic and political development of their new nation.

Initial efforts to create a vital Sudanese women's movement in 1947 were short-lived because the founders limited membership to the narrow base of women teachers and students who were unable to buck the traditional position that a woman's place was in the home. But the present women's movement includes all segments of the female population and is now represented by many flourishing women's clubs and societies, including a Sudanese branch of the Red Crescent Society founded in 1953.

Leaders of the women's movement aim at developing among their membership a strong awareness of women's political, economic and social rights. As a primary requisite for achieving this goal, they are concentrating all their efforts on the task of wiping out illiteracy in the adult feminine population. A series of literacy campaigns have been initiated, with uneducated women organized into local groups to receive instruction from educated volunteers who belong to the various women's societies. Libraries have been established in the women's clubs, with notable emphasis on books relating to the advancement and accomplishments of women in other lands.

Slowly but surely, the ladies are winning over conservative opinion (largely male) to the thesis that women have a contribution to offer to their nation as a whole, in addition to their services to the family and the home.

Processed Poultry to Bear U. S. Approved Stamp After Jan. 1

All poultry and poultry products which move for sale across State lines after January 1, 1959, must bear a stamp of approval indicating that it has been inspected for wholesomeness by an agent of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

At that time the Poultry Products Inspection Act becomes effective, and the poultry industry will join the meat industry in offering consumers assurance of Federal inspection in all plants processing poultry for interstate commerce.

To qualify for this service, a processing plant must meet a number of established standards for facilities, equipment, operating procedure, and labeling.

Any plant which has not already applied for inspection services, should do so as quickly as possible. Wade H. Rice, Extension poultry husbandman of the University of Maryland, reminds Maryland poultry processors. Though special arrangements have been set up to make the qualification process as fast as possible, some time is required to meet the necessary requirements. The processor must have blueprints of his plant and premises approved, his water supply certified and all labels and chemical compounds used on products okayed.

Copies of the regulations governing inspection and application forms may be obtained from the Poultry Division of the Agricultural Marketing Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

Handling Feed In Bulk Saves Money and Labor

Handling feed in bulk is one of the greatest labor savers developed in recent years for poultrymen, says Wade H. Rice, University of Maryland extension poultryman.

If your flock—broilers, layers, or turkeys—isn't large enough to justify the investment in bulk feed handling equipment, it's time to do some hard thinking and some pencil pushing to increase the size of your operation to justify this investment.

Hand labor in feeding won't be able to compete much longer with the mechanical equipment available to poultrymen of today, Rice added.

No hard and fast rule can be applied to the minimum size flock necessary to justify bulk feed handling equipment. Arrangement of houses, number of birds in a single flock or room, and other factors also figure in such decisions.

However, if you have 1,000 or more floor housed layers, 5,000 or more broilers, or 1,000 or more turkeys, you probably can find methods in your feeding operations of using bulk feeds at a saving in both out of pocket costs and labor. Assuming of course, that local feed delivery service is available to you, Rice concluded.

Junior High Team Of Southern Wins

Southern Junior High school's football team scored its third victory in four outings by defeating Keyser Junior High school last Thursday at Keyser by the score of 13 to 12.

The Oakland team coached by William Watson and Wayne Johnson trailed 12 to 0 going into the final period and pulled the game out of the fire with a garrison finish.

After fumbles had paved the way for the Keyser's two touchdowns in the first quarter Southern won the uphill battle when Johnny Beckman scored twice, once on a pass from John Prince that covered 50 yards and again on a 30-yard dash. Prince ran the extra point that decided the issue.

Who's Who At Northern High

By RUTH STANTON

Miss Patsy DeWitt

Did you happen to accidentally peek in room 117 at Northern the first period of each day and see a class of girls and boys, especially that certain hazel eyed, long dark brown haired, 5'4" tall, senior girl? This is Patsy DeWitt, Editor-in-Chief of the North Hi News, seeing that the monthly paper will be off for the press on deadline day.

Pat is one of Northern's highest scholastic students. She has been one of the straight "A" students almost every quarter since her sophomore year.

With her busy life working on the paper, she is a member of the Quill and Scroll Society for high school journalists and a past member of the National Junior Honor Society.

Some of you may be wondering if she is one of the girls who sang in the DeWitt Quintette several years ago. Patsy was one of the girls who appeared on the Wilkins Amateur Hour over KDKA television in Pittsburgh about four years ago.

Seventeen year old Pat works part time at Harvey's Service Station on Route 219 near Oakland.

Pat's reply on plans for the future were, "I plan to go to Washington, D. C., after graduation."

Before coming to Northern she attended the Friendsville Elementary School and is the youngest of five sisters. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. George G. DeWitt of Sang Run.

County Man on Trial In Tax Evasion Case

Blain Frantz, 52, lumber and cattle dealer of Friendsville, has been charged by the Federal government with evading $25,240 in taxes over a three-year period.

When the trial opened in Federal court in Baltimore on Monday, U. S. Attorney Leon H. A. Pierson told the jury he would show the Friendsville resident attempted to evade taxes by hiding money in an out of state bank.

Pierson contended Frantz deposited large amounts of money in a bank account at Bruceton Mills, W. Va. The prosecutor also claimed funds deposited to the account of the defendant's three children were not reported to the internal revenue service.

John H. Hessey 4th, defense attorney, told the jury in his opening remarks Frantz was innocent of willful evasion of federal taxes although evidence may show he did not account for all his income and his tax returns may be shown to be incorrect.

Hessey described Frantz as a "busy man" who ran several business enterprises and was well known and trusted in his dealings.

Frantz is charged with earning more than $55,000 in 1951 but only reporting $12,772 for tax purposes. In 1952 he reported a small loss, the government said, when actually he earned more than $16,000. And finally the jury was told, Frantz reported $4,924 on his tax form for 1953 when he earned $11,326.

To All People of Garrett County:

May I take this opportunity to introduce myself as a candidate for the House of Delegates. I wish also to state my sincere beliefs concerning my qualifications for this important public office.

I was born July 20, 1899 near Friendsville, Md., and am the father of eight children. At present I live on the home farm and am engaged in building and contracting, as well as a bus contractor. In the latter I have served 20 years.

I am the past president of the Bus Drivers' Association and have always felt the needs for better schools and other educational opportunities for our Garrett County youth. I have supported every progressive measure in behalf of teacher welfare as well as children and school buildings. I am active in the Parent-Teacher association and have always felt the need for better schools and more educational advantages for the youth of our county.

I earnestly believe in industry for Garrett County. At present I employ 5-10 men. I would like to see larger industry come into our county, which would raise the economic level of our people. More industry would also provide a closer and certain market for our farmers' products.

I am active in the Grace Lutheran Church, Friendsville, and serve as Vice-President of the Church Council.

I have always supported worthy community projects and am a charter member of the Rotary Club at Friendsville.

I feel that religion and education are the vital necessities in the lives of the American people. We must endorse both and pray that we do have candidates who will give their best in these two areas of American life.

I have not made any promises or political commitments to any group. I stand on democratic principles, and will serve all the people of Garrett County.

In closing I sincerely hope that you elect men on November 4th who have pledged themselves to work for all the people of Garrett County, and in so doing will bring honor and respect to all concerned.

Sincerely,
LESLIE E. SAVAGE

Has Autumn Wedding

The wedding of Miss Lois Irene Mose and Stanley Huffman Bond II, took place on Saturday afternoon, October 18, at 2:30 o'clock at the Church of the Brethren in Hagerstown. The Rev. Clayton H. Gehman officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Perry Mose, Beaver Creek. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thomas Thayer, 29 East Irvin Avenue, Hagerstown.

Large mums, snapdragons, carnations, and daisy pompons decorated the altar for the wedding. Miss Janet Williams, organist, played traditional hymns and accompanied Paul Roth, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of crystal pleated tulle and Chantilly lace with chapel train. Her silk illusion veil was attached to a queen's crown of pearls. She carried a cascade of white fuji mums and pompons.

Mrs. Larry Richard Gamby, Beaver Creek, as matron of honor, was wearing a ballerina frock of Dior blue velvetteen and silk taffeta. A flat bow of velvet and a cascade bouquet of white and pink daisy pompons completed her ensemble.

Bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Lynn Larrowy, Long Island, New York; and Miss Donna Kay Mose, Pinesburg. Both were dressed in frocks identical to the honor attendant and added matching bandeaux and bouquets. Miss Debra Sue Gamby, Beaver Creek, was flower girl. Harold Edward Peters was best man. Ushers were H. Russell Smouse, Baltimore; Robert Ritchie and Richard Ridenour, Hagerstown; and William Mose, Beaver Creek.

The bride's mother chose an afternoon dress of peacock blue silk shanting with feather hat and corsage of pink sweetheart roses and white pompons.

A cocktail length cream lace and taffeta dress was worn by the bridegroom's mother who also added a matching hat and corsage of green cypripedium orchids.

A reception was held in the church social room following the ceremony. For traveling to St. Petersburg, Fla., the bride changed into a green and brown wool outfit with feather hat and other brown accessories. Upon return the couple will reside at 606 Potomac Avenue, Hagerstown.

The bride is a graduate of Hagerstown High school, class of 1953, and attended Hagerstown Junior College. She is now a secretary in the X-ray department of the Washington county hospital.

The bridegroom was graduated from Hagerstown High school in 1949, attended Hagerstown Junior College and was graduated from Shepherd college, Shepherdstown, W. Va. Following two years in the U. S. army he is employed by the Washington County Roads department. He formerly resided in Oakland.

Compares Types of Government At Rally

Congressman DeWitt S. Hyde, Republican candidate for re-election to Congress from the Sixth District of Maryland, asked a Tuesday audience in Montgomery county, "What kind of government do you want?"

"You have heard the panelists on many famous programs, such as Meet the Press, City Side, Face to Face, and others, infer that the Republicans stand for the same as the Democrats. They ask the Republicans what programs should be eliminated? It is not a question of what great national programs would be eliminated. What we must do is look at the program the Democratic Party is promoting today. For example, the Democrats proposed the bill known as the Community Facilities Bill. This would have the Federal government financing anything and everything in our towns, cities, and counties—anything from parking lots and swimming pools to town halls. Another Democratic proposal is the Marketing Facilities Bill which would have the Federal government building city markets whether or not a city needed financial help. The Democrats would extend public power to the point where this phase of industry would be completely dominated by the Federal government. Do you realize that if the Federal government controlled all power, it could control all industry? An example of their determination in the field of public power is their blocking of the C. and O. Canal National Historical Park Bill right here in Western Maryland, because there was no provision in the bill for the construction of a hydro-electric power dam. Another example is the infamous Spence Bill of the 82nd Congress, which would have put Federal control into all business. This is still lurking in the files of the New Deal Democrats.

"The basic difference between the two great political parties, is the same as the issues between Alexander Hamilton and Thomas Jefferson. Strangely enough, the Democratic Party has now adopted the philosophy of Hamilton and the Republicans the philosophy of Jefferson. Hamilton believed first and foremost in orderly administration under the unifying forces of the Federal government. Jefferson was devoted first to liberty with emphasis on local responsibility. The political and economic advisers of the Democratic Party might be called engineers of orderly administration. The political and economic advisers of the Republican Party might be called architects of liberty. Someone has said of our founding fathers, Hamilton was the head and Jefferson was the heart. Someone might observe that we can still live if the head doesn't function well; if the heart doesn't function, we die. What we need, of course, is a compromise between the exponents of both, but it is the great task and solemn duty of the Republican Party to uphold the cause of liberty and freedom."

TO THE VOTERS OF GARRETT COUNTY

We have read the advertisement of a small group of so-called Independent Republicans for Bernard I. Gonder for State Senate which appeared in last week's issue of The Republican. We cannot see, on the basis of his record, why Mr. Gonder should be elected. Apparently those responsible for the advertisement overlooked important parts of his record and we hereby point out the following:

1. During his term in the State Senate, 1943 to 1946, he introduced and passed a law which deprived the farmers and owners of timber land of the privilege of cutting timber from their own lands until they had applied for and obtained a permit from certain state officials, thus depriving them of rights which they had always had and should have.

2. In 1943 he passed a bill repealing the beer law which had been voted upon and adopted by the people of Garrett County, and placed Garrett County under the general alcoholic law of the state and, in doing so, increased the permissible alcoholic content of beer and also removed from the law certain important provisions and restrictions which were essential for the proper and effective enforcement of the law, and thereby greatly weakened the Act. This was done without referring the law to the voters of the county for their approval.

3. He attempted to pass a law that would have required our county to construct a separate detention center for juveniles under eighteen years of age and to set up a special juvenile Court to try all juveniles accused of any crime. This law, if adopted, would have cost our county approximately $100,000.00 for the first year for construction of the detention center and approximately $40,000.00 per year thereafter. This proposed Act was killed by the Garrett County members of the House of Delegates after it had been passed by the Senate. We should point out that he endeavored to put the measure through by the devious method of tacking it on a state roads measure that had been passed in the House, and it was only through the alertness and efficiency of our Delegates in the House that the measure was discovered and killed.

We could point out other features of Mr. Gonder's service in the Senate which would not commend him to the voters for another term, but we believe the above are sufficient reasons why he should not be elected.

We believe a small group of Republicans who participated in the advertisement and who are trying to elect Mr. Gonder are only trying to get the voters to hand them the control of the county. In the event they are successful in this, it is possible that Mr. Gonder may include our county with other counties in the statewide laws that would legalize the sale of hard liquors.

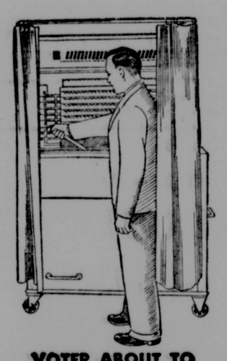
OFFICIAL BALLOT

FOR GENERAL ELECTION, NOVEMBER 4th, 1

Attention Voters!

Familiarize yourself with this diagram and directions for operating the voting machine. It will assist you in voting and save time on election day.



VOTER ABOUT TO CLOSE CURTAIN

Each candidate's voting pointer is located just above his name; a voting pointer must be turned down over the name of each candidate for whom you wish to vote, AND LEFT DOWN.

The machine is so arranged that you cannot turn down more than the proper number of voting pointers for each office. You cannot spoil your ballot by voting for too many candidates.

In an office to which more than one candidate is to be voted for, you can turn down the proper number of voting pointers, but no more, even if one is directly under the other.

No votes are registered until the Red operating lever is moved to open the curtain. You can make as many changes as you desire while the operating lever is at the right side.

No one will know how you have voted, because the movement of the Red operating lever returns the voted voting pointers to their unvoted position before the curtain begins to open.

Compare Silage To Alfalfa Hay For Feed Value

What is silage worth?

According to Bob Appleman, University of Maryland extension dairyman, the answer should be based on the feeding value of the silage. Other factors to consider are the amount of handling and the distance the silage must be hauled.

The value of silage in terms of feed energy received can be easily compared to alfalfa hay. Appleman's calculations indicate that well-eared corn silage is worth approximately 40 percent of the going price of alfalfa hay. If alfalfa is bringing $30 a ton, then well-eared corn silage delivered to the cows is worth $12 per ton.

Non-wilted grass silage contains more moisture. Therefore it is of lower feeding value and not worth as much as corn silage on a ton basis. If non-wilted grass silage is of good quality, cows will eat more of it and obtain just as much total energy. He estimated that good quality, non-wilted grass silage is worth three-fourths the price of corn silage, or 30 percent of the price of good alfalfa hay.

Depending on keeping quality and other factors, wilted grass silage is nearly equal in feeding value to well-eared corn silage, he said.

Three Miners Killed Near Kingwood

Three men were killed and another seriously injured last Thursday in a slate fall at a small mine near Kingwood, W. Va. One of the dead men was the son of the mine owner.

Killed in the roof collapse at the J. Wesley Turner Coal company mine, formerly the Northwestern Coal company, were Lawrence Turner, 35; Leonard Bollinger, 30, and Lewis Rager, 35. Turner was the son of J. Wesley Turner, who was vacationing in Harrisburg, Pa.

In serious condition with injuries was Clayton Eagle. The mine employs only seven men.

The accident occurred in a conveyor section near a working "face" in the mine, where coal is dug and placed on conveyors and brought to the surface. Officials are investigating the cause.

Laying Flock Needs Constant Water Supply

Maintenance of a constant water supply before laying birds is extremely important, says Dr. Richard D. Creek, University of Maryland poultry nutritionist.

The egg is over 70 percent water, he points out. Therefore, if the birds are going to lay at a maximum rate, they must have all the water they need.

Water needs of the flock are continually stressed in the summer because of heat. However, water supply maintenance is generally more difficult in winter because of freezing temperatures.

The lack of water for 24 hours by a flock of laying birds in cool weather will drastically cut production, start molt, and the flock probably will never return to peak performance.

It would be rather foolish to invest heavily in replacement stock, and have their performance ruined by a frozen water line or fountains.

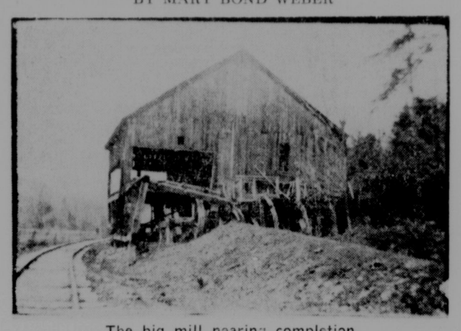
A Lumberman's Dream

BY MARY BOND WEBER



The big mill nearing completion.

The bare brown legs hung still over the water except when the toes wriggled stealthily into the clear deep pool as the fisherboy shifted his line to some more likely spot. Dreamily he laid his tousled head against the rock and through squinted eyes tried to see the tops of the tall mountains that rose abruptly from the narrow valley.

He was dreaming, not of "great things to be" but of the wild things that lived in the forest, for the mountains were thickly covered with the dense green of virgin timber. Other than an occasional mountaineer's shack there was almost no human habitation, neither were there roads aside from a few rough trails made by stumbling feet carrying wooden buckets of water which had been dipped up with a gourd to use for household purposes, and a little used path leading to civilization which seemed a long ways off. Therefore, the boy's dreams were not of the world he knew so little about but the present needs of his family, mainly food. The lazy stream babbling over the stones, with its quiet pools of fish was not always the pleasant source of provender it now seemed, at times it became a rushing torrent, tearing through the valley with such strength and vengeance that it acquired the name of Savage River and was a menace to anything within its reach.

The boy was not the only dreamer. Slowly down the trail came a man on horseback, his alert eyes measuring marks made by the savage waters.

"What strength! it is a crime to allow that power to go unharnessed." He noticed too the great oaks and tall straight pine and hemlock that grew in such abundance. His dreams raced on to the future.

In the spring of 1900, five brothers by the name of Bond and John E. DuBois, all natives of western Pennsylvania, purchased ten thousand acres of this timbered land from M. M. Armstrong of Philadephia. They appointed N. U. Bond, the youngest of the brothers, as manager and formed the company of "DuBois and Bond Brothers Lumber Corporation."

N. U. Bond started immediately to make friends with the few settlers and organize his plans so that when actual work was started there would be no unnecessary delays. He went into the one roomed cabins where he shared sleeping room on the floor with a large family and paid generously for the nights lodging. He ate messes of half baked corn-pone with butter dipped from the churn with sour cream still in it. The most common meat was greasy sow's belly but strange though this food was to him, it was offered in good-will and as such he accepted it; it was the best they had to give. If his work was going to interfere with the holdings of the squatter, he paid well for the damage and helped them to establish a new home. It was in this way he made many life long friends and created new ideals in their lives. One day chatting to a very old man he asked, "Grand-dad, what is your recipe for good health and old age?" Scratching his head the old man replied, "Wa—ll naow I 'spect it's 'cause I never took no stock in this new fangled hygiene. When old Savage lies quiet some hot day I go down and peel, lay me down on the stones where she can give me a gentle wash then dry in the sun. Once't or maybe twice a year is plentiful but beware o'scrubbin' an' soap."

The building of a standard gauge railroad was started in 1901. The beginning was a junction with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad about four miles west of Bloomington, Maryland. This flag station is still known as "Bond Junction." Then the new tracks trailed through the Savage River Valley, a great deal of of this valley is now submerged with the waters of the Savage River Dam. At first about six miles of track was laid, named and incorporated "The Savage River Railroad." Later it spread its branches up the Monroe Run and Big Run and in fact any and every place where the big logs could be hauled cheaper and quicker by rail.

Besides the track about five miles from the junction with the B. and O. R. R. the little town of Bond was started. First, a large building which was to house the company offices, the general store and the Post Office. Then a boarding house which was efficiently run made a welcome even if temporary home for employees with no place to house their families. Individual dwellings were started as soon as possible; demand was so urgent that many of them were used before the last nail was driven, springing up like mushrooms another crew was busily constructing the big mill at a point on the Savage River where the Monroe Run and Big Run joined it. The mill was equipped with a big band saw capable of turning out eighty thousand feet of lumber in a day. It also had a circular saw which gave an additional output of twenty thousand feet. Aside from the A 1 lumber there was an enormous supply of railroad ties, mine props, lath, shingle, tanbark, saw dust and pulp-wood. The strength of Savage River was harnessed. The company made its own electricity. This was not only used for lumber purposes but each individual building was wired and properly equipped for electrical uses. The log carriers were driven by pressure from huge steam boilers. While this mill was in the possession of DuBois and Bond Brothers it manufactured much over a million feet of first grade lumber.

In many places the steep hills provided good logslides. Stables were built and heavy draft horses imported. Four large camp dining-rooms and bunk lofts were built to accommodate the logging crews. Mr. Bond differed from the average lumberman in that he was always thinking of the future as well as the present. Every man was instructed, advised and commanded, as far as possible, to leave the new growth unharmed and unobstructed so that the forest could reestablish itself and in the future become again beautiful and valuable.

Railroad tracks were laid to separate cuttings. Separate crews were maintained for their care. A passenger train carrying mail and express ran daily. Any person unfortunate enough to miss a ride had the choice of walking several miles or pumping railroad bicycle or hand car. That in itself was not so bad but if by chance the bicycle or hand car had to be tipped off the tracks to give way to an oncoming train, getting the heavy thing back on the tracks was no joke. Also, two four seated cars run by motor were owned by the company and could be called on for emergencies. It was not much of a trick to run these small hand cars but the speed they gain on a down grade if the brakes were not properly applied was amazing, and could create a lasting memory of terror.

So the little town of Bond grew and prospered. They were busy and as a rule happy. All employees were well insured against sickness or injury. The astonishing feature of the corporation was the smoothness with which the work progressed with so many people. Of course, the women gossiped and had their little spats, much as a large family. Never was there sickness, death or trouble of any kind but what the manager was in their home with sympathy, financial aid or to insure "fair play." If there was a dispute among the men or a disturbing element in the kitchens of the ladies or an unruly child the trouble would be brought to the manager, N. U. Bond. He had just finished college at Ann Arbor, Michigan. He had been admitted to the Bar but preferred to settle his disputes outside of court if possible. He was very humane and sympathetic but at the same time stern and inflexible as a piece of steel. Most of his employees knew that he would listen to their vexations with understanding and sympathy, weigh their grievances impartially and decide justly, therefore he held many private courts that averted much greater trouble. Sometimes very strange cases were brought to him. Once a man and his wife came together, she complaning because her man whaled her, and he because she insisted on chasing the pigs outside. "I 'low that one room ain't none too much fer eleven young'uns 'ith out the pigs but he declares the pigs are the most valuable nohow.' Well they couldn't eat the children. Mr. Bond objected to mixing drink and work, therefore he forbade the sale or even the possession of intoxicants on the place. Once he made the announcement that he did not care to mention names but that he wanted the persons responsible for bootlegging to call at his office. Eight men showed up some begging to have their jobs back. He had very little such trouble after that. Never did he deal with a man personally concerning his work. Each division was under a separate boss and they were the ones held responsible for the work assigned to them.

Physical ills were cared for by Dr. Howard Kemp of Bloomington. He was in his office at Bond two days every week and on call any day or night when needed. He was paid by the company and there were no individual fees.

Visiting ministers and "Ladies Aid" kept the church in action.

A regular teacher and modern equipment put the school on a par with other schools of the county.

In order to facilitate bookkeeping, part of the wages was paid in script, honored at the company store where many necessities of living could be purchased; furniture, fuel, garden supplies, tools, food, ready made clothing, yard goods, toys and jelly beans. Honorable mention is due the guardian of the store, a large English bulldog. He could be very gentle but he knew his business and did it with no fooling.

Garrett County was now making a mark in the lumber world. There was another big mill located at Crellin. It ran for thirty-four years with an output of six hundred million feet of lumber. A mill at Friendsville was shipping three hundred carloads of poles every month. Jennings also had a mill doing stupendous work.

In 1910 disaster struck the little town of Bond. Rumors were afloat the town was to be sold. They would be under new management and organizations. Friendships would be severed, ties grown close in nine years of familiar associations would be broken. Many hearts ached and many tears were shed but in spite of sentiment that had grown with the development, the purpose had been fulfilled. So the town was sold. Anthony Wane Cook owned eight thousand acres on Meadow Mountain and at the head of Savage River, he negotiated with Mr. Bond for the remaining uncut timber, the mill and all improvements.

Later Cook sold the plant and standing timber to Dimling and Bloom. After some years Mr. Bond sold the original ten thousand acres of cut over land to the State of Maryland, as a forest preserve.

The dreams of the far seeing lumberman were again starting to materialize. The young trees he had so painstakingly protected were rapidly reaching maturity. Fifty years have passed and I have been informed that with the increasing value of lumber the forest is now of greater value than it was in 1900.

Devereux Declares Bosses, Booze and Baloney Main Issues

"Bosses, booze and baloney—these are the three main issues of the campaign for Governor," Republican nominee James Patrick Devereux declared this week.

"All other major questions hinge on whether our Free State shall stay free of control by beer lobbyist George Hocker and Baltimore boss Jack Pollack," he warned.

"Citizens must realize that a vote for Harmony Hall's candidate J. Millard Tawes is a vote for Pollack politics and his City Hall gang.

"Maryland must beware the danger of putting our statehouse in hock to Hocker and the booze barons.

"As for the baloney—Tawes has introduced this issue himself with his mincemeat of bald evasions and half-truths, all incased in sheer demagoguery as bait for votes.

"Never before has a candidate for high Maryland office ever flatly refused to tell the press or the people his program or platform.

"His promise to raise teachers' pay by 12 million dollars—without raising taxes a penny—is a typical improbability Tawes declines to further explain.

"He cries 'smear,' then clams up when asked to repudiate Boss Pollack.

"Tawes shouts 'liar" when linked to Hocker, but he campaigns arm-in-arm with Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro who only a year ago denounced him as the 'godfather' of the liquor interests.

"Never has Tawes uttered a word to disassociate himself from the proven slander of D'Alesandro's bare-face lie about Donald Surine.

"Tawes refuses to tell his own Eastern Shore watermen what he will do about the oyster shortage and barren bottoms.

"Tawes extols himself as a comic book character who helps win World War I in a high-pay, draft-proof, home-side job but he fidgets and says not a word about his World War II confession of chiseling emergency-rationed gasoline for five-state joyrides in a State-owned Cadillac limousine.

"His boasts in this comic book of 16 spotless years as State Comptroller do not include the fact that the Governor stripped him of the custody of State vehicles for admittedly abusing his stewardship.

"Nor does Tawes comic book include the episode of how editor Rives Matthews was hounded out of Somerset county for daring to expose him.

"Millard the Mum is equally mute on any real program for Maryland. He says he'll decide what to do about taxes after election.

"Tawes says he wants modern superhighways, but objects to buying roadways wider than two lanes.

"Tawes wants a Balkanized State Roads commission, apparently with its members regionalizing our fine highway system with disconnected roadnets and one-way, dead-end streets lined with pork barrels for Ward and County bosses.

"The one good thing Tawes does propose—a commission to attract more business and industry and prosperity to Maryland—he lifts almost bodily from our Republican platform.

"I helped to write that platform. Read it and you know where I stand. Hear me, and you know where I stand. I use plain English, not double talk.

"I stand against lobbies that try to intimidate our State officials and legislators.

"I stand for adequate pay for teachers, but from local sources, not from the State.

"I oppose further Federal aid to education except in Federally impacted areas.

"I want our fine highway system continued, without detours back to Pollack politics in the State Roads commission.

"I stand for a free press, immune from punitive taxation or miscarriage of justice.

"I believe in morality in public office and private life.

"There is only one question—should Maryland be governed by a man or a machine?"

Joseph's Happy Re-union

(This story is based on Genesis 45-47)

HELLO BOYS AND GIRLS! Don't you like to read a story that has a happy ending? We all do, and especially so if it is a true story. That is exactly the way the story of Joseph and his brothers ends. Listen:

Jacob's sons returned from Egypt with the joyful news: "Joseph is yet alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt." At first Jacob did not believe their report, but when he saw the wagons that Pharaoh had sent to take him and his family into Egypt, and the twenty donkeys laden with the good things of Egypt; and when he saw Benjamin back again safely, he was convinced. "It is enough; Joseph my son is yet alive: I will go and see him before I die." Then his sons confessed to him their great sin which had embittered his life and theirs. However, he saw that God had overruled it all for good, and he freely forgave them.

Soon the whole family of seventy "souls" were on their way to Egypt with gladness of heart. At a place called Beer-sheba, God appeared to Jacob in a night vision and said: "Fear not to go down to Egypt, for I will there make of thee a great nation; .... and I will also surely bring thee up (or back) again."

At last they came into the land of Goshen in Egypt where Joseph met them in all his royal splendor. But Joseph forgot all about his high position and honor. One thought alone filled his mind; one desire thrilled his entire being: and that was to see his dear father again, from whom he had been separated for so many years. At last when he saw the company approaching, he sprang from his chariot and ran to meet his father, Jacob. "And he fell on his neck, and wept ... a good while." And his father said, "Now let me die, since I have seen thy face, because thou art yet alive." But people don't die from joy, do they? Neither did Jacob, who for seventeen long years lived with his now united and happy family in the land of Egypt.

Shortly after their arrival, Joseph presented several of his brothers to Pharaoh who gave the entire family permission to live in the fruitful land of Goshen as long as they wished. Joseph also introduced his aged father to Pharaoh, and Jacob raised his hands and blessed the monarch.

As the years rolled by Jacob had the joy of seeing his children prospering and multiplying in the land of Goshen in fulfillment of God's promise. Thus after many years of sore trials, the story of the patriarch Jacob had a happy ending. And so it will be with you, boys and girls. You too may have your trials and many heart-breaking bitter disappointments; but if you are a child of God, your life story will also have a most happy ending.

By DICK CASTILOW

Everyone who attended the record hop at the armory Friday night really had a ball. We were all pleasantly surprised to see all of the parents who came to pay us a visit. This is the kind of spirit we like to see. It gives us teen agers a pretty good feeling to see that there is a certain amount of interest taken in our organization. We would like to invite every parent to come up and see at first hand just how much Teen Age Club means to us. I am sure all the parents would enjoy themselves almost as much as we do. In the past there have been adults in the community who have had a number of doubts about our club, well it's like this, if it weren't for Teen Age Club, we would all go literally stir crazy, or even worse, there would be many things more drastic that would happen. We all realize that there have been times that someone has maybe had a drink or so before coming to Teen Club. But we would like all the wary adults to know that this is not the average member of our club. The average member feels as harsh towards this sort of thing as anyone could, in fact will do anything to discourage this sort of behavior. This is the average member of our organization. So again we ask, please come and see for yourselves what a fine organization we have. We all admit that we have a fine organization, but think how much better it would be with a little more help, interest and support.

There is quite a bit on tap for this year. We are planning a first for this area. This project is still in the planning stage, but we all have great expectations. There were three teens from the other end of the county at Teen Club Friday night. You all up there follow their lead and come on down. We realize that there has been a certain amount of rivalry between the two areas, but while at Teen Club all such feuds end.

The top tunes in the nation as collected by Billboard are as follows. Tommy Edwards' "It's All in the Game" falls into the top spot this week trailed by "It's Only Make Believe." Tom Dooley is in third place. Here are a few others: "Topsy II," "Rock n' Robin," "Tears On My Pillow," "Bird Dog," "Susie Darlin'" and "He."

If any of our readers have any item that would be of special interest to Teen agers, or if anyone has any person or group of the more talented teens simply call DE 4-2684 and ask for Dick. I will do my best to air the subject to the public.

I am planning some interviews with the area's top disc jockeys. The first will appear next week.

Incidentally, if you all want Teen Age Club tomorrow night, come up to the armory after school tomorrow and help decorate the place.

"I've been hospitalized several times in the past few years and it has meant a lot to me to have Blue Cross. The broad protection is the most important reason—practically all my hospital charges have been covered in full. And I appreciate the way Blue Cross settles my bills directly with the hospital, without making me file claims or wait for repayment."

BERNARD I.
GONDER

To My Friends:

This will be my final message to you before the general election next Tuesday. During the past few weeks I have attempted to outline what I feel are my qualifications for the position of State Senator, and to review my past accomplishments in that position.

As I have stated, and it is a matter of public record, I have been active in the interests of roads, schools, hospital, library, fire companies, conservation and game and other fields which directly affect our citizens.

Should you again elect me to the State Senate, I shall continue to work cooperatively with local and state agencies for progress in these and other fields. I am proud of my ability to work harmoniously with other members of the state legislature and state government, regardless of party, and I believe this to be of prime importance, if worthwhile results are achieved.

Of course, we all know the need for industry in our county—industry to provide employment for our young people and heads of families. In the position of State Senator, I believe I would have influence to persuade some industries to move to our county and will lend my best efforts to this goal.

You must realize Garrett is a large county, and it is impossible for any candidate to contact each voter personally. To any of you whom I have not seen, I give the same pledge—that if you should return me to the Senate I shall carefully consider each issue and problem as it arises and do what I believe is best for the people of the county and state—with their consultation and advice.

Support for my candidacy has come from many quarters—some of them unexpected. But I assure you I have made no commitments or promises to any person or groups, should I be elected.

During this campaign I have tried to present my position fully and honestly. I do not believe in last minute "pink sheets" which usually distort the truth and confuse the issues. Should any appear within the next few days, I shall not give them the dignity of a reply.

I stand upon what I have accomplished and respectfully ask your support on November 4.

Sincerely,

Bernard I. Gonder

ATTENTION Teen Agers!

You teen agers have many problems! Sure, they are hard to solve, but with the right kind of help, you can find the right answer.

Have you ever discovered that God can satisfy your longings? In His Church, you work and play with other teen agers, sharing with them the experience of worship through music, Bible study, and prayer. Here you discover that others have passed through similar experiences, solved similar problems.

In the Church are adults who remember their own teen age tangles, and have come to realize that human beings are more or less alike, regardless of age. Here are leaders who can help and who really understand! The Church offers you teen agers an opportunity to be yourselves at your very best, to exercise all your powers, to make life as wonderful as your rosiest dreams.

How about it teen agers? Don't you want to give the Church a chance?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Bible Material: Mark 1:14-39.

Beginning Here

Lesson for November 2, 1958

THOUSANDS of Americans have visited Galilee. The very name has a glamorous sound. But at the time the events were occurring which lent the place its fame, now famous around the world, it had no glamor at all. It is a little region, no bigger than a county. At the time Jesus lived, it was a part, a very insignificant corner, of a great empire, governed by a politician named Herod with the title of "Tetrarch,"—what we today might call a backwoods V.I.P.

Dr. Foreman

People look at things differently nowadays. If Jesus had had a public-relations man, or somebody like a Hollywood agent, they would certainly have advised a start somewhere besides Galilee. "Everybody will think you have no background" they might have said. "When people hear you are from Galilee they will just say Oh. If you have any ambition for a career, Galilee is a pretty poor bottom rung on the ladder of success."

Confusion at the Crossroads

But Galilee was where Jesus was, and that is where he started. It did seem absurd. (Not to him, of course, but to any worldly-wise observer.) Galilee was not only an ordinary dusty unglamorous sort of countryside, dotted with towns and villages most of which have long been forgotten. Galilee was a crossroads, a melting pot. It lay along important highways. It was open to immigration, and there had been lots of it. There were not many Galileans who could boast of proud pedigrees to match those of the aristocrats up in Jerusalem. All sorts of people, with all sorts of ideas and ideals, all sort of customs, yes and all sorts of religions, had come and settled in Galilee. There were towns such as Tiberias, Herod's little back-country capital, that had been settled by so many non-Jews or half-Jews, that Jews "in good and regular standing" would not be caught dead in them, and would not even trade in them.

Again, what an unlikely region to start a new religion! Religions by the dozens flourished or faded as the case might be, in Galilee. One more religion, an so what? With all the clamoring voices of rival faiths, what chance did the voice of truth have in all that interference? Besides, you would expect the founder of a new religion to take his followers to some remote shrine, where he and they could meditate without being disturbed by newsboys and telephones. Of course Galilee had neither telephones or newsboys; but it had the equivalents of both. And there is precisely where Jesus started, in all the noise and jangle, the competition and confusion.

No Religous Background

People's minds in Galilee were not on religion. There were no great shrines there, no temples like the one in Jerusalem. Priests were few and far between. There was no great religious tradition. "Selling" religion to Galileans was not promising. Granted, the "pious" people around Jerusalem included a number of hypocrites. Still, why not start in Jerusalem where people were already interested, instead of starting cold, in Galilee? Once when Jesus was teaching, never more earnestly or spiritually in his life, one of these money-minded Galileans shouted to him from the crowd: Make my brother divide our inheritance with me! It is hard to get under the skin and next to conscience of people like that.

Galilee Is Our Town

All the same, Jesus began in Galilee, and stayed with it almost to the end. He set thereby an example to us. For Galilee is our town. We could make a better beginning somewhere else, we think, but if Galilee is where we live, that is where we must begin to be Christians before we try it in Tokyo or Timbuctoo. A man who is a poor missionary in his home town will not be a good missionary at the ends of the earth. A church that supports foreign missions with enthusiasm but supports social injustice at home is not giving an effective Christian witness. A church that pretends to be Christian must be interested in people; and if you cannot get intersted in the unglamorous Galileans around you, you will not do much better elsewhere.

Berlin was paced by the running of quarterback Ohler and halfback Shrock, who tallied a pair of touchdowns apiece. Dick Spear and Don Jenkins accounted for both Huskie touchdowns. Miller ran Berlin's two extra points.

The loss was the sixth without a victory for Coach Denver Mitchell and his charges, who out-gained their opponent on the ground 137 to 89 yards. Berlin, however, completed five of nine passes for 103 yards.

The Huskies opened scoring in the first quarter when quarterback Don Jenkins planted a pass in the waiting arms of fullback Dick Spear in the end zone on a play covering nine yards.

Berlin knotted the score in the second period when Shrock plunged through center from a yard out. Shrock then launched the second half with a 20-yard sprint around left end for the Keystone Staters' second six-pointer.

In the third period Northern's Doc McGraw pilfered a loose ball in the Berlin backfield, ran from the enemy 20 to 45 and then lateraled to Jenkins who galloped the remaining distance.

Ohler registered Berlin's last two touchdowns. The first came on a quarterback sneak from the one and the other on a 25-yard scamper after intercepting a Jenkins' pass.

A Dirty Story

I'm sure that most respectful and moral people are utterly amazed at the volume of vileness that pours forth from the lips of those people who surround them. The word and suggestions which some people think humorous are enough to make a decent person sick. Remove the filth from their pun and there is nothing left to laugh at. Whenever you hear a person telling a story you know immediately the rottenness of their hearts for the Lord said, "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh!" Surely you should not trust your wife, daughter or little children in their company. It is even more regretable when people who profess to be Christians have not cut off this abominable practice. They may not engage in the worst of filth but the stream is still contaminated and the effects just as poisonous. The Word says plainly (Eph. 4.29) "Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace to the hearers." The next time you are tempted to tell a dirty story, remember, those who hear you will not think highly of you. And besides, the Lord hears what you say too! Let's keep the stories and jokes clean!

Soviet, U. S. Press In Sharp Contrast

Freedom of the press is so much a part of the American way of life that we take it for granted. It is hard for us really to grasp its value because we never had the experience of being without it.

A healthy man takes his body for granted in much the same way. But if he sprains a muscle in his ankle and cannot walk, he suddenly realizes what a marvelous machine his body is. He realizes that the mere ability to walk is a priceless gift.

Perhaps we Americans would understand more vividly what freedom of the press means to us if we tried to imagine living in a country where the press is not free—for instance, the Soviet Union.

The Soviet reader finds all the news carefully selected and tailored to fit the "party line." If something good happens in the United States which conflicts with official Soviet pictures of American life—such as an improvement in race relations or a rise in wages—the chances are he will never read about it. If something really bad happens in the Soviet Union, he will probably never read that either. He may hear by the grapevine about a mine cave-in in the next town; an epidemic or a flood which has taken many lives; or a riot put down by force. But Soviet newspapers are silent about those things. Nothing was ever published in the Soviet Union about the violent riots—witnessed by foreign tourists—which swept Tiflis in Soviet Georgia, just after Stalin died in 1953. The Soviet citizens have to rely on the rumor mill for news of such events.

The Soviet editor is in a similar situation. He is more responsible, but no more free, than his readers. His editorials reflect not his point of view but that of the Communist party. He has but one news agency, TASS, which transmits to him daily the material he is to print.

There is no use trying to start an independent newspaper in the Soviet Union. Such things are forbidden. Under the State Secrets Act it is a crime even to possess, without authorization, a mimeograph machine or the jelly for a hectograph.

Government officials in free countries may sometimes think wistfully how easy it would be to govern if only they, like the Soviet dictators, did not have to endure the goading and nagging of a free press. But that, of course, is an illusion. To govern without a free press means to govern in a state of suspicion and hostility between government and people; not to know what is on the people's minds; not to be able to see discontent until it has grown to such proportions as to threaten the state itself.

This leads to a situation where dissent is represented by police; unsound policies are continued without challenge; official deceit and corruption flourish; respect for truth is killed; and the people, unable to exercise their God-given rights, become pawns of the state.

Thus our free press, which is so familiar to us, is a mighty force for good. The possession of it is bound up with all that gives life its value and imparts luster to the name of people all over the world.

We should not take our free press for granted. Freedom carries with it responsibility to decide wisely. Under our system, each editor and each reader—as a citizen—must decide for himself how he will discharge his responsibility to the end that freedom itself will be strengthened, and with it the good life to which freedom is an open door.

Is Your Name WEEKS?

Weeks, an old and honored surname, is principally of English origin. It is the equivalent of such well known surnames as Weekes, Wyck, Wick and Wyche. It admits of at least two derivations. According to some authorities on nomenclature, it is obtained from the Old English "wix", which means "dairy farm," and therefore was often bestowed in mediaeval times upon those who lived on such farms. It is said also that Weeks was sometimes applied, when surnames first came into vogue, to newcomers to a community who came from places by the name of Weeks in England.

Thomas Weeks (1735-1817) and Gilbert Weeks (1741-1799) served as lieutenants respectively in the Massachusetts and New York troops during the Revolutionary War.

The first census of the United States, taken in 1790, has listings of Ezekiel Weeks and John Weeks who were residents of Maryland and heads of families at that time. They lived respectively in Anne Arundel and Harford Counties.

An interesting genealogy of the descendants of George Weeks, who came from Devonshire, England and settled in Dorchester, Massachusetts in 1635, was compiled by Robert D. Weeks of East Orange, New Jersey and published in 1885.

There are thirty seven references to persons by the name of Weeks in the latest directory of Phi Beta Kappa, the honorary scholastic society.

John Wingate Weeks (1860-1926) was a partner in the substantial financial firm of Hornblower and Weeks, United States senator from Massachusetts, and Secretary of War in the cabinet of President Harding. His son, Sinclair Weeks, is Secretary of Commerce in the cabinet of President Eisenhower.

League Names Officers

Officers of St. Mark's Luther League were named at an organization meeting Sunday night. Robert Nordeck was named president; Willard Ann Glotfelty, vice-president; Sue Yutzy, secretary; Patty Sacher, treasurer.

Gas Company Drivers Take Safety Award

Gas company drivers here were credited with helping Cumberland and Allegheny Gas Company capture its second top safe driving award for large gas utilities.

They helded win the championship for the Pittsburgh Group Companies of the Columbia Gas System in 1956 and placed second in 1957, manager R. H. Brown reported.

Competing with drivers of 24 other large gas companies from coast to coast, they once more led the field this year in their division of the National Fleet Safety Contest.

"Their winning low accident frequency rate, .76 per 100,000 miles, was far below the national fleet average of 1.49 accidents", Mr. Brown said. "It was a much more impressive record than the .96 average that won in 1956," he added.

Gas company drivers make their record the hard way, he explained. Emergency vehicles are on service calls around the clock and in all weather conditions. Construction and maintenance vehicles work under handicaps of heavy urban traffic or rugged back-country driving conditions.

The record was set between July 1, 1957 and June 30, 1958. Gas company drivers operated 1100 vehicles a total of 13,275,000 miles. A. R. Kelliher, Pittsburgh Group Companies safety director, accepted the National Safety Council award on their behalf at a Louisville meeting recently.

Mr. Brown said the safety campaign is a continuous effort, under the supervision of an employees' committee. Current safety committee chairman is William C. Deems, assisted by Irving R. Wolf, Walter F. Campbell, Harland B. Kelley, Allen H. Marple and Harry E. Gaither.

Twenty-two were killed in a Virginia mine blast.

TO THE VOTERS

We, the undersigned, desiring to bring to the people of Garrett County an effective administration, in this important part of our county government, the Board of County Commissioners, do pledge untiring effort to perform the duties entrusted to us, with honor, enthusiasm, efficiency and honesty.

Elra Garletts Carl A. Schell

I came to Garrett County in 1914—poor health and very poor financially. I settled on a farm near Friendsville, Md., regained my health and by hard work and applying business principles to farming, I became financially secure. I have had a good life, and have made many friends in Garrett County. I am a member of the Grace Lutheran Church of Friendsville, a member of the Farm Bureau, served as president one term, resigned this year to become a candidate for County Commissioner. I am a firm supporter of more and better education for our county. I have long felt that I couid serve my county well as Commissioner. Now that I am in a position to devote my time and energy to this important post, I ask your support on November 4th.—Elra F. Garletts.

I came to Garrett County in 1916 at the age of four years. I have been a resident in the Kitzmiller area ever since. I have been a certified mine foreman for the past twenty years. I taught first aid to the miners of Garrett Coal Corporation—enabling them to acquire a perfect record. I was captain of the mine rescue team which won national fame. This team won the national championship award in 1951. I served as fire company president for six years. As fire chief for eight years, I am a member of the National Congress of Parent, Teachers Association. I was president of our local P.-T. A. for two years. Needless to say, I am vitally interested in education and our school program. I am a member of the Methodist Church. I am seeking the office of County Commissioner because I feel I am particularly fitted for it. I am sure I could do a good job for the county in this field. A man claiming honesty does not mean a great deal, but I sincerely invite investigation in this field. If elected, I will bring to this Board of Commissioners a zest for accomplishment, an unbiased, non-partisan viewpoint, and all the "know how" I possess. If you vote for me, you will have no just cause to later regret it.—Carl A. Schell.

THE AMERICAN WAY

Not Who, But What

By DR. ALFRED P. HAAKE

One of the most vital truths, often revealed in the competition of persons for prestige, is that we are so concerned with determining WHO is right that we ignore the far more important question of WHAT is right.

We are led, all too often, to the point where we accept WHAT is wrong, or ignore WHAT IS RIGHT in order to prove WHO is right.

That seems to be where Senator John L. McClellan, the erstwhile crusader for cleaning up ALL unions, placed himself recently when he excoriated James R. Hoffa of the Teamsters' Union, "an an arrogant advocate of the fix, the cheat, the lie, and as a menace to the country." Indeed, the more serious threat is in the growing political power which makes labor monopolist Reuther the most dangerous man in America.

Those who need, or think they need, the votes and influence Mr. Reuther has for them if they dance to his bidding, apparently find it advisable to decide that, as between Hoffa and Reuther, Reuther is right.

They seem so anxious to make Reuther right that they trample all over the far more important question of WHAT is right.

Just as ordinary American citizens, believing in God, and having a profound respect for simple truth, fair play and honesty, we fail to see any halo gracing the brow of Walter Reuther. The reprehensible conduct of his goons in Kohler and Perfect Circle makes him no more worthy of respect, or less dangerous, than the man Hoffa whom Senator McClellan excoriated as "a menace to the country." Indeed, the more serious threat is in the growing political power which makes labor monopolist Reuther the most dangerous man in America.

Most of us would agree with that statement after having read evidence reported out of the Hoffa hearings. But probably very few of us know of a recently startling story in Washington, which is said to have highlighted two revelations adding to the fuel which made the scandal of the labor bosses the most burning issue from one end of the country to the other.

The first of these allegations has to do with the bloody influence of Reuther's C. I. O. on the relatively moderate A. F. L. The other is the growing bias of Senator McClellan and his Counsel Robert Kennedy FOR Reuther and AGAINST Hoffa.

Called to the witness chair by Counsel Robert Kennedy on August 26th, one Thomas L. Moran, Captain of Detectives of St. Louis, Mo., traced the character of Teamsters' violence in St. Louis, under the direction of local Teamster boss Harold Gibbons, back to the C. I. O. Those who covered Captain Moran's testimony apparently recognized immediately the pattern described as the same labor violence used by Reuther's goons against the employees of the Kohler Company and the Perfect Circle Company.

It would seem that Senator McClellan and Counsel Kennedy should have followed Moran's testimony with further questioning to show a pattern of violence which is one of the greatest evils of the labor boss problem, and which reveals a shocking disregard for the rights of other human beings.

One questions, seriously, whether even the corruption of which Hoffa and his minions appear to be guilty is as wicked and serious as the physical violence and disregard for law and order manifested by Reuther's goons in the Kohler and Perfect Circle cases.

But McClellan and Kennedy hastily dropped the subject which Captain Moran had brought up, and instead sought in their questioning to develop material on corruption in the Teamsters' Union in St. Louis, which is Reuther's main charge against his rival Hoffa. It seems also to serve Reuther as an excellent red herring to draw fire away from his own goons.

You see, if you can be a bit cynical, Walter Reuther has the votes and is the most powerful person in organized labor today. Even otherwise competent senators and political leaders quail before the prospect of offending him.

Speakers Switched For Civic Luncheon

David L. Curran, ex-officio member of the Advisory Board for the State Forestry camps in Maryland, was the speaker for the Oakland Civic club luncheon meeting Tuesday afternoon instead of Thomas J. S. Waxter, director of the Maryland Department of Public Welfare.

Mr. Waxter was called to Washington in connection with Federal matters relating to a new building project.

Mr. Curran spoke of the first camp at Green Ridge, Allegany county, and later the ones located near Lonaconing and on Meadow Mountain, both in Garrett county. Boys from the Maryland Training School and colored boys from Cheltenham are sent to these camps for two to three months.

Mr. Curran declared it had been his privilege to have "lived, eaten, slept and cried with these boys in meeting their problems." He referred to J. Edgar Hoover's "A Program for a Better America," currently appearing in "This Week" magazine, listing the three most frequent offenses of juvenile delinquency.

Curran was introduced by Robert W. Stemple, director of the county welfare board. In charge of the meeting was Mrs. O. T. Graser. Assisting were Mrs. Wade Meese, Mrs. Grover C. Stemple. The committee on arrangements include Mrs. Henry W. McComas, Mrs. H. L. Bittner, Mrs. Herbert Leighton and Mrs. J. D. Darby. Guests and visitors included Judge Neil C. Fraley, Mrs. C. Williams, Mrs. Robert Stemple, Mrs. Don Stemple, Mrs. Fulcher P. Smith. Mrs. Irvin Feld represented the Junior Woman's Civic club. New members present were Mrs. Charles E. Paugh, Sr., and Mrs. A. T. Listen Americans!

BY GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College

Inflation can be more damaging and destructive to a nation's people than war — even H-bomb war. This is a fact difficult for people to accept, and that makes inflation all the more dangerous; for unless people are frightened of the consequences of inflation they will take no effective action to halt it. Today in the United States, continuing "modest" inflation and the threat of wild, runaway inflation constitute one of the major dangers to our prosperity, our freedom and even to our survival.

There are many grim lessons in history on the destructive power of inflation. Despots have deliberately debauched the currency to gain dictatorial control over a nation's people; bloody revolutions have been brought on by conditions of wild inflation; and in nation after nation the value of monetary wealth has been wiped out by inflation, leaving a whole population prostrate. No condition could be of greater value to the Communist leaders plotting to conquer the world than runaway inflation in the United States.

The fact that since 1939 inflation has gradually eaten away 52% of the dollar's purchasing power should alarm and alert every American citizen; but unfortunately it hasn't.

It is vitally necessary for the people of America to understand inflation, its principal causes and some of the more dramatic examples of its effects. It is vitally necessary for them to act intelligently to cope with this expanding danger. Inflation is caused by the existence of more money in the market place than there are goods to satisfy the demands. The over-abundance of dollars in ratio to goods cheapens the dollars; each dollar's purchasing power is reduced. Government spending, higher wages without bigger man-hour production, expanding public or private debt, and other related factors bring about the cheapening of money which is called inflation.

Your individual stake in continuing inflation can perhaps best be understood by recalling what happened in Germany in the 1920's. At the advent of the Socialist controlled government in 1919, four and one-fifth German marks were equivalent in purchasing power to one dollar in American money. German inflation gathered momentum through 1919 and 1920, and began to run wild in 1922-23.

By July of 1923, 160,000 marks were required to equal a dollar's purchasing power.

By October, 1923, it required 242,000 marks to make a dollar.

By November 20, 1923, the mark was valued at 4,200,000,000,000 to the dollar. A newspaper in Berlin sold for 200 billion marks per copy. There was an actual case of a young German being left an inheritance of 650,000 marks in 1920 (worth $65,000 at that time) with the provision that he would receive it at age 21. He became 21 in mid-1923. With his entire inheritance he was by then able to buy only one skimpy meal.

hospital. Mrs. Paul B. Naylor said any additional gifts for mental health patients could be left at her home. Mrs. Hugh Echard, Ways and Means chairman, reminded club members that candy was still available for sale. Thirty-three members attended.

Million and a Half Paid to Auto Fund

Almost a million Maryland motorists paid about one and one-half million dollars into the state's new Unsatisfied Claim and Judgment fund during its first full year of existence.

The Department of Motor Vehicles announced that $38,500 was deducted from the $1,460,093 total for administration.

The remainder of the fees collected from 977,310 motorists was deposited in the State Treasury against the day next year, June 1, when the fund begins paying out.

Money in the fund will go for claims filed for damages caused by uninsured drivers.

A report to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles said 908,341 motorists registered to pay the $1 fee assessed against those who are insured to the law's minimum standards. Subject to an $8 fee, because their insurance did not meet the standards or was non-existent, were 68,969 drivers.

Good Lesson . . . .

There's no doubt about it. There are good lessons to be learned from Tuesday's election, not only for the Republican party but for the Democratic party, for future and past office holders, and for all citizens who are interested in good government.

It's no secret that there has been bickering among the Republican office holders over the past number of years. Whether some of the charges were justified or not, the fact remains that the voters expressed their displeasure in no uncertain terms. The Democrats, with one big push of a mighty big broom, have swept five Republicans out of office, breaking a precedent that has endured for many years. Never before has a Democrat been elected to the House of Delegates, and only on rare occasions has a Democrat ever been elected to the Board of County Commissioners. This year the Democratic party elected two each to both positions, plus a State Senator.

The election should teach a vital lesson to office holders —that they are constantly under the watchful eye of public opinion which permits no leeway for rash, ill-considered action or the favoritism of a few, and that their demeanor in public and private life, is carefully watched.

The pursuit of excellence in government is the most important consideration an office holder can have, with party obligation secondary, and the office holder will be judged eventually on the kind of person he is and the kind of job he performs.

There is no question that the Republican party has suffered a serious blow, but certainly not a fatal one. A stronger party will be built in the county as a result of it, of that we can be sure.

We don't mean to take away any of the credit of success from the Democratic party. Its effort was well organized and the candidates worked in harmony. There was in addition that trend of change throughout the entire country working in their favor. It even reached into the ranks of our neighboring Republican county and took two House seats and two County Commissioner seats from the majority party. Had the Republican candidates worked in like unity and harmony, there might have been a different story, in spite of the trend.

The Democratic victors as well as the Republican winners have the capabilities of serving their county well. They need encouragement for the difficult job ahead and should receive it. They will also be watched with a critical eye, just as others have been in the past. So let this election be a striking lesson to all of us.

Wide Neighborhoods Will Be Theme of Achievement Night

Wide Neighborhoods will be the theme of the 1958 Garrett County 4-H Achievement Night program on November 7 at 8:00 p. m. in the St. Paul's Methodist Church social room, Oakland. This theme was selected to help commemorate the tenth anniversary of IFYE - the International Farm Youth Exchange program.

The Garrett County 4-H'ers will present a skit telling the story of IFYE which was developed in 1948 in order to create a better understanding between rural people around the world. To give a living example of how this program promotes world understanding, Walter Schmidt of Queen Anne's County, will give an illustrated talk on his experiences as an IFYE to Austria.

Awards to outstanding 4-H'ers in their project work for this year will be presented by Johanna Magaha and E. Rankin Lusby, County 4-H Agents.

Parents and friends of 4-H are invited to attend the Achievement Night program. This is considered one of the most important events for 4-H club members because it shows the work and the rewards of the 4-H'ers in the entire county for this year's activities, according to E. Rankin Lusby, Assistant County Agent.

Democrats Win In Nation-wide Tests

In Ohio they toppled Sen. John W. Bricker, Republican stalwart. Also defeated were George W. Malone, Nevada; Arthur V. Watkins, Utah; and Edward J. Thye, Minnesota. Republican Sen. Barry Goldwater, Arizona, was re-elected. Republicans also sent Rep. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania and Kenneth B. Keating of New York to the Senate to replace retiring GOP members.

The Democrats had clinched 61 seats in the New Congress, 11 more than the majority of 50 required for control. It also represented a gain of 12 seats over the 49 the Democrats held in the 85th Congress—gains made in California, Connecticut, Indiana, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Nevada, New Jersey, Ohio, Utah and two in West Virginia.

Efforts to pass so-called right to work laws were beaten in five of six states. Kansas voters approved a law guaranteeing workers the right to work without having to join a union.

Top Battles Bring Switch In Voters

Republican Senator J. Glenn Beall was an outstanding favorite in Tuesday's voting, while Democratic candidate J. Millard Tawes came out on top in a contest which saw voters switching parties rather frequently.

Voters here gave slimmer majorities to DeWitt S. Hyde, Republican candidate for re-election to Congress, and for the other Republican candidates for state offices.

Beall had more than an 1,800 majority over D'Alesandro while Tawes topped Devereux by almost five hundred votes. Derr had a 400 majority over Goldstein while Wallace held a 360 lead over Sybert.

Hyde's majority in the county was over 800.

Albert Ringer, instructor of mathematics at Southern High school, will be the speaker at the next meeting of the American Association of University Women, to be held Monday night, November 10, at the home of Mrs. Mabel Brock, Mt. Lake Park.

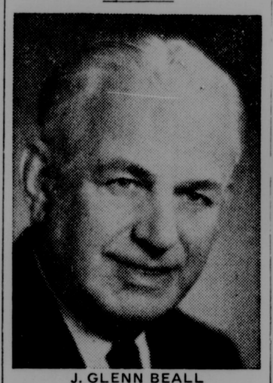
Mrs. Brock, president of the group, announced that the Cumberland branch had issued an invitation to the Garrett branch to join them for a tour through the Luke paper mill on Wednesday, November 19, at 7:15.

Five Democrats Gain Top County Posts

Beall Survives Democratic Tide



J. GLENN BEALL

STATE WINNER—U.S. Senator J. Glenn Beall won re-election to the Senate Tuesday in a close race which found the Sixth District furnishing him his victory margin.

As Democratic candidates swept the governorship for the first time since 1950 and all seven House seats for the first time since 1940, Beall won re-election by dealing Democrat Thomas D'Alesandro his first defeat in 24 political contests.

Tawes, state comproller who had spent most of his 64 years in the political shadows, emerged as the new governor by defeating James P. Devereux. The Republicans also suffered startling reverses in the General Assembly. The Democrats upped their margin from 21-8 to 26-3 in the State Senate and from 98-25 to 116-7 in the House of Delegates.

They also gave Louis L. Goldstein a big margin over Republican John A. Derr for State comptroller and re-elected Atty. Gen. C. Ferdinand Sybert over Republican Robert A. Wallace. Goldstein got 419,838 and Derr 279,414. Sybert got 453,517 and Wallace 230,605.

Returns from all the state's 1,340 polling places gave 379,295 votes to Beall who had campaigned as a firm supporter of President Eisenhower's legislative program, to 365,934 for D'Alesandro. For governor Tawes had 482,114 and Devereux 276,901.

D'Alesandro registered an early lead on the basis of returns from his Baltimore stronghold but this margin was dissipated in the counties. The mayor piled up a 31,000 vote margin in the city and took nine counties. Beall offset this by capturing 14 counties. He polled an 18,000 vote margin in Baltimore county. Other sizeable gains include more than 5,000 each in Frederick and Montgomery, more than 6,000 in Allegany, 4,000 each in Washington and Arundel, and 1819 in Garrett.

This Week's Weather

The week's weather has included some rain, some frosty mornings, but generally mild weather. As a result of some rain last night the temperature dropped today and indications were that it would be some cooler over the approaching week-end.

Farm Bureau Calls For Economy Trend

Directors and several interested members of the Garrett County Farm Bureau took a stand for economy in government last Wednesday evening by passing a resolution that will be presented to the Maryland Farm Bureau for consideration.

The resolution declared: "We strongly recommend that every reasonable measure of economy be employed by our national government; that waste be reduced; that conflicting programs be eliminated and necessary reductions be made which will result in balancing the National Budget."

Local Farm Bureau members said the resolution would be considered by the Board of Directors of the Maryland Farm Bureau and would likely be incorporated in the resolutions of the National Farm Bureau at its annual convention in Boston December 7 to 12.

Problems of importance in state and county affairs will be discussed and resolutions prepared for the Maryland Farm Bureau meeting in Baltimore January 9 and 10, by the directors and members of the county organization at another session at Northern High school on Wednesday, November 26, at 8 p. m.

Two Men Released

Two men who were held for several days in the county jail for questioning in the recent robbery of stores in Bittinger, were released this week, according to Sheriff James E. Frantz.

The establishments were Buckel's store and Brenneman's store where a quantity of clothing, money, a radio and other items were taken.

Another breaking and entering occurred last night or early this morning at the Glotfelty restaurant on Second street, Oakland. Entrance to the store was gained by going through a wareroom and cutting a hole in a celotex wall. No money was obtained and owners were still trying to determine this morning just what had been taken.

Firemen Answer Alarm

Deer Park firemen were called to Altamont on Saturday, November 1, at 12:15 p. m., where a box car on an eastbound fast freight train was believed to be on fire.

Investigation revealed smoke to be coming from a Diesel engine that operated a regfrigeration unit within the car. No damage resulted.

Leave For United Nations

They will join with a group of some 400 in Baltimore and continue to New York by rail. Accompanying the group are Mrs. Floyd Carson, instructor at Northern, and Mrs. James Hutchinson and William Watson, of Southern.

Foley Wins Over Hyde by 4,480

John R. Foley was elected to Congress from the Sixth District in Tuesday's voting, the first democrat to represent the district in sixteen years. Not since Mrs. Katherine E. Byron was elected in 1941 to fill the vacancy created by the death of her husband, William D. Byron, has there been a Democratic Sixth District congressman. Mrs. Bryon was succeeded by J. Glenn Beall who served five two-year terms.

After Beall came DeWitt S. Hyde who was defeated by Foley Tuesday by a margin of 4,480 votes, according to complete but unofficial returns. Foley, a labor lawyer from Montgomery county, carried two of the five counties in his district and compiled 78,382 votes to 73,902 for Hyde. He was victorious in Montgomery and Washington counties. Snow Fences Being Erected in County

Crews of the State Roads Commission and the County Roads department have been at work the past two weeks or more erecting snow fences.

All of the snow-fighting equipment used to keep highways open this winter will be ready for action by the middle of the month.

Erecting the snow fences is a major task. The State Roads crews are erecting 283,025 feet of snow fences to help keep 158 miles of highway open to traffic. The County Roads department is erecting some 40 or 50 miles of snow fence in an effort to keep its 680 miles of county roads open.

Salt and cinders, major weapons against ice and snow are stored at strategic points along the highways or in warehouses. G. Bates Chaires, district engineer, said the State Roads commission would use a lot of salt and calcium chloride again this year.

Last year the SRC used 842 tons of salt to keep Garrett County roads open. Some 5,300 cubic yards of sand and cinders were used, chiefly on steep portions of the highways.

Bernard I. Gonder Defeats Clifford Friend For Senate

Voters Name Two Democrats Each To Offices Of County Commissioner And House Of Delegates

Reversing a tradition of long standing the voters on Tuesday elected five Democratic candidates to office. It was the first time since the 1920's that a Democratic County Commissioner had been elected, and the first time in history that Garrett county elected Democratic members to the House of Delegates.

Bernard I. Gonder, Sr., of Oakland, was elected to the State Senate on the Democratic ticket, defeating the incumbent, Senator Clifford Friend. Mr. Gonder had the endorsement of the Independent Republican League of Garrett county and also the endorsement of The Republican newspaper. He defeated Mr. Friend, of Accident, 3,107 to 2,830 in unofficial returns.

Elected to the House of Delegates were two Democrats, Elbert Buckel, Bittinger, and Leslie E. Savage, Friendsville; and one Republican, Elza Bray, of Oakland. Incumbents Kermit Glotfelty and Harry Edwards were both defeated.

The Democrats also obtained a majority on the Board of County Commissioners, electing Carl Schell, Kitzmiller, and Elra Garletts, Friendsville. The third Commissioner to be elected was Fred Glotfelty, of Oakland. Republican. Defeated for County Commissioner were J. Edward Helbig, Stewart Stahl and Harvey B. Sines.

The county still remains almost two to one Republican but it was evident as early returns were received that many Republicans were crossing party lines. The Democratic party was well organized for the battle and it was also apparent that a greater percentage of the Democratic voters went to the polls than did their Republican voting opponents. There was a 65 to 70 percent total vote in the county. The largest number of votes cast was in the State Senate race where 5,937 votes were cast.

In the balance of the contests Republicans were elected. W. Dwight Stover won out over Stuart F. Hamill, Jr., for State's Attorney, while James E. Frantz won over Ronald W. Guard for sheriff.

Several Republican candidates were unopposed. They were Joseph H. Welch, for treasurer; Mrs. Vernie R. Smouse, for Register of Wills; Richard L. Davis, clerk of the Circuit court; F. R. Corliss, Jr., county surveyor; Truman C. Bittinger, Charles F. Hammond and Roy C. Turney, judges of the Orphans' Court.

Mr. Gonder served in the Senate upon one other occasion for a four-year term. At that time he was defeated in his bid for election by a one-vote margin, being defeated by Neil C. Fraley. Mr. Friend also had served previous terms in the Senate in addition to his term during the past four years.

Elected Senator

Bernard I. Gonder was elected State Senator for Garrett County in Tuesday's balloting. A Democrat, Mr. Gonder succeeds Clifford Friend, Accident. The Senator-elect had held this position from 1942 until 1946.

Injured in Wreck

Spencer Graham sustained a compound fracture of the right shoulder, several broken ribs and possibly other injuries when he crashed into truck that was turning off the highway at King's Hill, about three miles north of town, yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Graham is a patient in Garrett County Memorial hospital in Oakland where he is resting comfortably. More X-rays were scheduled for today. Tfc. Robert Henline, of the State Police, is investigating.

Garage Is Robbed

The service station and garage of Harvey Gortner at Morgantown was robbed last Thursday night. Mr. Gortner recently sold his garage in Grantsville and moved to Morgantown where he secured another garage business.

Over $5,000 in cash and checks were stolen. Officers are investigating but thus far no arrests have been made.

Two Deer Slain On Season's First Day

Two deer were slain by bow hunters in the county last Saturday, first day of the special 12-day season. Both deer were checked at the LaVale barracks near Cumberland and were bagged by Bill Means and William D. Evans, both Frostburg.

Means got an 85-pound doe on Meadow Mountain while Evans brought down a 95-pound button buck on Keyser Ridge.

This is the first year for the special bow and arrow season in the county. The season will end Friday, November 14. *

Friday was the final day of the wild turkey and squirrel hunting season in Maryland. The rabbit, quail and grouse season will open Saturday, November 15, and will be suspended during the six-day gunning season for deer, December 1 to 6; and will resume Monday, December 8 and continue through January 5.

Deer of either sex may be taken during the special bow and arrow season but archers and gunners may slay only male deer during the six-day season in December.

Joseph A. Minke, regional game warden, said that extension of the small game season into the new year had brought inquiries regarding hunting licenses. New licenses are not required because present ones cover the period July 1, 1958 through June 30, 1959.

Letter to the Editor

To the Editor of The Republican:

I wish again through the courtesy of your paper to commend the school children and older boys and girls of the Friendsville community for their excellent behavior during the celebration of the Hallowe'en season. For the sixth consecutive year we had few if any examples of celebrating in the wrong manner. Our youth are often criticized for being wrong and seldom commended for being right. As an adult member of the Friendsville community I would like our boys and girls to know that the adults are especially proud of their record of good Hallowe'en behavior.

Sincerely yours,
Merle D. Frantz

Amish Security And Amish Freedom . . .

The Amish people, a Mennonite sect, have been here for a very long time. To most of us, the Amish are a quaint group whom we see now and then in the newsreels or The National Geographic driving their horses and buggies slowly to and from farm and marketplace. The men are all bearded and the women all bonneted.

But to their neighbors, the Amish are a law-abiding, God-fearing, industrious farm people who raise their children to respect their elders and to assume a responsibility for their relatives too old to work. In many ways, their way of life might be a pattern the rest of us would do well to follow.

But the Amish are now law-breakers, because America, in its emphasis on security, has transgressed a freedom they hold to be paramount. Recently, an auctioneer in Canton, O., sold off livestock seized from Amish farmers by the U. S. Government because the Amishmen had refused to pay the Old Age and Survivors Insurance System levies.

The tax, they say, is against their religion. To pay the tax is to admit that the Government has a responsibility for aged Amish, and to admit that is to deny their own responsibility and thus one of their strictest religious precepts. The records in the two counties where the Government seized 28 head of livestock from 15 Amish farmers and cash assets of 50 others show that no Amishman had ever sought public assistance of any kind.

Has the emphasis on security touched only the Amish? No; farmers are fined for growing wheat without a Government say-so because other farmers want it that way in their search for security; Congress has permitted the labor law to be so written that men can be forced to join a labor union in order to hold a job.

The laws that require these things are not, it should be remembered, laws enacted to prevent evil or wrongdoing. It is not wrong, we think, for a man to have the freedom to work without having to join any association of other men in order to do so. It is not wrong for a farmer to grow wheat on his own farm for his own use. It is not wrong for the Amish to reject the idea of Government responsibility for their own aged members.

To the contrary. What is wrong is the growing emphasis in our society on security. The wrong comes about when, in the name of the alleged greater good of all, collective security is permitted to disregard or destroy individual rights or beliefs or freedoms.

Furthermore, it wrongs more than the individual. For as one man's freedom is lost, freedom for all men is diminished as well. And though security is one of man's highest aspirations, perhaps we had better remember that security without freedom is history's bitterest jest. And there is a point where over-emphasis on one can slowly, but inexorably, destroy the other.

Teachers College Plans Summer Graduate Work

The administration of Frostburg State Teachers College has begun making plans for a second summer school to open at the College about June 22, 1959, according to R. Bowen Hardesty, President.

State Teachers College reached the status of a graduate school last summer when the first courses were offered leading to a Master of Education degree.

It is anticipated that the enrollment, both graduate and undergraduate may treble over last summer, and more courses are to be offered.

A catalogue is being prepared for circulation not only in Western Maryland, but also throughout the State.

President Hardesty also stated that some consideration is being given the idea of offering a limited number of courses during the second semester of the academic year at 5 to 6 p. m., or 7 to 10 p. m., each weekday, or on Saturday from 9 o'clock to 12 noon.

Public school teachers interested are asked to communicate with Mr. Ivan C. Diehl, Dean of instruction, to express their interest and preferences.

Children's BIBLE STORY

BY S. A. KAPLAN
Assisted by Mrs. Kaplan

MOSES AND THE BURNING BUSH

(This story is based on Exodus 3 and 4)

HELLO BOYS AND GIRLS! Are you as good as your word? Can your mother and dad, and your friends always depend upon you to keep your promises? You probably have already found out that there are some folks whose word doesn't mean very much. Very disappointing, you say, and so it is. Well, it is good to know that there is One, Who never, NEVER fails to keep His promises to us as they are recorded in the Bible, and that one is God.

Take, for exampie, the promise God made to Abraham--that He would deliver the Israelites from their Egyptian bondage. When the time came, we read that, "the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up unto God... and God...remembered His covenant, (or promise), with Abraham." And do you remember whom God appointed to deliver them? Yes, it was Moses! And how many soldiers do you suppose Moses had at his command? Not one! In fact, all he was permitted to carry with him was a stick, or "rod," as the Bible calls it. And what good was that rod to Moses? We shall see.

One day as Moses led his flock to Horeb, "the mountain of God," he saw a blazing bush that burned and burned, but the fire did not consume the bush. Curious to learn the cause of this great wonder, Moses said: "I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt", when suddenly he heard a voice coming out of the bush saying: "Put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground..I am the God of Abraham..I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt...Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt."

But Moses offered all kinds of excuses. For one thing, he dared not undertake this great task all by himself, for you see, Moses had become the meekest man in all the earth. Quite a change from what he used to be, wasn't it? And what made the difference? Think hard. Yes, it was forty long years of patient, loving care of his father-in-law's sheep. Then, too, Moses was afraid that the Israelites would not believe that God had appointed him to be their deliverer. It was then that God said to Moses: "What is that in thine hand? And he said, A rod. And he said, Cast it on the ground." And what do you suppose happened? "It became a serpent, and Moses fled from before it." Then God asked him to take hold of it by the tail, and lo, and behold, it became a rod again! Next, God asked Moses to put his hand in his bosom and when he took it out, it was "leprous as snow." He was told to put his hand in again, and it was instantly healed! Wasn't God good to encourage Moses by all these miracles? Shortly after, God sent Moses and his brother Aaron to call on Pharaoh who was determined to enslave the Israelites forever. But God's word, and Moses' rod were mightier than Pharaoh and all his great army, as you will see from the next story. No, God will never, NEVER fail us, or go back on His word. Don't you think, boys and girls, that such a God merits our love, devotion, and complete trust and confidence?

Northern High School's Huskies wound up their first winless season Friday afternoon of last week by battling the Keyser High school junior varsity gridders to a scoreless tie at the Cove school.

Both teams had scoring opportunities but muffed them as a result of fumbles.

Keyser appeared to be headed for a touchdown in the second period but fumbled away its chances after advancing to the Huskie two-yard mark.

This was the fourth Northern High school team coached by Denver Mitchell and his first loser. The Huskies started football in 1955 and turned in a 2-1-1 record. In 1956 the team won six. Last year's record was 6-2.

The team played seven games this season, losing six and gaining one tie.

Training Exercise Set For Ground Observer Aides

The Canton Air Defense Filter Center, (30th Air Division), will conduct a four hour training Exercise on Nov. 8th., from 8:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon EST, with all Ground Observer Corps observation posts in Garrett County participating.

The purpose of this execrise is to provide proficiency training in surveillance of low flying aircraft and in reporting procedures.

Monthly exercises of this kind keep the Air Force informed as to the state of operational readiness within its GOC and insure efficient performance in the event of an emergency by GOC in detecting and reporting all "threat" type aircraft. Prior to Dec 15, 1956, posts were manned around the clock; now however, GOC posts in this area are manned during training periods only. Between exercises, the civilian Volunteers in this Air Force auxiliary are given a rest. Who serve, do so on a non-pay status.

Tree Farmer Given Recognition At Meeting

A Tree Farm sign and certificate of membership in the industry-operated American Tree Farm System in recognition of good forest management were presented today to Everett C. Weitzell of Alexandria, Va., at a recent meeting of the Oakland Rotary Club.

Mr. Weitzell won the award by managing his 990 acres of woodland near Oakland for the continuous production of wood harvests while protecting the trees from fire, insects and destructive grazing in accordance with Tree Farm standards.

In making the award, Mr. David W. Sowers, Jr., Chairman, Maryland Tree Farm Committee, congratulated Mr. Weitzell for setting a high example in the proper use of woodlands. "Trees are a crop that can be grown again and again on the same land," Mr. Sowers said. "That is what Mr. Weitzell is doing, and that is what more and more landowners must do if we are to meet our country's growing demand for forest products."

He urged others landowners in the area to contact him for advice on how they can become Tree Farmers.

The nationwide American Tree Farm System, sponsored by American Forest Products Industries, Inc., now has a total of 12,531 units covering 46,948,755 acres of forest land growing wood for man's use today and tomorrow. In this state, where there are now 22 Tree Farms with a total acreage of 13,297, the program is conducted by the Maryland Forest Industries Committee with the cooperation of the Department of Forests and Parks, The Forest Conservancy District Boards, and the Agricutural Extension Service.

Veterans' Day

To those who so bravely defended our cause on land, sea and in the air . . . we pause today to pay honored tribute, so richly deserved.

May each of us firmly resolve ever to maintain America's free way of life for which they fought.

The GARRETT NATIONAL BANK IN OAKLAND

120 Attend Woodmen Function Last Week

Some 120 persons attended the annual get-together and supper of the Woodmen of the World Camp No. 45, of Friendsville, on Thursday evening, October 23, at the school cafeteria.

Principal address was made by Carl Cain, Fairmont, W. Va., a head consul of the organization. He spoke on woodcraft and explained the advantages of the social side of the group.

Arthur Friend, head consul at Crellin, presented 25-year pins to six members. Receiving them were Arthur Custer, Tarleton Humberson, Reuben Friend, Stanton Friend, John Williams, and Elra Garletts. Another member, Abe Frazee, was eligible but was not present.

OUTSTANDING W. O. W.—Cecil W. Schroyer, right, termed the most outstanding Woodmen of the World member at Friendsville, was presented with a plaque at the group's annual dinner meeting at Friendsville on October 23. His wife also received a manicuring set. The awards were presented by Henry Sheppert, state manager.

A Woodmen plaque was presented by Henry Sheppert, Charleston, W. Va., state manager, to Cecil W. Schroyer, camp secretary, as the most outstanding member of 1957. He also presented a manicuring set to his wife.

Merle Frantz served as toastmaster. The meal was served by the ladies of the Methodist WSCS.

The Friendsville camp still has on its roster two of the original charter members who have held membership for 44 years. They are Arthur Custer, Friendsville; and Tarleton Humberson, Hazelton, W. Va.

Ernest F. Savage is present consul commander.

The keel of a nuclear-powered ballistic missile submarine was laid in the U. S. Navy yard, biggest project in its history.

Jury Deadlocked In Blain Frantz Case

Blain Frantz, 52-year-old lumber and cattle dealer, of Friendsville, was released under $1,000 bail last Friday when a federal court jury was unable to reach a decision on charges he evaded $25,240 in income taxes.

The jury was dismissed by Judge R. Dorsey Watkins in Baltimore after it reported it was deadlocked following three hours deliberation. No date was set for retrial of the case.

Frantz denied on the witness stand that he tried to hide assets by putting them in a Bruceton Mills, W. Va., bank.

His wife, Iva, had testified she signed all checks for his business but did not give all the financial records to the bookkeeper who prepared Frantz's tax returns.

Another witness, D. E. Ringer, testified that he was convinced Frantz didn't have sufficient records to know whether his business ventures were operating at a profit or loss. Ringer, a wholesale gasoline dealer, said Frantz's monthly account with him sometimes reached $2,500.

Terra Alta Nips Southern High 7-6

A substitute tackle's recovery of a Southern High fumble set up the tying touchdown and a substitute end kicked the winning point as Terra Alta nipped Southern High 7 to 6 last Friday afternoon in the final game of the season.

First downs were 7 to 6 in favor of Terra Alta but the Toppers were outrushed by the Highlanders 216 yards to 122. The Hilltoppers connected for 63 yards through the air to Southern's 52 yards.

Southern took a 6-0 lead early in the third period when Terry Colaw broke off tackle and scampered 80 yards to paydirt. The extra point attempt was no good.

Gold Emblem Award Presented To F. F. A.

The Cove Chapter of the Future Farmers of America has been awarded the coveted Gold Emblem Award for the second consecutive year. This is the highest national recognition that can be given to any F. F. A. Chapter.

A Gold Plaque was presented the Cove Chapter last year. A Gold Emblem in miniature for attachment to the Plaque was given to members of the Cove Chapter attending the National F. F. A. Convention held at Kansas City, Missouri recently. Members attending the convention were Royce Durst, Joe Friend, and Lawrence Faith, Advisor.

The National Chapter Award is designed to give recognition to Chapters of the F. F. A. in accomplishing outstanding programs of activities and in providing valuable education experiences for the entire membership.

Maryland had two chapters to be honored.

The contest period covered was from July 1, 1957 to June 30, 1958. The chapter officers during this time were President John Hummel; Vice President Roy Schlossnagle; Secretary Richard Sisler; Treasurer Troy Wilburn; Reporters Roger Lohr and Ronald Baker; Sentinels Sam Friend and James Kisner.

The Award is designed to measure accomplishments in the following educational fields: supervised farming, cooperation, community service, leadership, earnings, savings, and investments, conduct of meetings, scholarship, recreation, and public relations.

By DICK CASTILOW

Despite the fact that there was a good deal going on elsewhere in the community, there were quite a few at Teen Age Club last Friday night. We were all pleased to welcome a small group from Northern. Mr. Tichnell gave them some cards to hand out and they promised to talk it up down their way. What do we have to say about their co-operations? Good deal; thanks; and come again.

This is to the parents: We would appreciate your co-operation a bit for this season. We have much that must be done and a few people to do it. Committees have been proposed, they would consist of members and an adult. On the subject of chaperons there is much to be said. Lately we have had a few more parents coming to our club, but yet there are quite a few of the parents we miss seeing. We ask only that you all come up but once, if you are not pleased there is nothing under the sun would force you to, but again in the same thought, we are sure that once you come you will see our needs and return to give us a hand.

If there are any new teen agers in the area, Teen Club is a very good place to get acquainted.

By the way the Southern majorettes are sponsoring the annual Harvest Rustle on the eighth. There are great expectations for this gala affair. The Royales, that new rock'n roll band, will be setting the pace.

If anyone has any information for teens call 4-2684.

The nations three top tunes by the Billboard survey are: "It's All In The Game" with Tommy Edwards, "It's only make Believe" by Canway Twitty and Cozy Coles "Topsy (part II)."

Bob Brinker, now spins the platters at the Teen Club's record hops, was born in Cumberland on the 4th of July, 1938.

Bob's interest in radio was kindled while he was attending La Salle High School. A friend of his, working for WTBO, did a night bit on that station so Bob started giving him a hand. This consisted of pulling records and doing two of the characters he does so well, "Hedy La Bo Bo, " and "Lord Privington" (Privy for short).

Bob has come into contact with some of the rockinest stars in the business. Danny Rapp of Danny and the Juniors, Antoin Dominoe, Mickey and Sylvia, and the Sparkletones are among this group.

I was glad to hear that the college kids were keeping up on the teens through Teen Corner.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	John	17	21-26
Monday	Matthew	18	20
Tuesday	Luke	24	13-32
Wednesday	Acts	2	42-47
Thursday	Acts	20	28-35
Friday	Mark	10	42-45
Saturday	Romans	15	1-7

It was Sunday morning. I had stopped only long enough on my journey for an hour of worship. The church was almost filled when I slipped into my seat. I knew no one. Yet between me and these worshipers there was a bond of fellowship. I bowed my head in worship of our Lord.

Then I thought of those in distant lands who must worship the Christ amidst ridicule and persecution. They too were my brethren and I prayed for them.

Through the church rang the triumphant notes of the opening hymn "Faith of our Fathers, Living Still."

My heart and my voice sang together as I remembered those of old who had labored and died that the Church might live. With fellow Christians, whom I did not know, I sang my promise:

"Faith of our fathers, holy faith
We will be true to thee till death."

If only everyone knew the joy and satisfaction that my faith brings to me! Start attending the services of the Church—and your life too will be enriched by that bond of Christian fellowship that has sustained millions through the centuries.

Salt and Light

Lesson for November 9, 1958

WHAT are the marks of a Christian? It is true, only God sees the heart. "The Lord knoweth them that are his," as the Old Testament says. But we are not God. Have we any way of telling whether a person is a Christian or not? A farmer or a professor of agriculture may be able to tell wheat from rye while it is standing in the field; some city slickers can't do that. But even a person who never set foot off the sidewalks of New York, who wouldn't know either a wheat field or a rye field from a clover patch, knows wheat bread from rye bread.

Dr. Foreman

Jesus put it in a nutshell. "By their fruits ye shall know them," he said. A Christian has distinguishing features, he has fruits, he has "marks" by which he may be known.

Salt of the Earth

Talking not about, but to, his followers, Jesus said to them, "You are the salt of the earth." This is one of the marks of a Christian, it was a mark of Jesus. The Master's way of putting things is always direct, simple, poetic. We can say poetic because Jesus has a preference for figures of speech which can convey truth with more force than if he spelled everything out in long and difficult sentences. "You are the salt of the earth"—there it is in words of one syllable.

Salt is an essential, not a luxury. In Jesus' time and even today it is used as a preservative. It keeps things from going bad. There is no substitute for it. So the Christian, wherever he is, in whatever situation, ought to be the kind of person who keeps things from going bad. Every human situation carries in it the germs of evil, and without the saving salt of true Christians, the situation will mold and ferment and grow worse. When a human problem is to be solved, one mark of the Christian is that he is not part of the problem, he is part of the answer.

Light of the World

Jesus did not mind mixing metaphors. He loved parables, and a metaphor is just a one-phrase or one-word parable. He would make one point with one parable or figure of speech, and then make his next point with another. So he gives us another one-syllable word-picture of what Christians should be like. "You are the light of the world," he said. That tells us a great deal.

This world is a dark place. Jesus knew that. He was no Pollyanna, thinking the answer to everything is just to keep smiling. Tears often fit better than smiles, in this world. But still the world can be brighter than it is. Christians sometimes forget this. We sit around and grumble because the world is so dark. Who turned off the lights? Why, says Jesus, YOU are the light of the world. It's not your business to complain of the dark, it is your business to shine.

There are two opposite faults in lighting, as every one who has been to church knows. One is to put the lights so they shine in everybody's eye. A glaring light doesn't help the eyes, it hurts them. On the other hand, lights can be so few or so weak that they only "make the darkness visible." A very dim light may be more exasperating than no light at all.

Needed Now

Salt and light were already pretty old-fashioned when Jesus was born. But now, almost 2,000 years after Christ, salt and light, older than ever, are just as necessary as they always were. Some things Jesus said about Christians are hard to understand. But this is easy even for children to understand. Christians, salt-and-light Christians are never out of date. Science does not get rid of our need for them. Suppose the dreams of the Buck Rogers crowd come true, as indeed some of them may in this age of space—suppose that we can extend the borders of the human race on out to Mars and who knows where next? Salt and light will be needed out yonder. And people will be needed there to be the salt and light of the pioneers.

Don't envy communities with salt-and-light people in them. Make your own community enviable—be one!

What's Ahead. . . .

If we think we have population problems now in the United States, look ahead 22 years. In 1980, the government predicts, our nation is going to have to accommodate another 100 million people. If we think things are crowded with 175,000,000 population—we'll have 272,600,000 then. This is a real test for our planners and our political and business leaders. It's a test for all our citizens.

After seeing those statistics this week we wondered about the future of Garrett county in all of this increase. Have we finally stopped the downward motion insofar as our population exodus is concerned? A story two weeks ago pointed out that our school population had increased slightly over the past few years. Is this because of a re-awakening in the county to our potentialities? Are more people able to remain here and make a livelihood?

We now have recreation possibilities not only for ten weeks in the summer, but also for twelve to fifteen weeks in the winter. We still have our lumber, coal and farming resources. Our cool weather crops show promise. Our taxable basis mounts as more and more people seek Garrett county for summer living. We have industry in Grantsville, Jennings and Oakland. If our water supply can be improved, there will be expansion of industry in Oakland.

We certainly hope that some of this increase in population will find its way to Garrett county and make our economy more stable. We believe the county is showing improvement in this respect. May it continue to improve at a steady but moderate gait.

Assault Brings Two-Year Term

An assault upon a 74-year old man at Mt. Lake Park brought a sentence of two years in the House of Correction to Jack Hardesty, about 22 years of age, who resides in the Bethlehem section.

Two other Hardesty men, Donald and William Henry, who were with the third, were arrested at the time and their subsequent action in the jail brought charges against them of malicious destruction of property. They kicked a gas stove to pieces, according to James E. Frantz, sheriff, who preferred the charges.

According to information furnished the State's Attorney, Hardesty, driving his mother's automobile, last Thursday afternoon narrowly missed Orval Bittinger at an intersection. A moment later Bittinger was crowded off the road by the Hardesty machine and Jack Hardesty got out of his automobile and started for Mr. Bittinger. William Henry attempted to restrain him but he assaulted Mr. Bittinger, breaking his nose and causing other injuries.

At a hearing before Trial Magistrate Boyd Sanders, Sr., on Saturday moring they pleaded guilty to the charges. Jack Hardesty received his two year sentence to the House of Correction. Donald and William Henry each received one year suspended sentences to the House of Correction, their release depending upon their good behavior and upon payment of the cost of the gas stove in the amount of $20.

William Henry Hardesty was fined $25 and costs on a charge of reckless driving, which was paid. A charge of driving under the influence of alcoholic beverage was dismissed because of lack of evidence.

Mr. Bittinger was treated at the Garrett County Memorial hospital.

Mr. Hawkins suggested that the operators make their own inspection prior to the dates listed so that each bus is in first class condition and will have no difficulty in passing the inspection.

All three girls reside in the Grantsville area.

Official Count Confirms First Election Tally

The official canvass of the November 4 election changed the total votes of candidates but made no real difference in the outcome which saw five Garrett County Democrats elected to public office.

The addition of some thirty-eight absentee votes to the 6,445 votes cast at the polls on election day made the totals of all candidates different. In addition to the absentee votes there were several minor changes in the unofficial figures.

Fred Glotfelty, County Commissioner aspirant, picked up 100 votes in one precinct total which made him high man on the Commissioner ticket. DeWitt Hyde also picked up 100 votes but this made no difference in the final analysis in the district. Otherwise there was a difference of ten in one instance, five in another, and one or two in several others.

U. S. Senator J. Glenn Beall added to his already healthy margin over Baltimore Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro when he received 27 votes out of the 30 cast by absentee voting. All Republicans fared well in this group except Senator Friend. He and Bernard I. Gonder each received 19 votes.

The canvass revealed that Lester White, a clerk in the office of Richard L. Davis, clerk of the Circuit court, received three write-in votes for the office of treasurer and register of wills.

For U. S. Senator—J. Glenn Beall, 3,731; Thomas D'Alesandro, 1,877; For Governor, —James Patrick Devereux, 2,457; J. Millard Tawes, 2,936; For Comptroller, John A. Derr, 2,586; Louis Goldstein, 2,160; For Attorney General, Robert A. Wallace, 2,523; C. Ferdinand Sybert, 2,144; For Congress, DeWitt S. Hyde, 3,173; John Foley, 2,252; For Judge, Court of Appeals, Steadman Prescott, 607; For State Senate, Clifford Friend, 2,859; Bernard I. FFBL Winner To Be Named Friday At Annual Dinner

Some two hundred persons will gather at Southern High school cafeteria on Friday evening for the eleventh annual Farming for Better Living banquet. Dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock.

The program this year will vary somewhat from previous affairs. Instead of a principal speaker the FFBL council will present a slide story of all participating members, showing the activities of the members on their farms and carrying out their projects.

For the sixth consecutive year there has been 100 percent completion in the program. Seventy-two members are enrolled and all of them completed their project booklets. For this achievement they will receive $25 for use of the 4-H clubs of the county.

A county winner has been selected and will be announced the night of the dinner. S. T. Naylor, chairman of the FFBL council, will be in charge of the program. Mrs. Ruth Brown will lead the group singing and present several musical numbers by members of her senior chorus. There will be brief remarks by L. Bush Swisher, of Morgantown, W. Va., project director. The county winner will compete later this fall for regional honors.

Some 125 merchants and other business people of the community will contribute prizes to the farm enrollees attending the dinner. Lowell Loomis and Howard C. Riggs will be in charge of awarding of the prizes. Assisting them will be Nordeck Shaifer, Beeson Snyder, Bill Nace, Ward Livengood, Howard White, Tom Cain, Maurice Brookhart and Mrs. W. W. DeWitt.

Many Parents Visit Schools During Week

A large number of parents and interested patrons were reported to have visited the county schools during the past several days in observance of American Education Week. Parents are invited to visit the schools at any time but special effort was made to have as many as possible to come to the schools during American Education Week.

Main purpose of the special visitation was to have parents share with their children a day's experience in school, observing the child, the teacher and the program of instruction. In some schools luncheons were served for various groups. In others special assemblies and after-school teas were held. Mostly however, emphasis was on a routine school day.

Principals reported that more than the usual enthusiasm was expressed by many parents who visited the schools. Principals and teachers said they felt that more genuine interest exists today on the part of parents in the quality of schools provided for their children.

Firemen Answer Alarm

Oakland firemen were called this morning to the home of Mrs. J. S. Elliott in Mt. Lake Park after the flue had become ignited.

The new addition at the school contains a room forty by forty feet and a corridor enclosing the walkway from the main building to the shop building. The room is lighted with skydomes and windows. It contains storage space for instruments and uniforms, a practice room and a room with permanent risers designed for band use.

Christmas Savings Checks Will Total $45,000 This Year

Christmas Savings club checks from the two Oakland banks will total more than $45,000 this year, a figure similar to that of the previous year, it was announced.

Departing from the usual procedure these checks are being mailed out to depositors this week instead of waiting until December 1. George Littman, cashier of the First National Bank, said that a number of people had been making inquiries about the checks. Many people, he felt, were learning to do their Christmas shopping and needed the funds earlier.

The money will be sent to more than 450 depositors of the First National Bank and the Garrett National Bank in Oakland.

Both banks are planning Christmas clubs for next year and may be started at any time. The first payment will be due when started. Depositors may make as little as 25-cent payments each week. They may be accepted for as much as $10 a week.

Both banks have shown some increase almost every year since the custom started quite a few years ago. Distribution throughout the nation will be over one billion dollars. While most of the money goes for Christmas presents it is also estimated that a percentage will go into savings accounts, insurance premiums and savings bonds. Many club members save for specific purposes, for winter vacations, to pay taxes, to meet insurance installments, to finance home modernization and for tuition for college students.

To Receive Emblems For Draft Board Service

Fifteen-year emblems for uncompensated service to the Draft board for the past fifteen years, are being presented at a special ceremony this afternoon in the draft board offices in the Garrett National Bank building.

The following are eligible to receive the buttons: Judge Neil C. Fraley, chairman, Oakland; Milton E. Pritts, Kitzmiller, draft board members; Dr. E. Irving Baumgartner, medical adviser; and E. Ray Jones, Lewis R. Jones and Stuart F. Hamill, Jr., advisers to registrants, all of Oakland. The latter is local board member as present.

New Commissioners May Assume Duties Early in December

The new Board of County Commissioners may assume their duties early in December, it was determined this week.

If this is done it would be following a procedure practiced over the past two or three elections. The law requires that the annual levy for the ensuing year be laid by January 15 and with all members of the board being new and inexperienced in the procedure, the usual thing is for the new members to sit with the old members at the December meeting to become more accustomed to the activities.

The new members, Fred Glotfelty, Elra Garletts and Carl Schell met for the first time on Tuesday and are planning to meet again on Monday, November 17. There was no discussion as to who might be named president of the Board.

Ordinarily the person receiving the highest number of votes would be the one selected for president the first year. This may not follow this year, since the one receiving the highest number of votes was Fred Glotfelty, while the other two are both Democrats.

All three declared Tuesday they were sure that the Board would work in harmony and that all their problems would be settled amicably and for the best interests of the people.

Glotfelty defeated Harvey Sines 3,009 to 2,160. Elra Garletts, Democrat, defeated Stewart F. Stahl 2,764 to 2,649, while Carl Schell, Democrat, defeated J. Edward Helbig, 2,905 to 2,403.

Glotfelty is a lumber dealer and farmer residing just north of Oakland. Mr. Garletts is a farmer of the Friendsville community and resigned early this year as president of the Garrett County Farm bureau in order to become a candidate for public office.

Mr. Schell is a resident of Kitzmiller and is a certified mine foreman. Mr. Garletts says he is a firm supporter of more and better education for the young people of the county. Mr. Schell was captain of the mine rescue team which won national fame in 1951, and is active in the Kitzmiller fire company. He also declared he was vitally interested in education and in the school program.

The commissioners will succeed H. D. Swartzentruber, Aubrey Brenneman and Ervin A. Roth.

Literacy Campaign For Funds Over Top

Contributions for a literacy campaign being conducted over the past several weeks by the United Council of Church Women have gone well over the top, according to Mrs. Vernie R. Smouse, chairman of world missions. Mrs. Smouse was assisted by Mrs. Earl S. Lee, co-chairman.

The amount of $253.58 was contributed by groups from the following churches: Gortner Union Sunday School, St. Paul's Lutheran, Accident; Loch Lynn United Brethren; Grantsville Mennonite Bible class; St. Paul's Methodist, Oakland; Paradise United Brethren; St. Mark's Lutheran, Oakland; Bethel Methodist, Mt. Lake Park; White Church Methodist; Amish church at Gortner; St. Matthew's Episcopal, Oakland; Meadow Mountain Lutheran; Hoyes Methodist church; Oak Park Church of the Brethren; United Lutheran church at Bittinger; plus individual gifts. Mrs. Smouse said the money had been sent to New York headquarters for use in its literacy field.

She explained the purpose of this missionary enterprise as one to promote the teaching of illiterates to read in more than sixty different countries and provide reading material in many languages and dialects that will be helpful to natives in their agricultural pursuits, health and child care as well as the story of Christianity.

Taken from the list of costs for specified items this sum will provide the period of training necessary for a village worker to qualify as a member of a literacy team, pay his salary for two months, buy "Each-One-Teach-One" primers for one hundred persons and purchase twenty-five sets of basic books for new literates.

"The campaign was extended this year to include more church groups and has been by far the most fruitful of any of our similar endeavors," Mrs. Smouse said. She added that she was more than gratified with the interest shown by church people in the county and their liberal response.

Teacher Association Sets Annual Banquet

Members of the Garrett County Teachers association will have their annual banquet at the Southern High school cafeteria next Wednesday, November 19, at 6:30 o'clock.

New and retired teachers will be guests of the association. All teachers are expected to attend this affair and may bring husbands, wives and friends.

Milson C. Raver, executive secretary of the State Teachers association, will be guest speaker. Raver also is scheduled to meet with the executive board of the association at a meeting Tuesday.

Also speaking briefly will be Miss Jean Mosser, president of the Maryland State Teachers association. Music will be furnished by the music department of both Northern and Southern High schools, under direction of Mrs. Ruth Brown, Mrs. Lucille Sines and Raymond Borrell.

State Tax Rate To Be Less in 1959

The state tax rate for 1959 will be less than for the previous two years, it was revealed by Joseph H. Welch, county treasurer.

Welch said the rate set for 1959 is 13.42 cents per each $100 of assessable property. The rate for 1957 and 1958 was 14.25 cents.

Christmas Candles To Be Sold By Jr. Civic Club

Proceeds from the sale will go toward helping to support the Girl Scout troop, making repairs on the scout hall, contributing $100 to the Christmas clothing fund and providing articles for the "Clothes Closet," a continuing project of the club.

The door to door canvass began this week and will continue for several days. The candles sell for 75 cents to $1.75. Mrs. I. R. Rudy, Jr., chairman of the Ways and Means committee, is in charge of the drive. She is assisted by Mrs. S. R. Pagenhardt and Mrs. Willis Shaffer, other members of that committee.

Kermit Glotfelty Is Injured When Pinned Under Farm Tractor

Kermit S. Glotfelty, well known farmer of the Bittinger community, was seriously injured last Thursday afternoon when he was pinned under a farm tractor which upset.

Mr. Glotfelty sustained two broken shoulders, several broken ribs and an injury to his legs. One leg was pinned under the tractor. He was found a short time later and brought to the Garrett County Memorial hospital in Oakland where he will remain a patient for several weeks.

He was engaged in hauling a load of manure at the time. As he traveled down the roadway near his home the tractor ran over a tire which in some way flipped the machine over.

He is now improving.

Council Discusses Recommendation of Chester Engineers

At a special meeting of the Mayor and Town Council of Oakland last evening the recommendation of the Chester Engineers in regard to augmenting the town's water supply was discussed with a citizens committee.

The Chester Engineers, a Pittsburgh concern, which made an exhaustive survey here several months ago, has recommended that the best source of additional water supply for Oakland was the use of the Big Youghiogheny river. The water would be pumped from the river from a point above where the Little Youghigheny river empties into it, at "88" bridge, about one and one-half miles west of town.

An outlay of some $500,000 was estimated as being necessary to put the plan into operation.

Attending the meeting as members of the Citizen's committee were Wesley Schaible, Irvin Feld, Howard D. Naylor and Earl Zepp. Two members of the committee, Floyd Leighton and Willard Hawkins, were unable to attend.

Lewis R. Jones, city attorney, told them it would be necessary to obtain right of way from the Pennsylvania Electric company and that a bond issue would be necessary.

Plans Approved For Additional School Rooms and Buildings

Plans for additional school buildings and additions were discussed and approved at a meeting of the Board of Education on Tuesday.

Invitations for bids have been advertised for the all-purpose room at the Center street school. Plans and specifications have already been approved by the State Department of Education. The contract is expected to be awarded in December.

There are plans for an extra room at the Yoder school to take care of crowded conditions. This is expected to be completed by September next year.

The board authorized the superintendent, Willard L. Hawkins, to employ the architectural firm of Altman and Altman to draw up plans and specifications for a two-room addition to the Loch Lynn school.

The forthcoming budget also was discussed by board members. The budget which is to be submitted to the County Commissioners will show little increase, if any, over the school budget for the present year, Mr. Hawkins indicated.

Buildings recently accepted by the board include the new Swan Meadow school and the new band room at Southern High.

The board approved plans for summer maintenance and improvements to buildings, all of a minor nature.

Also approved was the appointment of Robert E. Wilson, for an assignment at Northern High, upon graduation from Frostburg State Teachers college in January. Mr. Wilson will replace Miss Bernice Kolb who will be transferred to Accident Elementary. Miss Kolb will replace Miss Lydia Beiler who will be transferred to Yoder school to replace Mrs. Esther Yoder, who has requested maternity leave.

Upon adjournment the board members were guests at a luncheon at the Southern High cafeteria, served by the Home economics department.

Is Your Name WEEKS?

Butler was one of the earliest occupational names to become hereditary as a surname. Of English and Irish usage, it originally was spelled "Boteler" or more properly "Le Boteler" which means "the bottle maker". Subsequently it was applied to the official in charge of the royal cellar, and still later to one who supervised certain governmental affairs.

The Butler family was one of the most prominent in Ireland. Its traditional founder was Theobold Walter who was appointed chief butler of Ireland by King Henry II of England. His decendants took the name of Butler, and the coat-of-arms of the family bore the motto "I Take Things As I Find Them."

Among the high ranking officers who served in the Continental Army during the Revolutionary War was Colonel Zebulon Butler (1731-1795) who commanded the forces at the battle of Wyoming, Pa. He was born in Lyme, Connecticut and died in Wilkes Barre, Pa.

The first census of the United States, taken in 1790 has forty-two listings of persons by the name of Butler who were residents of Maryland and heads of families at that time.

Amos Butler and S. Butler were school trustees of Grantsville District No 3, Garrett County for the year ending May 1882.

Butler County, Nebraska was named for David Butler (1829-1911), the first governor of that state.

William Butler (1759-1821) was a Revolutionary soldier and U. S. congressman from South Carolina. His sons Pierce Mason Butler (1798-1847) and Andrew Pickens Butler (1796-1857) were respectively governor of South Carolina and U. S. senator from that state.

During the couse of World War II, the National Resources Planning Board, wisely looking ahead to the cessation of hostilities, made a proposal of nine articles as a Post-War "Bill of Rights." These articles were reproduced in this column on November 1, 1942, as follows:

1) THE RIGHT TO WORK, usefully and creatively through the productive years.

2) THE RIGHT TO FAIR PAY, adequate to command the necessities and amenities of life in exchange for work, ideas, thrift, and other valuable service.

3) THE RIGHT TO ADEQUATE FOOD, CLOTHING, SHELTER AND MEDICAL CARE.

4) THE RIGHT TO SECURITY, with freedom from fear of old age, want, dependency, sickness, unemployment and accident.

5) THE RIGHT TO LIVE IN A SYSTEM OF FREE ENTERPRISE, free from compulsory labor, irresponsible private power, arbitrary public authority and unregulated monopolies.

6) THE RIGHT TO COME AND GO, TO SPEAK OR TO BE SILENT, free from the spying of secret political police.

7) THE RIGHT TO EQUALITY BEFORE THE LAW, with equal access to justice in fact.

8) THE RIGHT TO EDUCATION, for work, for citizenship, and for personal growth and happiness.

9) THE RIGHT TO REST, recreation and adventure; the opportunity to enjoy life and take part in advancing civilization.

Our comment was that all nine of these "Rights" were most praiseworthy, even though one of them, THE RIGHT TO SECURITY, seemed impossible of attainment — believing that life must always be a struggle, and that government, no matter how paternalistically inclined, cannot guarantee and deliver absolute "SECURITY" to an individual.

We want along enthusiastically with number one, THE RIGHT TO WORK, convinced that with this right firmly established, most of the other rights would automatically follow. We suggested, however, that it should be strengthened by making it read as follows:

"THE RIGHT TO WORK, usefully and creatively through the productive years, each worker on a job of his or her own choosing; and without having to pay a tax or initiation fee for the privilege of obtaining and holding that job."

As this is being written, the voters of six states (California, Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Washington and Ohio) are about to cast ballots on right-to-work proposals. Before this appears in print, the votes will have been counted, and we fervently hope the citizens of all six states will have registered overwhelmingly their disapproval of compulsory union membership.

What has led us to write of this matter of forcing workers to join and pay dues to a union in order to hold a job, is that we listened on Sunday evening, October 26, 1958, to Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, being interviewed on radio's MEET THE PRESS program. It is public knowledge that Mrs. Roosevelt is opposed to the Right To Work law. In recognition of that fact, the lone lady on the panel asked Mrs. Roosevelt if she didn't feel it was unfair to deprive a worker of his job if he refused to join the union.

Mrs. Roosevelt's reply was an emphatic "No." On further questioning, she stated that if the workers wouldn't join the union, then let him go to another job with an employer who had no agreement with a union. We are wondering if Mrs. Roosevelt has really stopped to consider what a hardship this would entail for most workers. Being a great humanitarian, we feel she has not thought the matter through.

Just consider one case. Here is a worker with a certain skill. He owns his home, his several children are in the local elementary and high schools. He has taken an active interest in the affairs of the community and his friends and those of the various members of his family are located in that community.

At this juncture his employer enters into a union contract which demands that he join the union or lose his job. His employer is the only one in the community that can use his particular skill. That means that to follow Mrs. Roosevelt's suggested alternative, he must dispose of his home and move to another community. May we politely ask our former First Lady, if this is not being unfair to this worker, as well as to the members of his family?

Which leads us to repeat, we fervently hope that by the time this article appears in print, six more states will have joined the other eighteen that previously had enacted, under a provision of the Taft-Hartley law, laws outlawing the practice of making union membership a requirement for employment.

To Conduct Mission Study

"Alaska-Hawaii" will be the subject of a church-wide mission study at St. Paul's Methodist Church starting next Sunday evening at 7:30 according to an announcement made by Mrs. Vernie Smouse, chairman of the commission on missions.

Merritt H. Feather will lead the study on Alaska. In addition, a movie entitled "Alaska - World to be Won" will be shown. Mrs. Dale Garmen will lead the devotions. A period of fellowship will include refreshments served by the Searcher's Class.

Proposed New Water Rate Schedule Listed

A proposed water rate schedule for the town of Oakland, prepared by the Chester Engineers, was read at a meeting of the Mayor and Town Council Monday evening.

The rate schedule would apply beginning in 1960 or the first year that the water system improvements would be in effect, provided construction is started in 1959.

A report published last month showed that the engineers made a recommendation that water from the Big Youghiogheny river be used for an additional supply for the town. The improvements would cost some $500,000 and a financing arrangement also was recommended.

The Council took no action on the proposed rate schedule. The report suggested a minimum of $6.30 for the first 5,000 gallons; 90 cents a thousand for the next 20,000; 80 cents a thousand for the next 25 thousand, 70 cents a thousand for the next 50,000 and 55 cents a thousand for all water over 100,000. The cost was based on a completely metered system, estimating a daily consumption of 275,000 gallons with an average pumping to be 300,000. This was calculated to provide $41,671 for expenses and $39,065 for debt service, or a total of $80,736.

Other routine business was conducted. The town agreed to clean out brush and furnish labor for construction of picnic tables at the club house, if Golf club would furnish material. The council also agreed to finish curbing on 8th street when weather permitted.

William Hesen sought a lower water rate for the Coca-Cola plant, as a result of the low rate given the Sterling Processing company last month, but was told the Sterling company was receiving only surplus water.

It was decided that some unsold Reservoir and Community building bonds that had never been sold, but had been reposing in the safe for a number of years, be destroyed in the presence of two or more members of the council. There are water reservoir bonds in the amount of $9,000 and Community building bonds in the amount of $11,000.

Permits were granted to Gerald Minnich to add a carport 9 by 18 in rear of his present building, and to William Lantz to enclose a porch on Center street. Sunday movie tax amounted to $61.00.

Receipts for last month were listed at $8,495.66 with expenditures $7,208.34. Among the receipts were $5,398.57 for water, $1,009.44 for taxes and $2,087.65 for miscellaneous items. Parking meters brought in $753.54 while bank stock tax brought $703.60. Among expenditures was $250 to the Country club and $100 to the Boy Scouts.

Council Discusses

In order to have the latter in order it would be necessary to amend the town charter or go through regular legislation procedure at the General Assembly. The propect also must be cleared by the State Health Department.

No decision was reached. Another meeting of the committee with the Mayor and Town Council will be held on Monday evening, November 24.

WEEKLY SERMON

PREACHIN' or MEDDLIN'

The colored preacher was speaking forth his message with a great deal of fervor. His congregation gave their loud approvals with lusty Amens! Mandy approved with her "Amens" and frequently repeated, "That's preachin'!" However when the preacher got down to the subject of snuff-dipping. Mandy's fervid amens ceased and now she said, "He quit preachin' and gone to meddlin'". I'm afraid that old Mandy is not the only person who feels that the preacher has gone to medding when he bears down on the sins and shortcomings of members present. Men of God, must, if they remain true to their calling, speak forth the truth about sins whether people like it or not. Too many people go to church to have their back scratched and ears tickled instead of desiring their hearts to be set straight. John the Baptist became very unpopular in Herod's courts when he told the King "It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife." Elijah was also very unpopular when he said to Ahab, "I have not troubled Israel; but thou and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the Lord." How much better to know the truth now while there is time to repent. If we judge ourselves, we need not be judged.

Crafts Shoppe To Open At Springs

Saturday, November 15, marks the opening of the first major crafts outlet of the Casselman Valley. On this day the Penn Alps corporation of Springs will open its Crafts Shoppe at Miller Brothers, between Springs and Grantsville, and will remain open each day until Christmas with the exception of Sundays.

Featured will be oil paintings of native wild flowers on old keeler staves and wood plates, handmade dolls in native costume, woven bed coverlets, handmade rugs, quilts and needlework. These articles, with one exception are produced by local craftsmen.

The corporation under whose auspices the shop is being opened is a benevolent non-profit organization founded on Christian principles. It has as its aim the physical, mental, social and spiritual welfare of the people of the Casselman Valley as well as the preservation of its unique historic treasures and natural resources. There is a 13-man board of directors. The crafts shop is the first in a series of projects planned by the board. The annual homecoming and folk festival which made its debut this year is a joint project of both organizations.

Discuss Possibility Of Sea Scout Unit

The possibility of securing a sea scout "Ship" in conjunction with the Potomac Council Sea Scout base was under consideration here yesterday. There was a conference of some twenty business men and scout leaders with Cy Tribur, deputy regional scout executive from Philadelphia, regional representative, Dr. Thomas Bess; Wilbert Sifton and Charles Newman, scout field executives, during a luncheon meeting at the William-James hotel.

Tribur explained the purpose of sea scouting and the availability of help from the U. S. Naval reserve. A desire to have a sea scout ship in the area has been expressed by the other districts in the Potomac Council and Tribur was of the opinion that this area was ideal for such a group. It would be a council sponsored program.

George Stuck, district chairman, said that what was needed locally would be some organization to sponsor the ship and that some leadership also would have to be provided locally.

Mr. Tribur, after the session, drove to the Boy Scout camping area on Deep Creek Lake to see the possibilities already available.

Who's Who At Northern High

By RUTH STANTON

Frandel "Doc" McGraw

A tall black haired, brown eyed, 16 year old minister's son, formerly of Wiley, W. Va., now a resident of Grantsville, by the name of Frandel McGraw was elected as the Junior Class President during a recent meeting. Most of us know him better by "Doc."

Frandel is very athletic minded. He has played football at Northern, and baseball and basketball at his former school. He is a member of the Lettermen's Club.

Frandel is very active in church work. He is active in M. Y. F., Sunday School, church, and church camps. His parents are Reverend and Mrs. Emory A. McGraw.

"Doc's" plans for the future are varied. His reply was, "I plan to go to college, but as of now I haven't decided what occupation I will go into. Maybe an engineer. Of course, I plan to get married later."

"Doc" being a new student I asked if he had an opinion of Northern. This was his reply, "Very interesting in more ways than one. I think Northern has a good student body, a fine staff of teachers and coaches, and an attractive school building."

Types of Programs Discussed by GOP Women At Meeting

Group discussions featured a covered dish dinner meeting of the Republican Women's club at Friendsville Tuesday evening with thirty-one present.

Members discussed types of programs for 1959, places of holding meetings, what means the club can use to bring industry into the county, and laws the club would be interested in such as women serving on juries, blood tests for people applying for marriage licenses.

Women favored such legislation and also blood tests for people handling food in public eating places. Meetings will be held in various communities.

Suggested were speakers to explain basic differences in two political parties, a study of laws governing elected officials, and get-acquainted meetings, picnics, etc.

In agreeing that industry is wanted in the county it was suggested a county-wide meeting be held to explore possibilities, contacting Senator Beall and also learning how the Chamber of Commerce in Uniontown was able to get industries to move into their city.

The group elected Mrs. Kermit Glotfelty, Bittinger, president; Mrs. Leroy Hostetler, Friendsville, vice-president; Mrs. Dwight Stover, Oakland, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Chet Keily, Friendsville, recording secretary; Miss Floss Shaffer, treasurer.

In a resolution passed by the group the club reaffirmed its faith in the Republican party as playing a vital part in prosperity of the nation, state and county; producing men and women of ability; reaffirmed their basic belief in Democracy, honesty and efficiency in government. It resolved to seek out people of high caliber and Christian principles to encourage them to run for public office.

A goal of five hundred members was set for the club. Committees appointed included Membership—Mrs. George Edwards, chairman; Mrs. Reuben Friend, Mrs. Irva Mickey, Mrs. Ellen Humberson, Mrs. Elsie Glotfelty, Mrs. Olin Friend, Mrs. Fred Selby, Mrs. Mary E. Martin, Mrs. Lulu C. Edwards, Mrs. June O'Donnell, and Mrs. Virginia Keiler.

County Conference On Education Set By School Board

The Board of Education is sponsoring a county-wide education conference, to be held at the Dennett Road school on Tuesday, December 2, from 7:45 to 9:45. Conference theme is "Working Together for Better Education for the Children of Garrett County."

Following a brief discussion by Willard L. Hawkins, superintendent of schools, of some of the issues in education as they pertain to the county, those attending the conference will break up into thirty different roundtable groups under leadership of a parent and a teacher.

Some three hundred are expected to attend, Mr. Hawkins said. Some of the issues suggested for study include:

Are the basic purposes for which the public schools exist changing? Problems confronting school board in securing fully certified and competently trained teachers; relationship between money spent and quality of schools; where does the county stand in respect to the rest of the state? Is present school curriculum adequate for present day needs? What should be added or deleted? Present in-service training program and is county concerned with program for teacher improvement; responsibility of school board for curriculum improvement; extent of discipline problems and juvenile delinquency and how we compare with other school systems.

How well are county graduates prepared for college? The kind of education to be provided for those not going to college. Should educational emphasis be on bright children, slow children, all children? Should enlightened parents play a greater part in planning the school budget? Can PTA's be improved by placing emphasis on education of children rather than on entertainments and fund raising activities? What parents can do that will aid in improvement of the quality of schools.

Members of the Board of Education as well as some of the newly elected county officials will be attending. Mrs. Ruth Brown, music instructor at Southern, will provide fifteen minutes of special music at the beginning of the conference. The public is invited.

Surgery Required After Road Mishap

A ten-year-old Deer Park girl who was injured in a two-car collision on U. S. route 50 near Junction, W. Va., Saturday, underwent surgery in Potomac Valley hospital, Keyser.

Reported in fair condition was Audra Fike, daughter of Mrs. Mary Fike. Mrs. Fike, 47, was released from the Keyser hospital following treatment of minor lacerations and abrasions. Another member of the family, John Fike, 7, also was treated for minor injuries.

The three plus Gloria Fike, 12, were traveling east on route 50 in the family car which was being operated by James William Fike, 20.

West Virginia State Police, who investigated, said a westbound car operated by Vause See of Akron, went out of control while rounding a curve, and crushed head-on into the Fike car. Both cars were demolished.

Police said See was traveling at a high rate of speed, witnesses estimating the speed at between 85 and 90 miles an hour. The Fike youth swerved off the highway to avoid a collision but was unable to get out of the path of the car.

By DICK CASTILOW

Teen agers belonging to the Teen Age club have made a momentous decision. We have decided to "adopt" two or three foreign kids through CARE. By the Teen Club furnishing but a few dollars a month the CARE organization will see to their needs as to food and maybe some clothing. This process is not at all expensive and we are naturally anticipating the time when these children will be our own. We all felt that this was a very good thing to do considering our own excellent living conditions. We also feel that any club or group to do this sort of thing will get the same satisfaction that we are so very eagerly awaiting.

By the way, the Teen Age Club would be glad to help in any civic affair where we would be of some value. Just contact us about it.

There has been a rumor floating around that the Teen Club doesn't exactly welcome the seventh and eighth grade kids. This is positively not so. We welcome any teen ager who would like to attend. After all I'm sure that they get bored just as we older teens did before we started to Teen Age Club.

Next week is record hop week and we do hope to see a large group turn up from Northern high and the Accident area. We will have all the top platters and a few of the old Elvis' too. As usual Bob Brinker will do the spinning on his hi fi set.

Boy did the Royales ever do a bang up job at the "Harvest Rustle" Saturday night. (Despite a large amount of electrical difficulties.) Eddie Hershman stepped in to play the sax, while the regular sax player Dale King, is in the hospital, and really did swell. A hand for Eddie, he deserves it.

Maybe I am a bit stuck on the Royales. Well, the truth is, I am. They have a neat beat, a swing and a sway and for the girls, Bob Olivcrio.

Bob heads the group as well as playing the guitar and doing the vocalizing. And, I do believe, is chiefly in charge of those swell arrangements. Bob is a popular guy and has a very good voice, besides, that guitar of his almost talks. You might think I'm exaggerating, but if that is the case you have apparently never heard him do "Rebel Rouser". Well, if you haven't, you are really missing something.

These fellows could use some bookings, they are inexpensive and they are good.

Remember, for any information dial De 4-2684, ask for Dick and I'll probably be just around the "corner".

The nation's top discs according to Billboard (who else?) are as follows: Again the top tune is Tommy Edwards' long standing topper "It's All in the Game", secondly is one of the area's favorites "It's Only Make Believe" by Conway Twitty, and last but not least comes old Cozy Coles' "Topsy" (part II).

Incidentally, watch Cozys' "Turvey" (part II), it has the "Topsey" beat but is really new. My fearless forecast is that it will be as big as its predecessors.

Observes Eighty-Second Birthday Anniversary

Helping to celebrate the occasion were Mrs. Iva Phipps and daughter Faith, Mr. and Mrs. Richard O. Uphole, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Darius Upole, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Upole and son, Oakland; Rev. and Mrs. Paul Upole and family, Blacksville, W. Va.; Mrs. Perry Sines and daughter, Swallow Falls; her niece, Gustava Goshorn, Washington; a nephew, Wesley Schaeffer, Gormania; children of Theodore Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McNemar, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Rounds, and Junior Cross, all of Alliance, Ohio.

Kittens, Mittens, and Life

"Three little kittens lost their mittens . . ." Bobby is thoroughly absorbed in the antics of the kittens. He will be pleased to discover that at the end of the story they find their mittens again. Like all children, he wants his stories to have happy endings.

But soon Bobby is going to find out that life's stories don't all have happy endings. Bobby is growing up, out of the land of fairies and elves, into the world of reality. Bobby must learn to meet sorrow with understanding, pain with courage, prosperity with thankfulness, defeat with hope, success with humility—he must learn to face life.

The Church School is waiting with open doors for Bobby, your Bobby. The Church School is prepared to show your children the best ways to make life a success. The Church School is ready to teach your children—in the language of children—the eternal truths of life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Body and Soul

Lesson for November 16, 1958

DRIVING through the typical American community, the visitor gets the impression that healthy people live here. All the persons he sees are able-bodied and active. But if you laid out on the courthouse lawn all the sick, the lame or the incapacitated, who belong to that community, you might think it a pretty sickly town. Nowadays we keep our sick folk carefully out of sight.

Dr. Foreman

But is is different in the Orient, where people with all sort of diseases are to be seen on every street. It was different in Palestine in Jesus' time. One late afternoon, we read, they brought all the sick people in town (including some mentally ill) to the house where Jesus was staying, and collected around the door, a melancholy sight.

People are More Than Souls

That happened to be a Sabbath day, and Jesus had been (as we would say) to church and had taught there. He had also restored a man who had been under the influence of a screaming devil, if indeed he was not one himself; and more quietly and privately he had healed his host's mother. In the morning she had been too sick to go to church; after Jesus had cured her she was able to get a meal for the family. (Jesus' cures were not half-way starts.) You might think he would be tired, and probably he was; but this yard-full of sick people, out under the twilight sky, moved him to action.

He did not say, and he never said on any occasion of record, to the sick that their sickness was doing them good, just accept it! He did not say, "I am a physician of souls—my interest is in the spirit of man, not his body." And above all, he did not say, "All your pain and suffering, your broken legs, your ulcers, are not real, they are only mistakes in your mortal mind. Think you are well and you will be well; for pain and illness do not exist." Quite the contrary: Jesus was concerned for these people's physical health, he made cures of real diseases. For he was interested above all in people, and people are more than souls, they are souls-in-bodies.

Body Supports Soul

The Christian church today is coming awake to this fact. We knew it all the time, but now we are doing something about it. The great interest in healing which is now being shown by even the "old-line" churches, the growth of hospitals operated by the church, and the contribution the churches make (as in Boy Scout work, in playgrounds and in good-health instruction toward preventive medicine, are evidence of this.) A man who has been raising funds for a Christian hospital in the southern mountains writes, "The appeal . . . is meeting with almost unbelieveable success, thanks to the Great Galilean whose spirit is the challenge."

One of the reasons why Christ first, and the church after him, have been interested in physical health is that if we are interested in the human spirit—as indeed we must be—we cannot afford to neglect the body as if it did not matter. Bodily illness affects the mind and the soul. A healthy body supports a healthy mind and soul.

Soul Supports Body

On the other hand, Jesus himself more than once showed that he knew this works both ways. If body supports soul, so soul supports body. Some doctor has calculated that more than half the patients in American hospitals, on any given day, would not be there if they had a different attitude toward life. A young man lay dying of pneumonia, away back B. P.—Before Penicillin—with a nurse on duty, when there was a knock at the door. No one thought the patient was conscious; but he was, and all set to die, till he heard the visitor whisper, "How is he?" The nurse answered, "He won't last till morning." The physical disease was not touched by those words, but the young man's spirit was. "I made up my mind I'd get well," he said . . . and he did. Long ago it was a proverb: "A merry heart doeth good like a medicine, but a broken spirit drieth up the bones."

BY S. A. KAPLAN

THE TEN PLAGUES OF EGYPT (This story is based on Exodus 5 to 11)

HELLO BOYS AND GIRLS!

Do you remember how during the last heary snow-storm every one was warned against stepping on the live wires that lay strewn over the ground in many places? Why do you suppose that warning was given? That is right--to save life. To obey that warning was to live, to disobey meant death. And the same thing is true of God's commands. God has given us His laws because He loves us. To obey His commandments means life, to disobey, brings certain death as we shall see from today's story.

When Moses and Aaron came to Pharaoh and asked him in the name of the Lord to free the Israelitish slaves, Pharaoh stubbornly refused, saying, "Who is the Lord, that I should obey His voice?....I know not the Lord, neither will I let Israel go." And to show his defiance of God, Pharaoh made the work of the slaves even harder than before. Poor Pharaoh! Did he think that he could disobey God's command and that all would still be well with him?

What do you suppose God was compelled to do to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians? He had to bring ten terrible plagues upon them. They worshipped the river Nile as a god, and so the first plague turned the water of the river Nile into blood, so that they had to dig deep holes in the earth in order for them to have any water to drink. They regarded the frog as sacred, and so in the second plague frogs came upon Egypt in such numbers that they not only covered the ground, but filled the houses, got into their dough, and even into their beds. In the third plague, the dust of the earth became lice, and was upon man and beast. Then, large, venomous flies covered the ground, and filled their houses during the fourth plague. They worshipped cattle, and so, during the fifth plague, their cattle were killed off. During the sixth plague, terrible sores and boils broke out upon the Egyptians from head to foot. Then "the Lord said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field ... and the Lord sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground." And the hail destroyed every tree and all their vegetation turning Egypt into a desolate waste; and still Pharaoh hardened his heart and refused to let the children of Israel go. Then a thick pall of darkness covered the land of Egypt, so that "they saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days." Then God said to Moses, "Yet will I bring one plague more upon Pharaoh and upon Egypt; afterwards he will let you go." The tenth plague brought so much heart-breaking sorrow to all the Egyptians, that Pharaoh was compelled to yield at last. However, about that in our next story. Just think, boys and girls, how much suffering Pharaoh could have spared himself and his people if he had only obeyed God from the first! What a lesson this should be to all of us that we, too, may save ourselves and our loved ones much needless sorrow. How true are the words of the song: "Trust and obey, for there is no other way to be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey."

Schools Obtain Surplus Items For Small Amounts

Schools of the county over the past few years have been obtaining articles of usefulness from the Maryland Surplus Agency for nominal sums, it was learned this week through the Board of Education.

The Surplus agency is located on the campus of the University of Maryland and is readed by F. K. Haszard. Materials of all kinds declared surplus by various branches of the armed forces find their way to this agency. Distribution is made on the basis of first come, first served.

Eight or ten trips are made annually by personnel of the Board of Education. Among some of the supplies and equipment distributed to the various schools on the basis of need include band instruments, baseball gloves and other athletic equipment, metal for use in the school shops, rope of various kinds, typewriters, tape recorders, bolts of cloth for use in the Home Economics departments, mimeograph paper, tools for maintenance use, adding machines, metal roofing, cover paper, gym shoes, paint, trucks and automobiles, and other articles.

Willard L. Hawkins, county superintendent of schools, said all school systems and public agencies were eligible to share in the distribution.

Woman Honored by Pupils She Taught Many Years Ago

Mrs. Sara Potter Naylor, Oakland, wife of Paul B. Naylor, a teacher in the South Perkasie School in Pennsylvania from 1908 to 1911, returned to that town recently as the honored guest of her pupils.

The unique anniversary was held in the former school building, now a lodge hall. The room was arranged to look like the old class room. Pupils were then introduced to Mrs. Naylor and each presented her with an apple and greeted her. The desk used by Mrs. Naylor stood in its original place. The organ also was returned to its place and the group joined in old school songs.

Mrs. Naylor recalled many events and mentioned that teachers at that time received $50 a month. She also commented on the changes in her pupils whom she had not seen in forty-seven years. The meeting was closed with the presentation to Mrs. Naylor of a painting of the school building. The anniversary was organized by a committee of former pupils after one of them learned recently that Mrs. Naylor was residing in Oakland.

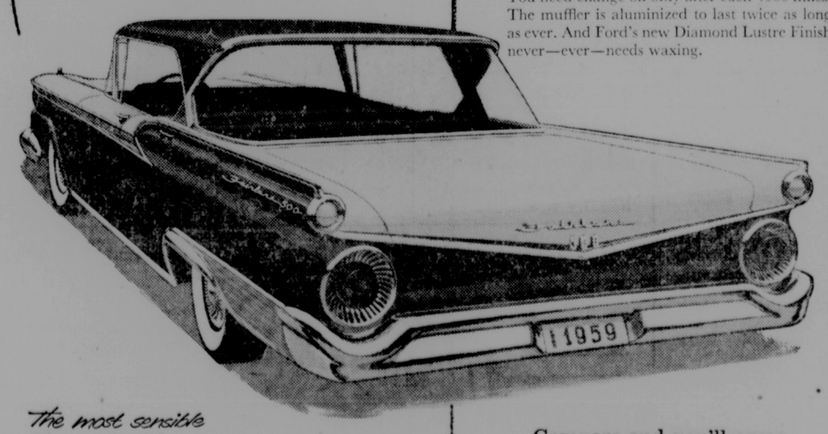
IN THE TRI-STATE AREA
What's behind the big switch to FORD?



These specific common sense features are the big reasons why Ford is the best seller:

1 Six passengers, not just four, ride in comfort. Yes, even the man in the middle. Because Ford's full-depth seats are extra thick all the way across—there's no hard spot in the center as in some cars.

2 The doors are wider for easier entry. Compared with Ford's major competitor, they open wider . . . and have two-stage front door checks.

3 Ford's styling is sensible. It's clean and simple like the Thunderbird. No useless wings that are easy to dent.

4 Ford's frame is safer. In its field, only Ford has a wide-base frame that seats all passengers within the protection of its husky side rails.

6 Ford's got the most sound and weather insulation—everywhere. No other low-priced car compares.

7 Ford is economical. You save up to a dollar a tankful with Ford's standard Six or Thunderbird V-8 engines—for they thrive on regular gas. You need change oil only after each 4000 miles. The muffler is aluminized to last twice as long as ever. And Ford's new Diamond Lustre Finish never—ever—needs waxing.

The most sensible news of all!...
With all these exclusives, and with the usual optional equipment, Ford prices are still up to more than $100 lower* than the nearest major competitor
*Based on comparison of manufacturers' suggested list prices

Compare and you'll agree you never had it so beautiful so sensible . . . and yet so Thrifty!

Changes Effective In Old Age Insurance

Two changes recently made in the old-age and survivors insurance program by the Social Security Amendments of 1958 relates to the families of workers who have become too disabled for further substantial gainful work, and to dependent parents of workers who have died, Mr. James A. Gwinn, Manager of the Cumberland Social Security Office, announced recently.

The first concerns families of insured workers who are no longer able to do substantial gainful work. While monthly benefit payments to qualified disabled workers have been made beginning July 1957, until now no payments were possible to their families.

The amendment provides insurance protection in the form of monthly benefits to the disabled person's children under 18 and to any older children who are under a disability that began before age 18. Benefits are also payable to the disabled person's wife, if she has in her care a child eligible for benefits, or if she has attained age 62, according to Mr. Gwinn.

Before the enactment of the 1958 amendments, an aged parent, however dependent, could never get benefits payments based on the earnings of a son or daughter if there were a surviving wife, dependent widow, or children who were entitled or could become entitled to payments at a later date. This restriction applied even in cases where those survivors never actually became beneficiaries. Under the law, as amended, dependent aged parents can be eligible for survivors payments ever though the worker was survived by a spouse or a child who is, or could be, entitled to payments.

Mr. Gwinn emphasized that persons affected by these changes should contact the Social Security Office.

Gen. Harrison Says - -

The Christian Business Men's Committee, of Sacramento, California invited General Wm. K. Harrison, the U. S. Army's Caribbean area commander to address them at a rally in Governor's Hall on the State Fairgrounds. He told the audience of more than 1,100 persons that mankind is in a state of futility and frustration because much of the world is trying to live independently of God. The General asked what makes the difference between people who practice deceit and the five Missionaries who were killed by primitive Ecuadorian Indians while trying to teach Christianity. He answered his own question by saying, "Jesus Christ, that's all that makes the difference!" He pointed out that persons who sin are not without hope.' The debt of sin was paid once for all by the Saviour on the cross. He paid with His life the wages of sin which is death", the general said. "But God raised Jesus from the dead and sent Him to unite God and man forever. Jesus offers salvation from sin, but this gift is of no value unless we accept it. Yes, the General is right, the price has been paid, redemption is possible, but we must personally apply for it by acceptance of Jesus Christ. Tell me, have you yielded your life to Him?

Encouraging .....

We are very much encouraged at the Farming for Better Living Banquet last Friday evening. This year it wasn't especially the calibre of the seventy-two farm families involved, for they are always high grade. It wasn't the one hundred percent completion, although that is commendable. But this is the sixth year for such a performance and it has ceased to be unusual.

But what impressed us was the amount of improvement going on among the farm families as told by a story of the activities of all enrollees through colored slides. Through these slides we saw evidence of a much improved dairy business. Many farmers were constructing dairy barns, milk parlors and making their barns completely sanitary. We saw evidence of an increased interest in beef cattle, and in the raising of sheep.

We saw evidence of the use of improved practices in farming and got a look at much modern farm machinery in use on these farms. We saw farm kitchens that were most modern and convenient.

To us it was indication that there is a general bustle all over the county. We are sure all this program of improvement is not going on just among the farm families enrolled in the FFBL project. These families may be leading the way but the activity is general throughout the county. These FFBL families are just the nucleus of improvements being made all along the line. More people in the county seem to be taking pride in their work.

Most everything is pointing to a better life. People want fun with their work, "a good life as well as a good living." With the step-up in recreational facilities in the county, both summer and winter, there will be more opportunities for members of families to play together as well as work together. Living is not all play. There is a lot of hard work involved, but work and play and a better living can go hand in hand.

Prolific Forger Is Arrested Here

A person described as a "smooth operator," was arrested in Oakland Monday night and has been lodged in the county jail on a charge of forgery.

His arrest followed a series of check-writing incidents involving Browning's Inc., Faulkner's Restaurant, the William-James hotel, and the Englander pharmacy, all of Oakland.

The man was finally identified as John Brown Arrison, aged 47, of near Pittsburgh, after several telephone calls to Pittsburgh police. He had posed in Oakland as George Wilson, of the Wilson Construction and Instrument company.

He was arrested Monday evening by City Policeman Leslie Baker, who accompanied State's Attorney S. R. Pagenhardt to the Oakland Motel where the man had secured a room for the night.

The charge was actually preferred as the result of a check cashed at Browning's store for $50. He stoutly contended that the checks written in Oakland were all good, and told Pagenhardt that he was in the county to assist in building a radar station. The address placed on the back of the check was found to be phony. Apparently the company also is phony. The state's attorney discovered his probable correct name after talking with Pittsburgh police and giving a description of the man. He is also wanted in Pennsylvania.

A search of the records in Maryland also revealed that the man had been released from the House of Correction in July.

When taken before Trial Magistrate Boyd Sanders, Sr., on Monday he pleaded guilty to the charge and was held for action of the Garrett County Grand Jury under $2,500 bond.

Three other charges concerning worthless checks are on file at the magistrate's office but the persons sought are from out of state and have not yet been apprehended. One person wrote a check with no account in the bank, while the other had "insufficient funds."

Another forger was before Associate Judge Neil C. Fraley yesterday afternoon. He was listed as Brooks Glen Ours, of Friendsville, who had forged the name of his brother Edward to two checks. One for $25 was cashed at Whorton's store at Accident. The second one was cashed at the H-P store in Oakland. Ours pleaded guilty to the charges and was sentenced to serve two years in the House of Correction but sentence was suspended upon condition that he make restitution to his brother within sixty days and be under supervision of the probation officer.

Grantsville Sets Up Improvement Group

A group of interested citizens met Monday, November 10 at the office of Dan Hershberger to form a Grantsville Community Improvement Committee. Those present at the initial meeting were Dan Hershberger, acting chairman; Hazel Klotz, representing area Homemakers; Ida Engle, representing the Rural Development Steering Committee; and Barry Carr, Assistant County Agent.

A mail box paint-up campaign was selected as the first committee project. Grantsville Route 2 was designated at the first route to be canvassed. Next spring, during National Rural Mail Box Improvement Week, patrons of route 2 will be urged to paint their mail box and post. If this effort is successful, similar campaigns will be conducted for the other mail routes in the area.

A second project discussed was the erection of additional markers on county and state roads. A list will be drawn up of where additional markers or signs are needed. This list will be presented to the proper authorities with a request for action.

The Grantsville Community Improvement Committee was formed under the auspices of the Garrett County Rural Development Steering Committee, Merle Garletts, Chairman. According to Mr. Garletts, similar committees will be set up in other county communities if the Grantsville effort is successful.

Exhibits in Eastern National Stock Show

John Wildesen, Ryans Glade 4-H Club, exhibited in the fat lamb class at the Eastern National Livestock Show at Timonium November 15-20. This is the first time a 4-H'er from Garrett County has participated in this event.

Club members from anywhere in the United States may participate in the Eastern National Show. It affords the judging teams a chance to meet before the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Set Tonight At Northern

Over one hundred persons are expecting to attend the annual covered dish dinner of the Junior F. H. A. of Northern High school for mothers and daughters this evening at the Cove school. Members of the senior FHA club are invited as well as women faculty members of the junior high school. Mrs. Percy Lawton is the club's adviser.

Following the dinner there will be several entertainment numbers. Sue Hershberger will give a dance as one of the features.

Emergency Radio Transmitter Is Placed In Service

The emergency radio transmitter, to help in police protection and in case of emergencies in the area, will be put into use this Friday evening at 8 o'clock, it was announced by Henry W. McComas, administrator of the Garrett County Memorial hospital.

The telephone for use for police emergency or disaster will be DE 4-2100. Mr. McComas stressed the fact that this number was to be used only for protection of life and property and not for unimportant items such as "dogs yelling or about garbage collections," or other rather unimportant items.

Starting Friday the hook-up will be with the police force, but within the next few weeks the equipment also will be installed in doctors' automobiles, in ambulances and in Kitzmiller and Friendsville. The cost of the transmitter, aerial and mobile unit for the Oakland police car is being borne by the town of Oakland, amounting to some $850. The hospital is paying for its one unit, and other units are being paid for by the doctors and the owners of the ambulances.

The telephone at the hospital will be on a direct line and to make it effective, it must be used ONLY for police emergency or disaster, Mr. McComas emphasized. A person will be on duty at all times to answer the telephone and relay emergency messages to the proper persons.

As explained in September, in case of medical emergencies the physicians can be summoned to the hospital. Should a physician answer an emergency call and find himself in need of addition medical assistance, other physicians could be directed to the scene of the disaster. Should disaster strike in Friendsville or Kitzmiller physicians and ambulances could be so directed. A police emergency vehicle with personnel can be directed to the scene of disaster for protection of life and property; also to set up road blocks, etc. The medical administrator can also be summoned.

Work on the plan has been under consideration since April and a permit was received in September from the Federal Communications commission to operate such a radio transmitter station for emergencies. The station is known as station KGF. The aerial was erected on the hospital building.

Two Trucks Wreck In Separate Mishaps

Two trucks wrecked the same night in almost the identical spot. Both were northbound on route 219, and failed to make the turn at the route 40 intersection, last Sunday morning.

The first truck, one loaded with 430 turkeys, owned by James W. Henry, of Rockwood, Pa. was enroute to that town. Trooper Charles DeWitt, who investigated, said the truck's brakes failed just about the time the truck reached the intersection and he was afraid to attempt to make the turn and kept straight. He went through several guard rails and down over an embankment and turned over. There were three men riding in the cab of the truck but no one was injured.

The second truck, owned by W. H. Fratz, of Accident, and driven by Ralph Spear, came to the same spot about 4 o'clock a. m. He was confused by the fog and went through the hole left in the guard rails by the other truck. He ended up beside the other truck but didn't turn over. Spear was not injured but the truck had damages of around $1,600.

Bruce Lohr Appointed Acting Constable

The County Commissioners on Tuesday appointed Bruce Lohr as acting constable, to serve during the absence of Mark H. Moon, who was a patient in Doctors' hospital in Washington, following an operation.

Mr. Lohr recently returned to the county after having resided in Silver Spring for a year or two.

There was some question whether or not Mr. Lohr could legally serve in the capacity of a substitute constable and the question was turned over to Lewis R. Jones, attorney to the Commissioners.

Local correspondents and advertisers are urged to send in their material one day earlier than usual and all others who desire to have news items published are requested to do the same, in order to insure publication in the week's issue.

Resigns Position As Roads Engineer

William Webb DeWitt, county roads engineer for the past fourteen years, has tendered his resignation to the Board of County Commissioners, effective the last of this month.

He announced he was retiring because of ill health. It was understood that the new board of County Commissioners which plans to take over its duties early in December, had asked him to remain in that position, but that Mr. DeWitt felt it would be best for him if he retired immediately.

Prior to serving as roads engineer Mr. DeWitt has been a cost accountant for the department and was also employed as a foreman and grader operator by the state during the time the state had charge of the county roads. He has supervised the construction of many miles of county roads during his time in office.

He plans to continue living in Hoyes.

No successor has been named as yet.

Proceeds from the sale of the cakes will be used for the club's community projects.

Named President of Heart Association

The installation of Baltimore insurance executive Nelson T. Offutt as president of the Heart Association of Maryland climaxed the eleventh annual meeting of the group last Wednesday.

Prior to the installation of new officers the meeting heard reports describing progress of the fight against heart disease over the past twelve months. Mr. Offutt referred to the alarming heart mortality and disability statistics with 53 percent of all deaths in Maryland resulting from diseases of the heart and circulation. Mr. Offutt succeeds Dr. Nathan E. Needle, of Baltimore.

Offutt, a former resident of Oakland and a son of Mrs. Nannie ne T. Offutt and the late Ellwood Offutt, has served as a campaign leader and finance chairman in previous campaigns.

Governor-Elect Praises Democrats At Victory Dinner

It was the feast after the famine for county Democrats last evening as they gathered at the William-James hotel to celebrate the outcome of the November 4th election.

Besides turkey, on the menu were the newly elected Democratic state and county officials, soon to take office. Introduced by Stuart F. Hamill, Jr., who acted as toastmaster, all paid tribute to the Democratic State Central committee for its efforts in organizing the county on the precinct level, and attributed the party's stunning success to this, plus what Governor-Elect Tawes called a "rift" in the Republican ranks.

Climaxing the evening of speaking, Tawes reminded those present that the Democrats now had an unprecedented responsibility. "We must serve well, plan well, and give the best we have to all of the people of the state," he said. "We want to serve so as at the end of our four year period we will have a record of administration which will reflect favorably on our state of Maryland in the eyes of the entire nation and even the whole world."

Similar themes were developed by other speakers which included John Foley, newly elected Congressman; C. Ferdinand Sybert, elected Attorney General; Louis L. Goldstein, Comptroller-Elect.

Newly elected county officials were also introduced and made

Old Record Book Reveals Interesting Historical Data

President Grover Cleveland must have been a generous man. A record that might indicate has been discovered in one of the basement rooms of the Court House.

While cleaning out the room this week H. D. Swartzentruber, county commissioner, came across an old account book kept by the late E. Z. Tower for the Presbyterian church that flourished at one time on the corner of Second and Liberty streets in Oakland. The church is now occupied by St. Matthew's Episcopal church.

The account book shows entries for basket collections for the various services in 1885 and 1886. Collections weekly would run $2.83, $1.29, $2.96, $3.20, and in similar amounts. But one week's account was different. On June 6, 1886 the collections amounted to $14.20 and a sidenote indicated that President Cleveland had attended church that day. Evidently the President had slipped a ten dollar bill into the offering plate.

The figures show that the minister at that time was paid $400 annually and that in 1887 he was raised to $450 per annum. Some of the members at that time were D. E. Offutt, G. S. Hamill, J. A. Grant, George Little, E. Z. Tower, E. I. West, G. A. Shirer, Dan Chisholm, T. Martin, William Totten, King Delawder, Mrs. General Crook, Scott Jones. The Garretts of Baltimore, for whom the church was originally named "Garrett Memorial Presbyterian church," annually contributed $100 toward its support.

The sexton received $8 every three months. Rental for the parsonage was $15 every three months. In one account a man had pledged $25 for the year and then got a receipt in full for hay and feeding a colt of the minister.

The minister during these years, 1885, 1886 and 1887 was the Rev. J. S. Foulk. One of the big pledgers at the time promied to pay $40 for the year. Other persons had pledged amounts from $3 to $25.

Site Of Post Office At Park Selected

The post office department has selected a site for the new Mountain Lake Park post office building, according to an announcement this week by George T. Perrine, postmaster.

The proposed site, owned by H. M. Weeks, is located on the north side of route No. 135, opposite the intersection of route 560. The tract contains approximately 10,150 square feet.

The new postal quarters will be built according to Post Office specifications by a private investor, who will then lease the building to the post office department for a long term period.

Bidding forms, specifications and other pertinent data will be available to prospective bidders early in December. The department states that comparative cost studies between government owned and commercially leased buildings over a 50-year building life have shown that the latter plan saves between 30 and 40 percent in ultimate cost to the taxpayer.

Union Thanksgiving Services Planned

Union Thanksgiving services have been planned for both Oakland and Mt. Lake Park areas.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald H. Glotfelty, who own a dairy and poultry farm at McHenry, were named the Garrett County winners of the 1958 Farming for Better Living program from among the seventy-two families enrolled.

The award was announced at the annual dinner meeting last Friday evening at Southern High school cafeteria, held under the auspices of the FFBL council and a number of Garrett County business firms.

This was the eleventh winner named in the county, the program having been active here for that number of years. Other winners have been Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Bishoff, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hummel, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Crowe, Mr. and Mrs. Lenwood Bittinger, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert A. Friend, Mr. and Mrs. Guy S. Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Schlossnagle, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Baker, Mr. and Mrs. William Wildesen, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wagner, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Glotfelty now become eligible for a regional prize along with winners in four West Virginia counties and will be presented $25 at the regional banquet to be held in Elkins next month.

Some two hundred persons were present at the dinner. All of the 72 farm families who enrolled in the contest completed the project, making the sixth consecutive year that the county has won 100 percent completion and will receive a special $25 award from the Monongahela Power company to be used in 4-H club work.

S. Townshend Naylor served as toastmaster. Brief remarks about the program were made by L. Bush Swisher, of Morgantown, project director. Breaking away from the usual custom of having a main speaker, this year's program presented a story of the FFBL program in the county through a series of colored slides. Running comments on the slides were made by James McHenry, county agent; Barry Carr, assistant agent; and B. Beeson Snyder, manager of the Farmers Home Administration.

All of the seventy-two farm families were guests of the council and in addition received awards provided by 117 business men and individuals of the county. Each family also received ribbons according to the rating in the program. Howard C. Riggs was in charge of the awarding of prizes. Group singing was in charge of Mrs. Ruth Brown. The invocation was offered by the Rev. Fr. Michael K. Carney.

his grandfather in 1952. He rents an additional 640 acreage that he uses partly for pasture. He has a herd of 27 dairy cows that produced an average of more than 8,700 pounds of milk last year. His 22 heifers will soon grow into cows to enlarge his herd, eventually to 50 cows. All of his cows were bred artificially and the herd is enrolled in the DHIA program.

A new milking parlor and a pipe line milker were installed this year, and an addition to the barn to provide additional loafing area for his cows is under construction. The new milk house makes this farm a very modern dairy operation.

Other enterprises on the farm include 300 pullets for market egg production, the feeding of a dozen beef steers during the winter months, and the beginnng of a flock of sheep. The flock of ewes is being started as a future 4-H project for the older son, Dennis, now age six. A younger son, John, is age three.

Mrs. Glotfelty is a member of the county Rural Development committee, and is an active member of the local Homemakers club and Parent-Teacher association.

"Farming has brought us a better living, and the conveniences that we have on our farm have improved it," the Glotfeltys reported in their Farming for Better Living report. "Many jobs have been made simple and easier by machinery. Better management and cutting down in the many little extra things can still improve it," they continue.

The Glotfeltys were milking only eight cows in 1952 when they started operating this farm.

During the eleven years of the program Garrett county has had two sweepstakes champions, which means they were tops among twenty-five counties. They were Mr. and Mrs. Clark Schlossnagle, 1952; and Mr. and Mrs. Lenwood Bittinger, 1957.

Electric Projects In 4-H Discussed

"Electricity is still new, important, and challenging in the life of every boy and girl" stated A. V. Krewatch, Extension Agricultural Engineer, at a Bi-County 4-H Local Leaders' Dinner Conference on Nov. 18th at Happy Hills Farms, route 40.

The Electric program permits a wide variety of activities which can be selected by individual club members or the club itself according to their interest said Miss Charlotte Conaway, Asst. State Girls' Agent in explaining the new "Leaders' Idea Book".

In order to meet the needs of 4-H'ers in material and training in this project, local leaders from Garrett and Allegany counties met with members of local and state Extension staff and representatives of Power Companies in their areas for information of the Electric program.

MOSES GIVES UP A THRONE

(This story is based on Exodus 2; Acts 7:20 - 29; Hebrews 11:24 - 26.)

HELLO BOYS AND GIRLS! Do you know why at times you have such bitter, heart-breaking disappointments, and all your plans seem to go haywire? From today's Bible story you will learn that sometimes our plans fail, in order that God's plans for us may succeed.

As you know, Pharaoh's daughter adopted Moses, and he became her son. She sent him to the very best schools in the land of Egypt, and the Bible tells us that, "Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds." He was a very handsome and gifted young man, and Pharaoh's daughter and Pharaoh loved him dearly and planned a brilliant future for him. Yes, he was to become Pharaoh's successor to the throne of the great and mighty empire of Egypt. But Moses did not forget the valuable lessons he had learned at his mother's knee. Besides, God had revealed to him that he was to deliver the Israelites from the cruel bondage of the Egyptians, and to lead them into the Promised Land. Moses made his decision: as for him, he determined that he would be true to God, and so we read that, "By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season." Yes, he was willing to give up all the glamour, the honor, and the great riches of Egypt, and to cast in his lot with God's people so that he might deliver them from slavery.

You can imagine how full of plans Moses must have been to bring about this great deliverance. We read that one day Moses "went out unto his brethren and looked on their burdens," and saw an Egyptian mercilessly beating an Israelitish slave. Filled with indignation, "he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand." However, this was not God's way of bringing deliverance to enslaved Israel. And so, we read that "Phaaoh heard this thing" and "he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian."

While in Midian, Moses received a warm welcome to the home of Jethro, a priest and prince of Midian, a worshiper of the true God, who employed him to tend to his flock of sheep. In caring for the sheep -- binding up their wounds, recovering those who had gone astray, etc., etc., Moses learned many valuable lessons, and developed those higher and nobler qualities that prepare one for true leadership. Then, too, in the quietude and solitude of the wilderness, as he viewed the majestic grandeur of the mountains, and saw the marvelous works of God in nature, he learned still more to love God and to look to Him for guidance. Thus, although Moses' cherished plans for delivering Israel had failed, God through it all fitted him to become the greatest leader of men the world has ever known, and when the divine call came, he was ready. However, more about that in the next story.

Juvenile Sentenced To Md. Training School

One juvenile who was implicated in a breaking and entering affair at Sam Tasker's garage in Kitzmiller Sunday night, was sentenced to the Maryland Training school by Associate Judge Neil C. Fraley, sitting as a juvenile judge, at a hearing on Wednesday afternoon.

Two other youths, arrested at the time had their sentence withheld for the time being. It was testified they did not take part in the robbery but did share in the candy and cigarets that were stolen. Seventy-seven pennies obtained at the time, were kept by the first youth, 15, who received the sentence. One of the other youths, 17, planned to enter the Navy.

S. R. Pagenhardt, said the juvenile gained entrance to the garage by breaking a window with an iron pipe. The robbery occurred about 11 o'clock Sunday night.

Judge Fraley had two other juveniles before him yesterday afternoon. They were two of the three boys who broke into an unoccupied house of Wesley Arnold on December 23, 1957, at Table Rock and caused much damage to the walls and ceiling.

They were tried last January 8 and ordered to pay the cost of restitution. This was estimated to be $400. No payment had been made and the boys were ordered to report to the State's attorney within 30 days whether or not restitution had been made. The third member of the group is an out-of-state resident.

First Mission Study Class Well Attended

The first of four in a series of mission study classes being conducted by St. Paul's Methodist church was held Sunday evening in Fellowship hall with more than sixty in attendance.

Emphasis at the first session was on Alaska. A missionary atmosphere was outlined by Mrs. Dale Garman, devotions leader with gospel songs and Bible references. Mrs. Merritt Feather presented a talk on Alaska's vast material resources, its strategic location in world affairs and the potentialities for church work.

A film, "Alaska—World to be Won," was shown by W. Kenneth Johns, with John Updyke, president of the MYF, assisting. It portrayed modern methods of mining, hunting of whales, catching of fish and the progress of missionary work.

At the conclusion of the session members of the Searchers' class with Mrs. Darrell Malone and Mrs. Thomas Browning as hostesses, served refreshments.

Rev. Charles Godwin, pastor, announced the second of the series for Sunday night, November 23, at 7:30. Merritt Feather will speak. Devotions will be by the senior MYF. The film strip, "Christian Frontiers in Alaska," will be shown. Members of the Tri-Mu class will be hostesses.

Population Of Corn Borer at 3 Year High

For the first time in three years, the population of corn borers has increased in Maryland, according to a recently completed State-wide survey. The survey was made by Wallace C. Harding, Jr., extension entomologist of the University of Maryland College of Agriculture.

The state average for this fall is 94 borers per 100 cornstalks—almost a borer for each cornstalk in the state. This compares to 60 borers per 100 plants in 1957, and 78 in '56.

"This fall there were six counties with over 100 borers per 100 plants, which we consider to be a heavy population," Wallace said.

All of the heavily infested counties are located on the Eastern Shore, particularly the lower Shore.

For next year, Wallace predicted there is a heavy enough carry-over of corn borers—particularly on the Eastern Shore—to cause quite a bit of trouble next spring to corn, potatoes and wheat, if weather conditions and other factors are favorable for borer development.

Since corn borers over-winter as larvae in cornstalks, the best and most practical way to control this insect is to plow under the cornstalks. This will kill borers as they cannot emerge and develop once they are underground. On the Eastern Shore, cornstalks should be plowed under by April, 15. For the remainder of the State, plowing should be completed by May first, at the latest, Wallace said.

"Our Growing Edge"

MRS. MARTHA GLOTFELTY

My Chosen Political Party

For 22 years of my life I have been a member of the Republican party. During that time, I have sought to promote its growth, well-being and its effectiveness as far as I was able to do so.

Most of us are what we are in political affiliation, perhaps even religious beliefs because of our parents and the environment in which we were reared. Both my mother and father were members of the party, but in my own case I am not sure that is the only reason I am a member of it. During and since my high school days, I have studied phases of government, what the various parties have stood for, and their approaches to the solving of social, economic and international problems.

In my opinion, the Republican party, when in power and places of leadership, has shown much skill and efficiency in the cause of stable, wise and constructive government. It has encouraged the self-reliance of individuals as against reckless government spending, and absurd public programs which would have made our people subservient to an all powerful centralized government.

I think our Republican party has appealed to people for logic, for patience, for understanding in the solution of national problems. Never to my knowledge has it deliberately set class against class, but has appealed to all of us for national unity. If we have not followed this advice, it has not been because our national leaders have not urged us to do so.

The Republicon party was born in the cause of human freedom and justice and has been a constant champion for the rights of all the people. However it has held consistently that the function of government is to do for the people those things that have to be done but cannot be done by individuals for themselves.

I believe this party has produced men and women of ability, of honesty and of good leadership in the past and will do so in the future

I believe the Republican party has advocated beneficial measures in the cause of world peace, and has been an active champion for the advancement of under-privileged and less fortunate nations than our own.

I am neither so radical a party member, nor so naive that I believe the party has not made mistakes. However, on the whole, I think its record is a good one, and one of which we can be justly proud.

In the recent elections, we saw out party take set backs on every hand. An indomitable spirit on the part of all loyal party members here in this county can help to bring the party back stronger than ever. We should begin that process right now, and continually work at it.

Over 300 Expected At County Education Conference Dec. 2nd

Over three hundred parents and teachers are planning to attend the county-wide education conference to be held at the Dennett Road School Tuesday, December 2, according to Willard Hawkins, County Superintendent of Schools. Thirty discussion groups have been planned for the meeting, each group under the leadership of a parent. At least one teacher has been assigned to each group. A short opening talk by Mr. Hawkins will present some of the basic issues pertaining to the county public school program.

Discussion groups will center their thoughts around such issues as the purpose of education, the problem of the school board in securing competent and adequately trained teachers for the future, the relationship between the amount of money spent on education and its quality, needed curriculum changes, problems of discipline, preparation for college, emphasis on the training of bright children, dull children or all children, place and function of parent-teacher groups, and others.

The newly elected Senator, Delegates and County Commissioners have been invited as platform guests. Maurice Brookhart, Vice President of the Garrett County Board of Educaion, will preside. Special music will be presented by Mrs. Ruth Brown and some of her Southern High School students. Any interested parent or patron is invited.

Nine Deer Killed During Bow Season

Throughout the state a record total of 161 deer fell. George B. Shields, state game warden, said the total was 44 higher than the previous record set last year. Harford county had 41 kills, Frederick 25, and Worcester 21. Two new counties were added to the list this year, Garrett and St. Mary's. No deer were killed in St. Mary's county.

Season Opens December 1

The regular firearms season for male antlered deer will be December 1 to 6, from sunrise to sunset and will be opened to bow and arrow hunters as well as gunners. However, any bow hunter who made a kill during the special season will not be eligible since there is a limit of one deer per calendar year.

Last year 3,049 bucks were killed during the firearms season.

Who's Who At Northern High

By RUTH STANTON

Miss Shirley Meyers

Have you heard the yearbook might be ready to head for the publishers before Christmas? Do you know who the editor-in-chief is? It's Miss Shirley Meyers, senior, hailing from near Friendsville.

The blond haired, blue eyed miss is a member of the Northern Chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America. Shirley has brought recognition to Northern in the past by taking second place in the Future Business Leaders of America State Spelling Bee held at College Park last spring.

Shirley has a very friendly personality and her interests and hobbies include several. They are reading, friendly people, sewing, collecting recipes and earrings.

The 17-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Meyers has traveled in various parts of Maryland, West Virginia, Virginia, Pennsylvania, and Ohio. Some of the places which she visited which were of interest to her were the University of Maryland, Atlantic Ocean, and the largest naval base at Norfolk, Va.

With Shirley working very hard towards her ambition to edit a fine 1958-58 yearbook, which I'm sure it will be, she is a very active member in her church. She is a member of the Blooming Rose Methodist Church, where she was former president of the M. Y. F. Shirley is also a former vice-president of the Sub-District Methodist Youth Felllowship.

Civil Defense Day To Be Held Dec. 7th

Civil Defense day will be observed this year on Sunday, December 7, it was announced jointly by Sherley Ewing, director of Maryland Civil Defense agency, and Fred Tichnell, civil defense director for the county.

Emphasis for the day's observance will be on home and self protection, Tichnell said. He said pastors would be asked to discuss Civil Defense from their pulpits. Tichnell said attention would be directed to the many courses offered by Civil Defense in the county and the great variety of literature available for free distribution.

Local Farm-Home Market Described In U. S. Bulletin

The work of a group of women from county farms who recently completed their second successful operation of a "farm and home market" has caught the attention of the U. S. Department of Agriculture which has described their activities in the third annual report of the Rural Development program.

The report, which covers rural development operations in ten states and Puerto Rico, was forwarded to President Eisenhower. The women had been selling handicrafts, preserves and farm produce to summer visitors and tourists.

President Eisenhower said "The program has resulted in more opportunities through the introduction of new farm crops, expanded and more efficient farm marketing, off-farm jobs in newly established or enlarged rural industries, and vocational guidance and training."

The women established two separate markets with the help of development program leadership. The markets provided local farmers and housewives with an outlet for their products and also increased income as high as $40 weekly during the summer.

An interagency state committee with members from farm and nonfarm agencies contributing to area development, met for the first time in 1955 at which time Garrett county was selected as a pilot area. The program in Maryland was encouraged, the Department of Agriculture said, by farm leaders in the county to determine long-range economic and social trends and draw plans for needed improvements.

These include production and marketing of dairy and forest products, more off-jobs, handicraft production and improved educational facilities, the report said. Dr. Gordon M. Cairns, dean of agriculture at the University of Maryland, is general chairman of the planning group in the state.

NEWS FROM THE Ruth Enlow Library

BY EDITH BROCK

The Library will be closed all day on Thanksgiving Day, November 27. It will close at 5 o'clock on Wednesday, November 26, and will not be open for the usual Wednesday evening hours that day.

Gifts of books have been received from Miss Roberta Cogley and from Leroy Glotfelty.

A book in memory of Benny Epstein is being presented by Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McComas. This will be placed in the Grantsville Library.

"The March of Archaeology" the beautifully-illustrated new book by C. W. Ceram will be enjoyed by the many readers who have become interested in this subject in recent years. Mr. Ceram's earlier book, "God, Graves and Scholars" was for many people an exciting introduction to the romantic story of archaeology.

"Testimony of the Spade" by Geoffrey Bibby, a companion to "Gods, Graves and Scholars," was published in 1956. In introducing the reader to the archaeologists whose discoveries have led the way into the past, the book traces the story of the "barbarians" of northern Europe from their cave-dwelling ancestors to the time of Caesar and Tacitus.

Other books which describe recent archaeological expeditions include "The Seven Caves," by Carleton Coon; "Lost Cities" and "The Mountains of Pharoah" by Leonard Cottrell; "Nefertiti Lived Here" and "City in the Sand" by Mary Chubb; "Back of History" by William Howells; and "America's Ancient Civilizations" by A. H. Verrill. For the younger reader there is "Digging into Yesterday" by Friedman.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	I John	1	1-4
Monday	Luke	8	11-15
Tuesday	John	5	24-39
Wednesday	Proverbs	6	21-23
Thursday	Psalms	19	7-11
Friday	Deuteronomy	30	11-14
Saturday	Revelation	22	1-21

Through every generation and in every nation—people have looked for peace and security. Hundreds of volumes have been written on the subject and thinkers and writers have devoted their lives to the search.

But of all these books, the Bible is most concerned with peace and security. "Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed for I am your God."

No man-made philosophy can banish the worries and troubles of life. But in the gospel we find assurance of His care.

God loves us. When we go to Him in humility, He cleanses us of sin. Our minds are put at ease. Peace fills our souls.

Go then to the Book that Lives. Through study, prayer and worship we will find that peace which has been granted to millions in every corner of the globe. Discover anew your life through the Book that Lives.

Opposing Jesus

Lesson for November 23, 1958

WE COMPLAIN about other people on account of their faults. Suppose we met a man without fault? We should probably go right on complaining. We can be very critical of other people's sins; but suppose we met a sinless man for once? We should probably not know it; for we would, by long habit, go right on carping and complaining.

Dr. Foreman

This is not just imagination. That was precisely what happened to Jesus of Nazareth. Many wonderful stories cluster about him, but one of the most amazing facts is that he had enemies. You would think that surely when the Divine Love in human form "went about doing good," the welcome would be unanimous. But it was not.

Breaker of Patterns

We should not forget that Jesus did not die a natural death; he was murdered. And this not by some alley assassin, some mad crank. He was done to death by the forces of "law and order," by people high on the ladder of respectability. His opponents were not obscure persons from the criminal classes, they were people who had front seats in church. The murder on Calvary, for murder it was, like all events had its beginnings long before. What did Jesus do, what did he say, to induce solid and respected "pillars" of society to suspect, fear, hate him?

It was chiefly that he was a breaker of patterns. Those who disturb or even criticize other people's ways of life, ways of thought, always run into storms of opposition and abuse.

God on Our Streets

One of the familiar patterns that Jesus broke was theological, an idea about God. This idea-pattern was that God was far off, "high and lifted up," remote from the stirrings and scramblings of men. But Jesus said things, strange things such as forgiving the sins of a man who had not so much as opened his mouth to say "I repent;" so that it sounded as if he were actually claiming to be equal with God. A God in heaven men could understand, or thought they could. But a God who walks on our street, who talks to shady characters and even eats with them? A God focused in one human personality? No, this could not be, though the theologians, the Pharisees . . . and the spiritual descendants of the Pharisees to this very day oppose Christ, and the high claims made in his name, for the same reason.

"Our Way of Living"

For one person who opposed Jesus on theological grounds there must have been many more who opposed him on social grounds. Many church people will permit their preacher, for example, to have any theology he pleases; right left or center. But let the preacher move just a trifle to the left socially, and his resignation is requested. Jesus experienced this. He broke through old social patterns. It was thought then, just as many think today, that men can be measured by the social class to which they belong; and that there should never be crossing of class lines. Jesus broke with these old social patterns. "A man's a man for all that" describes his attitude to men. He knew that individuals are far more important than their class-status. But for this completely democratic attitude to men, he was opposed . . . and still is.

If Jesus stirred opposition by his claims to deity and his ignoring of many established social patterns, he aroused real horror in some people by his fresh and free attitude to moral problems. His healings on the Sabbath Day were cases in point. No one had a higher regard for the law of God than Jesus did. But his critics confused the law of God with their own interpretations of it. Jesus on the other hand would not believe that moral problems can be settled by formulas, or that the formulas of yesterday are always and invariably right for today. Laws are good; but Jesus did not accept even the law of Moses as God's last word. Jesus' approach to every moral problem was to ask, in effect, What is this doing to people?

FORD
ALL OTHER '59 CARS

AT THE BRUSSELS WORLD'S FAIR, the 59 Fords were awarded the Gold Medal for handsome new styling elegance by the Comité Français de l'Elégance.
The world's best-selling car is the car with Thunderbird elegance
In the greatest styling decision of the year, the American public has already shown a clear preference for the new Fords. Ford sales are way ahead of all competition. Why? One reason is the classic simplicity of their Thunderbird-inspired design—clean, crisp lines that are pure automobile! And Fords are built for people—to sit in, to drive, to ride in—with comfort.

ANYONE CAN FIT IN A FORD: Our cars are built for people—full-size people who want space to stretch out. And all passengers ride in deep-cushion comfort.
The car in hottest demand across the land has greater roominess and comfort
Thousands of customers have bought the new Ford over all competition for another compelling reason—it's a true six-passenger car. (The only four-passenger car we recommend is the Thunderbird!) All six Ford passengers get plenty of every kind of room—from leg and head to elbow and hip. Rear seat passengers don't feel like they're riding with their feet in a bucket!

YOU'LL BE THANKFUL EVERY TANKFUL if you buy the new Ford, for you'll save up to a dollar a tankful with new engines that run superbly on regular gas.
The No. 1 car in sales saves money on gas, on oil, on maintenance bills
A new Ford will save you up to 5¢ a gallon on gas. That's because both standard engines—Six or Thunderbird V-8—thrive on regular gas. And Ford saves on oil, too, with a Full-Flow Oil Filter as standard equipment. Drive 4000 miles between oil changes! And you can forget about waxing your car. Ford's Diamond Lustre Finish stays gleaming bright without waxing—ever!

THE FAMOUS FORD LOW PRICES have already made a hit, because only in Fords will you find value and beauty coming together at down-to-earth prices!
The most popular American car is priced as much as $102.75 lower
Ford costs you less right down the line than the competition. Compare price tags and you'll see that the manufacturer's suggested retail price of a Ford, equipped with radio, heater and automatic transmission, is as much as $102.75 less than the major competition! And on an air-conditioned car, you can save up to $219.85. So compare and save on a 1959 Ford!

Unless a proceeding to foreclose the right of redemption is filed within two years of the date of the certificate of sale, the certificate shall be void and all rights of the holder of the certificate shall cease and all money received by the Treasurer on account of said sale shall be deemed forfeited. Upon foreclosure and payment of the balance of the purchase price, and all taxes, interest, penalties and costs, which have accrued in the meantime, the Treasurer will execute a deed which will vest in the purchaser an absolute and indefeasible title in fee simple in the property, free and clear of all alienations and descents.

The right of redemption continues until foreclosed as above, upon payment of the whole amount of money received by the Treasurer from the sale of the property, together with interest at six percent (6%) per annum from the date of sale to the date of redemption, together with all taxes, interest and penalties accrued which have been paid by the holders of the certificate of sale and the total disbursements of the holder of the certificate of sale made in accordance with law. All costs as to examination of title, preparation of deed, Court costs and other expenses accruing after the sale must be assumed by the purchaser.

JOSEPH H. WELCH
Treasurer of Garrett County, Maryland.

No. 4887 Equity in the Circuit Court for Garrett County, Maryland.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

The object of this suit is to procure a decree for a divorce A VINCULO MATRIMONII by the plaintiff from the defendant.

The Bill states:

That on the 30th day of May, 1955, she was married to the said Willis Leroy Herman, with whom she resided until October 19, 1956; that although the conduct of your oratrix toward her husband, the said Willis Leroy Herman, has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, the said Willis Leroy Herman, has, without just cause or reason abandoned and deserted her, and has declared his intention to live with her no longer, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for more than eighteen months, is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation; that your oratrix and the said defendant, Willis Leroy Herman, have had one child born of said marriage, to-wit, Kimberly B. Herman, age nineteen months; that the said defendant is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, and resides at 1427 North Wells Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and your oratrix is now, and has been for more than one year prior to the filing of this bill, a resident of Garrett County, Maryland.

The bill then prays for a divorce A VINCULO MATRIMONII of the plaintiff from the defendant, for general relief and for an order of publication.

It is thereupon this 18th day of November, 1958, by the Circuit Court for Garrett County, Maryland, in Equity, that the plaintiff by having a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Garrett County, Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the 12th day of December, 1958, giving notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of this bill, warning him to be and appear in this Court, either in person or by solicitor, on or before the 27th day of December, 1958, to show cause, if any he has, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

MARRIED

Selby - Edwards—A pretty wedding took place at the Grantsville Methodist church on Saturday evening, November 1, at 7 o'clock, when Miss Donna Rae Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Edwards, Grantsville, became the bride of Ross Selby, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Selby, Sr., of Friendsville.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Emory McGraw, pastor, in a candlelight service.

Before the ceremony, Donald Newman sang "O Promise Me," and "The Lord's Prayer," and Miss Helen Selby, Friendsville, sister of the groom sang "Because," accompanied by the organist, Mrs. Betty Landis. A program of nuptial music and the traditional wedding marches were presented by the organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a street length gown of off white satin brocaded in gold with quarter length sleeves, princess style, scoop neckline and a finger tip veil with matching pumps. She carried a bouquet of white roses buds on a white Bible caught with white satin streamers. She wore a wedding ring which belonged to her maternal great great grandmother, Mrs. Frank Goss.

Mrs. Judy Lawson, cousin of the bride, served as matron of honor. She wore a peacock blue taffeta street length gown with short sleeves, scoop neckline and princess style with a bow in the back and matching pumps, hat and veil. She carried a bouquet in form of a corsage of Harvest Moon carnations tied with blue streamers.

Eddie Resh, of Accident, was best man and Edgar Mickey, of Grantsville, and Rodger DiRienzo, of Meyersdale, served as ushers.

Miss Viola Broadwater cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Shirley Oshinsky, of Grindstone, Pa., cousin of the bride presided at the punch bowl, assisted by Mrs. Audrey Edwards, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Irva Mickey.

By DICK CASTILOW

There was a good time had by all at the Teen Age Club Friday night. A few problems had arisen but were quickly ironed over. This was further proof of Mr. Tichnell's efficiency.

This week is the record hop and we all hope to hear all the newest platters. The spinning will be done by Bob Brinker. Bob is the music director at WCUM in Cumberland. There always seems to be a large turn out when we hold our monthly record hops.

In a couple of weeks the Royales will play to what we hope will be a capacity crowd. We should like to have a large turnout from Northern for this special activity.

As you may well see we are trying to bring some variety into the agenda of Teen Club.

By the way, The Royales will play at Silver Lake this Saturday night from 7:30 til 11:00. There are no alcoholic drinks sold there.

The week's top tunes are as follows according to the Billboard survey: Kingston Trio leaps to the top with "Tom Dooley." Following is Conway Twitty's "It's Only Make Believe" and third "It's All in the Game" by Tommy Edwards.

We are all hoping to see a lot of the Ivy Leaguers this year. All these boys are seniors. They are very active in school and community activities. We will be sure to see them often at some of the dances this year. They are a fine group with a lot of talent.

Be sure to drive with both arms. It may not be as comfortable but it is much safer.

Attend Workshop

Roy Broadwater, Accident, Mrs. Marie B. Martin, Mt. Lake Park, and Mrs. Velma D. Sweitzer, Loch Lynn, attended a workshop meeting for managers and representatives of an educational corporation last Saturday at Berkeley Springs, W. Va. Mr. Broadwater, who recently won a watch valued at $1,000 in a contest, now a regional manager in the corporation, presided.

Mrs. Martin, an area manager, discussed the need for remedial reading material in the home and school, for the slow reader. Mrs. Martin recently won a citation from the company for outstanding achievement and sales accomplishment. Mrs. Sweitzer stressed the importance of the pre-school educational program. Forty-five attended. A turkey dinner was served.

Thanksgiving . . . . .

"We are grateful for the plentiful yield of our soil and for the blessings of food and clothing and shelter that have succored us throughout the year.

"We rejoice in the beauty of our land; in every brave and generous act of our fellow man; and in the counsel and comfort of our friends. We deeply appreciate the preservation of those ideals of liberty and justice which form the basis of our national life and the hope of international peace. For these and all the many spiritual and temporal benefactions betokening God's goodness, we offer up our prayers of gratitude.

"Let us be especially grateful for the religious heritage bequeathed to us by our forebears as exemplified by the Pilgrims, who, after the gathering of their first harvest, set apart a special day for rendering thanks to God for the bounties vouchsafed to them.

"Let us in our homes and in our accustomed places of worship give due expression of our thanks for the blessings which have signalized our lot as a nation, and let us ask for guidance in our striving for a better world for all men."

There's nothing really new about Thanksgiving. As declared in a church publication this week, "Maybe the most striking truth is simply that there is nothing new. In a world that strives constantly for change, the most encouraging factor in life could very well be the assurance that there are some things that don't change. Humanity and the basic laws which govern our world have an encouraging stability. Our God is a God of order. There's really nothing new to give thanks for this year. And that could very well be the best possible reason for giving thanks."

So let us humbly give our thanks in our best traditional manner.

Only Light Snowfall

The past week has been a continuation of rather ideal fall weather. The predicted snow did not materlialize and most of the days have been clear but cool.

There was a slight snowfall on Saturday, and rain fell on Wednesday. There were predictions for colder weather and a heavy snow, but whether or not these would materialize was problematical.

Lake Cottage Burns Near Camp Paradise

The cottage was located in the vicinity of Camp Paradise, on the point across from the Boy Scout camp, and was owned by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Kingsley, of Pittsburgh.

The cottage is in a rather isolated area and the flames had gained much headway before the alarm was turned in. Oakland firemen, called to the scene, succeeded in saving an outboard motor boat and a small sailing boat which were under the front porch.

Firemen said no one was occupying the building at the time of the fire but that Mrs. Kingsley had been there over the past week-end. They learned of the ownership of the cottage by the address on a partially burned magazine and got in touch with Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley shortly after the firemen returned to Oakland. The loss was estimated at $8,000. The cottage was of frame and stone and had just been completed this past summer, it was stated.

They were called to the construction site of the new overhead bridge at Weber crossing Monday morning about 6:45 when a stove had ignited a tarpaulin covering some recently laid concrete. The fire also damaged some timbers in the covered area.

They were called last Saturday morning about 10:30 to extinguish a flue fire at the former Will Weber property across from Southern High school. The overheated flue burned a hole in the roof before being brought under control. The building is presently occupied by Clarence Crosco.

The fourth alarm came when fire from a trash can ignited a coal house on the property of Timothy Moon, in Mt. Lake Park, last Thursday afternoon about 2 o'clock. The coal house was completely destroyed.

More About Grandparents

It was our opinion last week that the grandmother story was a record. The story told of Terry Sue Johnson, of Dayton, O., who had nine grandparents.

The story this week is that Sylvia Lynn Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Snyder of the Snyder Butcher shop at Gortner has eleven grandparents. They are Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Snyder, Gortner; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mize, Vienna, Va.; great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Snyder, Red House; Mr. and Mrs. Z. L. Mellott, Swallow Falls; Mrs. Hallie Allen, Lexington, N. C.; Richard Gentry, Mayodan, N. C.; Treacy Mize, Danville, Va. Their ages range from 38 to 76.

To Feature Movie

A movie, "Century Into Focus," will be featured at the regular meeting of the Knights of Pythias lodge in Castle Hall on Friday evening, November 28, at 7:30 o'clock.

Dick Stuck To Be Next Eagle Scout

Qualifies For Award At Council Board Of Review

Richard Stuck, fifteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Stuck, of Second street, Oakland, became eligible to receive the award of Eagle Scout following a council board of review in Cumberland last Tuesday evening.

Stuck, a member of the Oakland Explorer post, has been in cubbing and scouting for the past five years. He was one of eight explorers and scouts to qualify for the award, but was the only one from the Deep Creek district.

After passing the required twenty-one merit badges all scouts applying for rank of Eagle must go before the council Board of Review for final questioning as to their service to their church and community as well as to their troop. Records of all eight boys will be forwarded to the National Scout council for final action. Eagle badges will be awarded by the sponsoring institutions, in the case of Stuck, by the Oakland-Mt. Lake Park Lions club, as soon as the national headquarters gives its approval.

Stuck is a sophomore student at Southern. He will be the 20th Eagle scout for Oakland troop 31, which came into existence in 1924. Stuck has enough merit badges in addition to those required for Eagle scout to obtain an Eagle palm. He is on the Southern High honor roll, is active in football and basketball and is a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship. He also is working toward his "God and Country" award in scouting.

The completion of the present remodeling, at a cost of $7,000 to $8,000, was under direction of Frank Wright, of Addison. This included replacing of beams along basement walls, on floor in vestibule, sanctuary and class rooms; recessing of the and class rooms, recessing of the Good Shepherd picture, and extension of the platform with open chancel. Deer Season To Open December 1

The annual deer hunting season will open Monday, December 1, and will continue until sundown Saturday evening, December 6. During this period it will be lawful to kill bucks with two or more points to one antler and spike bucks with three inch antler.

The small game season, which began November 15, will be suspended during the deer season, but will be resumed Monday, December 8 and will continue until January.

Many hunters already have made reservations in private homes, boarding houses and other places and it was estimated that some 2,500 hunters would be in the woods at least during the first few days of the season.

Hunters will attempt to surpass the all-time record of 698 kills made during the 1957 season. In 1955 there were 608 killed. The limit is one buck per year per hunter.

Game regulations stipulate it is lawful to hunt deer while there is snow on the ground but they may be killed only with a rifle that develops over 1,200 foot pounds of muzzle energy. Shotguns loaded with pumpkin ball or slug may also be used. Bow hunters may also hunt during this time, except those who made a kill during the special bow and arrow season will not be eligible. Nine deer were killed during the bow season this year, the first in history for Garrett county.

There will be five deer checking stations in this county where deer must be checked as soon as possible after being killed. It is unlawful to remove the head or hide or other parts except internal organs, or cut up the meat until the deer has been reported and weighed at one of the checking stations.

Stations in the county will include the residence of Harold Harmon, at King's Run; Edwards Garage in Grantsville; Murphy's Service Station at Friendsville; Matt Storey's store at Deep Creek Lake. The station at the sheriff's office has been abandoned. There is no longer a checking station at Swanton. Hunters in that area may take their deer to Westernport. Deer also may be checked at the LaVale police barracks in Allegany county.

Additional district game wardens from other counties of the state will be assigned to Western Maryland during the six-day season.

Game Warden Leo Friend said that contrary to some false reports issued in Allegany county and other parts of the state in recent days, deer seem to be just as plentiful as ever in Garrett county. He anticipated a successful season.

Needed Legislation Will Be Discussed At Meeting Dec. 8

County legislators have arranged for a meeting with interested persons for discussion of possible legislation, which will be held Monday afternoon, December 8, at 1 o'clock.

Attending the session will be State Senator Bernard I. Gonder, Delegates Leslie E. Savage, Elbert Buckel, and Elza Bray; and County Commissioners Fred B. Glotfelty, Elra Garletts and Carl A. Schell.

Mr. Gonder said he was particularly anxious for any person who had any problems or ideas of needed legislation, to appear at the meeting and make his wants known. He said the legislators would be glad to hold hearings in reference to legislation which is requested to be introduced or supported. Persons or organizations interested in legislative matters are particularly invited to attend.

Mr. Gonder said he was of the opinion that the entire delegation would be able to work in harmony and give a sympathetic ear to all ideas presented.

All members of the legislature were scheduled to attend a meeting in Annapolis on Wednesday. The meeting which was considered an orientation session, was called by Dr. Carl N. Everstine, director of the Department of Legislative Reference. The meeting was to be held at the State House and was to be of benefit to those delegates elected to office for the first time. Some twenty-eight or more delegates were elected to office for the first time and would be considered "green" in regard to the processes involved in introducing and passing legislation.

There has been no organization meeting of the Garrett County delegation up to the present time, but it was generally assumed that Mr. Savage would be named chairman for the delegation, since he was high man on the ticket.

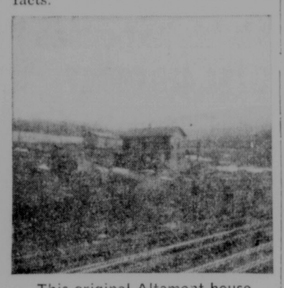
Altamont—The Summit

By W. W. PRICE

After three months of reading, checking, talking and enjoyment, we have reached a tentative conclusion concerning history. History is a system of elaborate guesswork plus a large array of conflicting opinions and quite a few stable facts.



This original Altamont house stood until 1954

Now, as to the history of Altamont, we may suggest two divisions of that review into the existence and the disappearance of a mountain village beside the railroad at the summit of the Allegheny mountains. These divisions: The period before the white man reached the mountains and afterward until the building of the railroad, then the railroad period until the present.

We have been told by other writers that Indian races traveled over the Allegheny mountains during the open seasons of the year in search of game and in fighting each other. It is said that the area we know as Green Glade was a favorite hunting and summer camping ground. As far as we know, this is true and so is everything else concerning that far-away period of human evolution when red men fought for survival in these rough mountains.

We have it on general authority that about the year 1650 a race of Indians called the Iroquois, from what is now New York state, came south and wiped out a tribe of Indians in this region called the Eries, or Cat. Why the second name "Cat"? Because these poor devils had some glimmering of right and wrong and drew a red line from the heart of their tribal totem, the panther, to its mouth. Thus, said the Eries, the seat of the soul is in the heart and from this organ is sent forth through the mouth in words. The Iroquois ignored this suggestion of civilized reasoning and proceeded to cut out the heart of every Erie Indian they could catch. Thus, we may as well leave this welter of screams and blood and begin looking for palefaces on the slopes of the Alleghenies.

We are not long in finding them after the year 1700. White men came over the mountains to trade with the Indians. The Gists, Cresaps, Fraziers and McCulloughs ignored the risk of sudden death and found their way into the Indian country. The white man brought glittering goods the Indians had never seen. They brought whiskey in stone jugs. The combination captured the imagination of the savage.

These years of probing the American frontier were followed by a conflict of French and English commercial interests. The Indians lined up on the side of the French. They fought and won for a time. The combination sent General Braddock to his unmarked grave on Allegheny ground just north of what is now Altamont. "Just north!" Well yes, a few miles as time and circumstances go. . . . up in Pennsylvania, and then screaming red men plunged eastward over the Alleghenies and the white man paid in blood, agony and death for his invasion of these silent, treacherous, mysterious heights of land we call the Appalachian range.

Did that stop the white man?

Nothing stopped the white man who must go west. He paid his toll of scalps, inexpressible physical agony, the blessing of death, and always his kind came from salt waters to the foot of the Alleghenies and crawled upward toward the challenge and the promise and, sometimes, the rewards of the land beyond this seemingly endless chain of upthrust rock and furmuring forest. Their boats were tossing against the skyline of the sea, they sailed as far as they could go up the salt bays, they followed the Patuxent, the Susquehanna, the Potowmack and then went on afoot, on horse, or whatever way chance provided. This is part of the astounding heritage of Americans and of Marylanders. . . .that these people would not turn back . . . .that they must search always for the easier way over the mountains and having found an acceptable route, stubbornly hang to its direction until a road had been cut through the wilderness.

We are familiar with G. Washington, Nemacolin, Gist and Cresap, who had a part in cutting the military road over these mountains, the road we now identify as US 40; that road we travel with only the primary thought of not getting killed by another automobile and of getting to where we want to go in a helluva hurry. "Quit swearing!" Okay, okay. . . don't deal with fact. . . just fancy!

We are not familiar with one, Francis Deakins, a surveyor who followed Washington by a few years and surveyed, blazed and hacked out a route through what is now Garrett County for a wagon road. Not for military glory, fame or undying homage. . . just for coin and profit. . .for commercial purposes. But, the job Deakins did was vital in holding together this nation on each side of the mountains. How vital a part this Inter-State Road played in our affairs is made clear in an excellent article by Mr. Felix Robinson, editor, of Tableland Trails, published this summer.

The Inter-State road passed within sight of what later became Altamont. It came across a ravine near the present home of Thomas Lohr, wound up the hillside and topped a ridge just west of the present intersection of Turkey Neck road and Highway 135. This road contiued southwestward toward Oakland, or what is now Oakland. The route of that pioneer wagon road can be identified in 1958 by a telephone trunkline paralelling the unpaved road on the ridge.

After the building of this old wagon road, fifty years of more would pass before a railroad reached the Summit. In this interval, primitive roads began to appear leading into the cross-country Inter-State Road. One of these connecting roads left the Inter-State on the ridge, passed eastward through the later site of Altamont toward Backbone Mountain. Its course was down the hillside of what later became the Old Tobacco Field, now owned by Herman Schmidt, across the low gap and wound around the hillside now crossed by the paved highway to Kitzmiller, Maryland. This road curved around the present Elwood Lee bungalow (then the two-story Herman Beckman house), and forked just beyond where the telephone trunkline passed toward the mountain.

The lefthand fork of the connecting road followed the present line of the telephone wires, going by the log church—Our Father's House—and after the year 1850, crossed the railroad at Wilson.

Returning to the forks of the connecting road, we find the right-hand branch passing through what became Altamont. Beyond the present William H. Schmidt house, this road went down the hillside, crossed over the railroad, after 1850, and passed toward Backbone Mountain to join another early road that came from the direction of Boiling Springs and the Ryan Glades community. At this point we may as well admit that to positively identify all the pioneer roads in the vicinity of Altamont is a fine example of history's elaborate guesswork, which we will leave to someone else.

Remember the surveyor, Francis Deakins, the man who first used a compass to fix the western boundary of Maryland. . . .and failed? He ran a boundary all right, but politicians and citizens did not take his line as the western boundary of Maryland. However, this matter is far better handled by Mr. Harold Fortney in his Master's thesis on the Fairfax stone and boundary disputes. To get back to Deakins. . . .

The governor and Assembly of Maryland on June 11, 1787, commissioned Francis Deakins to run off military lots "on the manors, reserves and confiscated lands to the westward of Fort Cumberland". Mr. Deakins set to work near the mouth of Savage river, and ended up by having laid off and surveyed 4,165 lots of about 50 acres each. On one of these lots, Lot Number 1168, Altamont was later established. The lots in question were called Military Lots and offered as bonus to soldiers of the Maryland line in the Revolutionary War. We believe it was Charles E. Hoye, Maryland historian, who said only two lots were taken up in this area by Revolutionary soldiers . . . Dudley Lee and Michael Paugh. However, the land speculators had a high old time and no doubt did the prospective purchasers. It was "caveat emptor" for that deal and no joking!

Someone tells us that they have checked the County Land Map of 1874 and that Altamont was not and is not on Lot Number 1168 at all. Very true according to that Land Map. However, the present Map Division of the County Deparment of Assessments is working on correlating the old surveys with present land ownership by aerial surveys and other methods. So records, such as deeds and mortgages in the hands of property owners now living at Altamont, established the fact that Altamont was on Lot Number 1168. At the time Lot Number 1168 was marked and numbered in the Deakins Survey, there was probably no town in Maryland named Altamont. There likely was a place called Summit Point noted in his report.

Summit Point appears to be southeast of the present site of Altamont. It occupied Lots Number 1185 and 1186 and would seem to lie on ground near the true summit of the mountain about where the present fire tower overlooks Altamont. This is named on the Land Map of 1874.

In the local tradition of Altamont community there was a place known as Summit before the coming of the railroad. Some men have suggested that there was a store at the point also and doing business long before any store opened at what is now Deer Park.

The land around Altamont and of the town site itself was owned by Wilsons and Hoyes. There was a Mr. Hoye who had a blacksmith shop just across the lane from the present home of Mr. J. G. Woods Mr. Woods has found pieces of iron at the site where the old shop stood. This would seem to have been in existence prior to the building of the railroad.

West end of Altamont Cut

This matter of wagon roads and of blacksmith shops is very vitally related to the existence and survival of pioneer communities. Wagon roads are inseparable from human settlement if that settlement grows and has any period of significant life. Wagon roads preceded the railroads in America. Some wagon roads disappeared and their importance almost vanished with the coming of the railroads. The wheel of fortune seems to have turned full circle . . . .the railroads are being abandoned in certain localities and highways are taking over the carrying of all commerce and providing a way of passenger travel where once the trains sufficed.

As we approach the building of the railroad over the Allegheny mountains, let us remember that the people of this region were active people. They traveled on foot and on horse. They visited and went to market. This magazine has carried an account from an early newspaper of a Fourth of July celebration at Gortner in 1834.

A Dr. Lewis Klipstine read the Declaration of Independence at that patriotic gathering, presided over by Meshack Browning. There was a Klipstine family who lived near the site of Altamont. Their house was near the head of Mutton Hollow. We do not know what relation they may have been to Dr. Klipstine, but there could have been a close relationship.

Destiny would soon mark a new trail over the Allegheny mountains. Steel rails were being laid down that year of 1834. They would ascend the Valley of Crabtree and they would reach a new summit in engineering and our destiny as a people; a people who had been longing for a new chance in the western heart of America. Within about fifteen years there would be, as some say, "one hellabaloo" going on at this cut on top of the mountains. . . .at this place called Altamont by some smart scholar who knew his Latin and a gift for applying it to spots where gangs of wild Irishmen ripped their way through rock and mud.

These comments concerning Altamont may seem too far-fetched and removed from facts. However, when one is dealing with people anywhere, it may be well to remember that fiction always tries to be reasonable and "like life".

The facts of existence as History colors them run more to that course described by a late and perceptive philosopher on the American scene, Mr. Alfred North Whitehead, who concluded . . . "History exceeds all limitations of common sense".

In another issue of The Glades Star we hope to present a rather accurate account of the physical aspects of Altamont town. As to the people who lived there we can only include a reasonable guess as to their thoughts and their contributions to our local history.

The American Way

Story Of A Suppressed Report

By JOHN T. FLYNN

I assume no intelligent American now needs to be told that the Supreme Court of the United States in a long string of decisions, has given a new lease on life to the communist conspiracy here. You need not take my word for this. The communists themselves are now among the staunchest defenders of the Warren Court. But this whole shocking situation has had strange repercussions in some very unusual places.

For instance, you would expect that the group of people who would be most concerned about the Supreme Court's unconstitutional acts would be the lawyers of America. A great number of them are banded together in a well-known and even distinguished organization called the American Bar Association. The American Bar Association—or ABA, as it is often called—is the membership organization of the attorneys of the United States.

The American Bar Association has a Special Committee on Communist Tactics, Strategy and Objectives. This committee is made up of a group of distinguished lawyers. Its recent chairman was Mr. Peter Campbell Brown, Corporation Counsel of the City of New York. This past summer, the American Bar Association held its annual meeting. Mr. Campbell's committee had been working for a long time on a report covering the subject which the committee was named to study—communist tactics, strategy and objectives. It submitted this report to the annual meeting of the ABA—and I would say it is perhaps one of the most important ever to come before the Association.

The report is a masterly analysis of communist strategy and tactics here in America, and the manner in which communist objectives are being put over on us. The analysis is not hearsay or opinion. It cites chapter and verse—in other words, gives complete authority for every startling statement it makes about the inroads of the communist conspiracy in the United States. Most important, it summarizes no less than twenty decisions—the majority of them rendered by the Warren Supreme Court—which aid and abet these communist tactics. And it winds up with a list of sane and sober recommendations designed to save America from the communist conspirators.

Now what happened to this eye-opening report, put together by a group of distinguished attorneys, when it was submitted to the American Bar Association? The amazing answer is — nothing. Nothing at all was done about it. Not only that, but it looks as though somebody or some group in the ABA actually attempted to suppress the report. Somehow or other a few copies got around. Senator Bridges of New Hampshire put it into the Congressional Record. Then people began writing to the American Bar Association for copies. And they got back, not a copy of the report, but a very strange answer. They were told that "any release of the report was premature" and that "copies are therefore not available for distribution."

The kindest explanation I can make of this action is that the minds of some powerful members of the ABA have been permeated by the baleful notion that the Supreme Court can do no wrong and is therefore above criticism. If this it true, it is one more indication of how far we have strayed from our traditional concept of a government for free men. The word "supreme" in the phrase "Supreme Court" means simply that the Court is the highest tribunal in the federal court system. It does not mean that its members are supreme over Congress, the President, the States and the people. It was this very notion—the notion that the "king can do no wrong"—which the founders of our republic wanted to kill for all time in America. It didn't make any difference whether it was a king or a president or a parliament—or a court. Any one alone—or all together—could become a tyrant if proper safeguards were not set up to prevent such tyranny.

At any rate, I hope it was this—an effort to protect the Supreme Court from criticism—which accounts for the American Bar Association's odd behavior, and not something worse. It would be pretty terrible to contemplate the ABA not only protecting the Supreme Court from criticism, but the communist conspiracy as well.

However, I am delighted to see that the ABA has not been completely successful in supressing this alarming report by its own committee. America's Future, Inc., a non-profit educational organization, has had the fortitude and patriotism to reprint the report and make it available to any interested American. If you would like a copy—and I assure you, you will find it well worth your while—just write to America's Future, Inc., 542 Main Street, New Rochelle, N. Y. Ask for a copy of the ABA Report and enclose 10 cents to cover cost of printing and postage.

Opposed to Sunday As Election Day

Dear Sir:

How many of Garrett county's citizens would like to see the Sabbath Day used as Election Day?

Senator Langer, of North Dakota, intends to introduce a bill into Congress in January to change Election Day to the first Sunday in November.

Christian people, awake! Some have already proposed a law to make registration and voting compulsory. Thus we would be faced with a clear-cut and unavoidable choice between obeying God's commandment, or Man's law. No real Christian will go to the polls on Sunday.

We suggest you send a letter or telegram to Senator William Langer, Senate Office building, Washington, D. C., and make your protest while there is still an opportunity to defeat this proposed law.

Your truly,
ERNEST G. GNEGY

Services Held For Man Killed By Falling Tree

Funeral services for Garland Ray Feaster, 36, of Beryl, W. Va., who was crushed to death last Wednesday when he was struck by a falling tree on Backbone Mountain, about two miles west of Bloomington, in this county, were held Saturday afternoon from the Beryl Presbyterian chapel.

Interment was in Philos cemetery, Westernport. The victim was working on a timber-cutting operation with a son, James R. Feaster, who is 17.

The son told authorities that he and his father had sawed almost through a large hickory tree and his father had mounted a tractor to pull the tree down. The tree glanced off another standing tree and fell into the tractor, killing Mr. Feaster instantly.

Born in Maysville, W. Va., he had resided at Beryl 18 years. He was an employe of the Luke mill and ran a timber cutting operation as a sideline. He was a veteran of World War II.

Surviving besides his son and parents are his widow; another son and daughter, at home; three brothers including Charles Feaster, route 4, Swanton, and a sister.

Thanksgiving Tea Held

At this time Sharon Turney received her wings, membership star and was invested by the leaders with the girl scout pin. A Thanksgiving prayer, poem and music were provided by the girls. Entertainment included movies and games. Refreshments were served to 14 girl scouts, 15 guests and three leaders.

Bloomington Names Group To Study Problem of Sewage

Establishment of a sanitary district in Bloomington as an initial step towards securing a sewage disposal system for the town was suggested to a large group of property owners at a public meeting last week in Bloomington school.

The suggestion came from Charley Miller, Sanitarian for the county health department, and P. C. Dodge and T. W. Shives, sanitary engineers for the Maryland Department of Health.

Such a district could be established by an amendment to a present state law. With establishment of the district it would be possible for the district commissioners appointed to borrow money from the county for financing a preliminary engineering survey to prepare plans and to estimate costs on a sewage disposal system. Repayment of the loan would be by additional taxes on property owners.

The suggestion also was made by the visitors that sewage from the town could be carried in an eight-inch pipe line down to Luke to connect with the line from the paper mill to the sewage disposal plant. Citizen reaction was that the cost of a pipe line to Luke would be considerably more than the property owners could afford.

Objection was also made to the suggestion of a sanitary district. Most of those present felt that more information on the probable cost of a sewer system should be available before any action is taken.

A committee was appointed to investigate costs and report at a future meeting. On the committee were Richard Howard, chairman; Harry Kohne and Victor H. Harvey. The meeting had been called by sanitary officials of the county.

BITTINGER

4-H Club Program

The Girls' 4-H club of Bittinger will be presenting an achievement program, November 28, at the Bittinger school. At this program the girls will tell of some of their achievements during the year. A skit, "The Senator's Visit" will be presented to point out how 4-H can teach people to do things in the best possible way. Various girls from the club will tell about demonstrations and the style review. A vesper service will conclude the program. The girls will make the refreshments and serve them to the guests.

Listen Americans!

President of Harding College

When Congress adjourned a few weeks ago it had appropriated more money to be spent in this fiscal year than in any peace-time year in the history of our nation. This authorization for record spending comes at a time when the citizens already are beset with inflation—with an eroding of the value of their dollars of income and their dollars of savings. The government officials responsible for formulating the federal budget informed the Congressmen as they were leaving that in the five years ahead the budgets would average $80 billion a year—for a total spending of $400 billion.

Present taxes won't produce that kind of money. To meet this year's record of $72 billion of expenditures, the government must borrow at least $12 billion. This borrowing will be done largely through the banks. No wealth will have been created to put the extra billions into circulation. The federal government will merely give the banks paper promises to pay—"federal securities." The deficit spending will dilute the value of all money earned and held by the citizenry.

In addition to federal deficit spending, state and local governments likewise are boosting budgets to record highs, and many of them are borrowing money. All this local, state and federal government spending of borrowed money adds to the amount of money in circulation without adding to the amount of goods and services available. And this phase of inflation has been going on for years. In 20 years our money supply has increased 275 percent while the rate of production of industrial goods has increased only 119 percent, and our population has increased only 35 percent. In this period the buying power of the dollar has been more than cut in half.

In many cases—especially in industrial employment—"real" income has more than kept pace with inflation because of continuing wage increases. Hardest hit have been the people on fixed incomes—pensions, insurance annuities, interest on stocks and bonds, and so forth. The future danger of inflation, however, threatens the prosperity of everyone. When the income-price cycle continues its leapfrogging climb year after year our whole productive structure is threatened.

Twenty years ago a big machine in an aircraft plant in Topeka, giving two men a productive capacity bigger than four men previously had, cost $300,000. Today this machine could not be replaced for $900,000—three times the original cost. Under the depreciation deduction schedule permitted by the federal taxation codes, the aircraft company is not compensated for this increase due to inflation. Thus the company must spend more profit dollars to keep production going at a rate to meet competition. This is a factor in rising prices, and in recent years it has become a factor in slowing down the rate of capital investment.

When capital investments slow down, the creation of new jobs slow down accordingly. We need to create in the United States approximately 1,000,000 new jobs each year to take care of our younger generation coming of age. The investment of more than $12,000 is required, on the average, to create each new job.

In recent years, inflation and personal taxes as high as 91% of income have combined to slow down the flow of investment capital. This is an alarming situation for every citizen.

THE PRICE OF PRESCRIPTIONS

One reason why people may be surprised at the price of their prescription is because it isn't a regular expense item like other (and often more expensive) items such as dinner out, auto repairs or clothes for the kids. Yet the savings afforded in prevention of hospitalization or loss of job time more than make up for the price of the prescription. Making GOD Wait

Who comes first in your life? Yourself? Others? or God? Usually that's the order most people live. Someone has said that "there are 200 things to join" waiting in this life to absorb the energy, loyalty and spare time of the American Youth. Most of these things are legitimate and good as far as this life is concerned; but, they are selfish because they seek to please "self first". The well ordered life demands that God comes first in everything. We were "created by Him and for Him". We are for His glory—not He for ours. I'm afraid that God is put on the waiting list until we have satisfied our desires. God is nothing more than a spare tire to some people. He is someone to be kept in mind in case of any emergency! No wonder things are so topsy turvey in this world! The scriptures tell how plainly however, "Be not deceived, God is not mocked!" and again in Proverbs 1:28, "Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer them: they shall seek me early, but they will not find me". How much better it is to "Seek ye the Lord while He may be found" and to "Seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness!"

Explorer Program Is Outlined During Training Session

A training session to outline the new explorer program of the Boy Scouts of America, which goes into effect the first of the year, was held over the week-end at Camp Potomac, near Oldtown. Attending the session was Kenneth Johns, explorer adviser to Post 31, Oakland.

The new program was developed after several years of research about the mid-adolescent boy and his leaders. Beginning January 1 boys may become Explorers when they are fourteen and in the ninth grade or higher, or when fifteen regardless of grade. Boys presently enrolled in the Boy Scouts will have their choice of joining an Explorer unit or becoming "senior scouts" in their present organization. Boys transferring to the new Explorer unit may continue working toward Eagle rank. Boys entering the program for the first time also will have an opportunity to earn this rank although emphasis on advancement will be de-emphasized.

Activities will receive greater emphasis in Exploring. A development of the new Exploring is the specialty which enables Exploring to appeal to young men through special interests. "The new program opens a whole new field of interest to young men," Mr. Johns said. "The operation and organization of the new program resembles a young men's club. Boys who have never been associated with scouting can find it exciting and stimulating."

The local post, sponsored by the Oakland-Mt. Lake Park Lions club, is open to new members. Boys interested may contact either Mr. Johns or Jerry DiSimone, vice-president in charge of membership.

The program will be outlined on a special TV program Saturday, November 29, at 4:30 by Bob Hope.

Airman Knotts Gets Air Defense Duty

Airman Second Class Allen P. Knotts, 21, son of Mrs. Mabel Knotts of Box 213, Oakland, has been assigned to duty with Headquarters Chicago Air Defense Sector, Truax Friield, Madison, Wisconsin.

Airman Knotts, a communications center specialist, arrived at Truax Field from Fuchu-Hagashi Air Force Station, Honshu, Japan, where he was assigned to the 1956th Airways and Air Communications Service Squadron.

Entering the Air Force in June, 1956, Airman Knotts received basic airman military training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, then was further assigned to F. E. Warren Air Force Base, Wyoming, for communications center specialist training. Upon graduation from technical training he received the assignment to Japan.

Headquarters Chicago Air Defense Sector is a link in the North American Air Defense Command's Semi-Automatic Ground Environment (SAGE) system, operated by the Air Force Air Defense Command.

The SAGE system divides the United States into multi-State sectors of geographic area responsibility, and provides for the automatic processing of a sector's total air surveillance information, as well as the automatic control and direction of interceptin weapons.

Park Man Receives A F Commendation

Lt. Col. John C. O'Donnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. O'Donnell, of Mt. Lake Park, has been awarded the Air Force Commendation medal by the secretary of the United States Air force. The decoration was presented to the colonel recently by Brig. Gen. T. E. Moore, chief of staff of the air training command.

The presentation was made at ATC headquarters, Randolph Air Force base, Texas, where Col. O'Donnell is assigned to the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel. A major air command, the Air Training Command recruits and trains all officers and enlisted personnel in the United States Air Force.

Col. O'Donnell has been in the military service for 18 years. Now a command pilot, he flew 40 combat missions in the Southwest Pacific during World War II and received the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal. He was in the Pacific theater from February, 1942 until May, 1943, and from March, 1945, until February, 1946.

Born at Oakland, O'Donnell attended public schools here and was graduated from Oakland High school in 1937. He was graduated from Antioch college, Yellow Springs, Ohio, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1947.

Col. O'Donnell is married to the former Miss Colleen Moore, of Silver Spring. Mrs. O'Donnell and their son, John C. O'Donnell, Jr., 10, are with the Colonel at Randolph AFB, near San Antonio.

THE AMERICAN WAY

Hundreds of letters from individual union members to the McClellan Committee of the Senate expressed fear of reprisal if they dared sign their names to their protests against tyrannical and corrupt practices of union labor bosses.

What a travesty on our vaunted freedom when men dare not tell the truth and express their discontent with the action of their union masters, less they lose their jobs—or even worse.

But that is the fact. And the reason for it lies largely in the pernicious agreements between management and unions which force workers to join the union if they want to keep their jobs. It is called by several soft-soaping names, but the correct description is the "closed-shop."

There is an answer to that violation of our constitutional rights. It is the "right to work" laws, already passed in 18 states, which forbid employers and union bosses to enter into "closed shop" agreements. Such a law was recently passed in Indiana and is now under consideration in Ohio.

These "right to work" laws, barring compulsory unionization, were upheld as constitutional by the Supreme Court in 1949, and sustained in principle in 1954 in the decision on segregation in public schools.

But where are the "liberals" who believe in freedom and constitutional rights? They weep crocodile tears over restrictions in "freedom of choice" for all citizens regardless of race, and accept without a murmur a system of private slavery under which a man cannot get or keep a job unless he joins a union, pays tribute to and takes orders from a labor boss or his goons.

The power, political as well as industrial, of the U.A.W.-C.I.O. boss has gone far beyond a single industry and its affiliates. He makes no bones about his aim to get political control of the United States and to win his socialistic objectives through legislation. He already controls nearly a majority in both Senate and House, and may even name the next President of the United States.

And the pattern of control with closed union members serving in precincts, through which he already controls Michigan and its Governor, is being built elsewhere with alarming rapidity and thoroughness. He has more money to spend for elections than both major parties together.

Think about that; you business men, professional men, workers, housewives and students getting ready to work—all of you who believe in freedom. And while you are thinking about it, let me remind you of what happens to a state, such as once industrially proud Michigan, when it falls under the domination of a little labor clique and a subservient Governor, falling backward in employment and industrial development, while its neighboring states forge ahead. Read these figures and weep:

Industrial Construction
1956-1957

Ohio	$921,678,000
Indiana	889,123,000
Michigan	199,176,000

We are on the threshold of a greater prosperity than we have yet known. We can realize that prosperity and even make it endure, if we will shake off the shackles of compulsory union tyranny, and give men the right to work without fear.

If your state already has a "right to work" law—thank God and keep that law in force.

If your state does not yet have such a law—pray God and work to get it enacted by your state legislature. You can still help save America and give the workers freedom from fear.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dearest wife, mother and grandmother, Annie Louise Bateman, who passed away four years ago, November 26, 1954.
In memory's lovely garden, where remembered joys bloom fair.
Your memory, dearest mother, is the sweetest blossom there.
It's a little bit of Heaven, that has blossomed here in earth,
And seems to make the skies more blue, just to have a mother like you.
Her thoughts were all so full of us, she never could forget,
And so we think that where she is, she must must be watching yet.
Our treasured memories of Mom, will live within our hearts,
And even though she is away, we're really not apart.
How can we ever forget a Mother, so wonderful and true.
As long as there is mind and life, we will always think of you.
Gone and forgotten by some you may be,
But dear to our memory you ever will be.

By S. A. KAPLAN

THE STORY OF LITTLE MOSES

HELLO BOYS AND GIRLS! Have you ever visited the beautiful Lincoln Memorial in our nation's capital? Thousands come here annually and look into the thoughtful, compassionate face of the man who freed millions from a life of slavery.

Did you know that ancient Israel also had their Abraham Lincoln — Moses whom God mightily used to deliver them from cruel bondage? The story of Moses is one of the most fascinating and breathtaking in all the Bible.

In last week's story we learned how the children of Israel had settled in Egypt because of the great famine, and how their lives were preserved by Joseph, who was then the prime minister of Egypt. As long as Joseph lived, the Egyptians were grateful for what he had done for them, but after he died a new Pharaoh arose who did not appreciate his services to the nation. Besides, he feared that the Israelites would eventually outnumber the Egyptians, and that they might wage war against them. To prevent the Israeites from multiplying he "made their lives bitter" with hard, exhausting labor, "in morter, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field." In other words, he made slaves out of the entire nation of Israel. When that didn't work, Pharaoh ordered his people to seize every new-born baby boy of the Israelites and throw him into the river Nile.

One day a lovely baby boy was born to a godly Hebrew couple. Looking into the sweet, beautiful face of their little baby, whom they dearly loved, they determined to do everything possible to save him from being cast into the river. And so they most earnestly prayed to God, and He gave them wisdom. At first, they hid the little one in a secret place for three months; then, unable to hide him any longer, they put him in a water-tight basket and placed him in the river near the shore, among the rushes. Moses had a wide-awake little sister, called Miriam, whom her mother had instructed to watch the babe to see what would happen to him.

In answer to their earnest prayer, an angel was sent to direct Pharaoh's daughter to the very spot where the little baby lay. Imagine her surprise when she lifted the cover of the basket to find a beautiful baby lying there. Then the cute little baby began to cry, and the princess' heart was touched. She determined to save his life by adopting him for her very own. Miriam seeing how lovingly Moses was regarded by the princess, came near and asked whether she might be permitted to call "a nurse of the Hebrew women that she may nurse the child." How Miriam's heart must have leaped for joy to hear the princess say, "yes." And whom do you suppose she called? You guessed it! His mother! How careful his mother was to teach Moses to love and obey God during those twelve long years she was permitted to keep him. And how far-reaching the results of her faithfulness!

Then too, think how much was at stake in little Miriam's obeying her mother's order to "watch"! Had Miriam neglected to do this, they might never have seen little Moses again, and he would have been brought up as an idolater, instead of becoming the great liberator of a whole nation! When you carry out your mother's orders, the results may be just as far-reaching, just as wonderful! Why not?

Highlanders to Open Season December 6

The Southern High Highlanders will open their regular basketball season on Saturday, December 6, when they face the Piedmont quint on the local court. This will be the only Saturday game, most of the scheduled contests being held on Tuesday and Fridays.

The Highlanders, coached by Carl Schoonover, will play a nineteen-game schedule which will include a game with the Alumni during the Christmas holidays. Coach Schoonover is presently holding extensive practice sessions each evening after school. "All positions are open at this time," he stated.

Returning lettermen from last year's squad which won eleven games and lost eight in regular season, include Leo Martin, Don Stemple, Terry Colaw and Jerry Wine. These four boys accounted for 745 points of the 1189 earned by last year's team.

Southern's biggest loss will be Ken Shaffer who hit the basket for 358 points last year. However, Schoonover said a number of promising Junior High players have joined the squad for the season. Among them are Dick Stuck who scored 272 points on the Junior High team last year; Ron Colaw, who hit for 168 points, and others who saw action on both the junior high team and the Junior varsity.

Only three seniors are vieing for a place on the squad. They are Walter Lee, Leo Martin and Don Stemple. Eleventh graders reporting include Tommy Bergner, Jack Broadwater, Doug Bittinger, Bill Butler, Terry Colaw, Don James, Steve Malone, Carroll Miller, Ken Savage, Bill Stemple, Ken Wenger and Jerry Wine. Tenth graders are Fred Bell, Wally Bolyard, Jack Burns, Willard Carr, Ron Colaw, Carl DeWitt, Bill Lawton, Bob Leighton, Brenton Propst, Sonny Riggs and Dick Stuck.

The Highlanders will be without the services of Jerry Wine until the first of the year due to an ankle injury sustained during an early practice session. Wine, an eleventh grader, scored 191 points last season.

Though the Highlander competition in regular season play remains unchanged oves last year's opponents, tournament play will find the Highlanders facing class A competition. Under state rulings, schools having an enrollment of 250 boys or more in grades 10, 11 and 12, automatically enter class A competition. Southern's enrollment is listed as 274 boys. Northern High, only other high school in the county, will be in class B. The county will have two county championship teams, regardless of the results of the competition between the two schools, and will be assured tournament berths at the end of the season.

Miss Nancy A. Swauger Is D. A. R. Good Citizen

Miss Nancy Anne Swauger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert W. Swauger, Grantsville, has been selected the 1959 D. A. R. Good Citizen from the Northern High school Senior class.

The three senior girls who were selected to take the test and answer the questionnaire were Miss Patty Bittner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Bittner, Friendsville; Miss Karen Kinsinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Kinsinger, Grantsville; and Miss Swauger.

The girls were selected for their high degree of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism, by a P. O. D. committee consisting of Mr. Darrell Malone, chairman; Mr. F. H. Carson, and Mr. Philip Johnson.

Miss Swauger's paper will be submitted with Southern High's D. A. R. Good Citizen to a committee of judges who will select the Good Citizen of Garrett County.

She had previously won the World History and the United States History award which is sponsored by the Woodmen of the World. She is an honor roll student; has received attendence awards; past secretary and vice-president of the Future Nurses; Student Council representative and alternate; secretary of the junior class last year. Miss Swauger was selected as the 10th grade May Day attendant to the May Day Queen two years ago.

She spends a great deal of her time at home helping with housework, ironing, sewing, and she enjoys reading very much. She earns extra money by baby-sitting.

The county's D. A. R. Good Citizen's paper will be submitted for final selection of the Maryland D. A. R. Good Citizen.

The contestant chosen for the state will be introduced personally at the D. A. R. State Conference in the spring and will be presented with a $100.00 United States E Series Saving bond.

Teen Corner

By DICK CASTILOW

The "go ahead" on our project of "adopting" foreign children was given Friday night at Teen Age Club. The plan was well received and encouraged by the members.

A number of teen agers ask me why I put in my column about the disturbance at Teen Age Club the week before last. Well the fact is that they were afraid that if their parents read it they couldn't come any more. This is very easily answered. The parents are as much a part of our club as the teen agers. There will be no deception as to incidents which may occur. We most certainly do not want the parents to think that we would hide anything from them. This will not be the way things are done. The parents should and will be kept informed as to the problems and condition of our club. There will be no one in the community who can say that things are well masked by the teenagers; or that only the good points are commented upon. We really want the numerous good things to continue to multiply, which I am sure they will. Fred Tichnell has to practically run the place by himself. There are certain parents who also give unselfishly of their time, but these few cannot have the whole burden to carry. Mr. Tichnell is well liked by all the teens, he seems to understand about what we feel about our club, and I might add I believe he feels the same. Our organization means much to us, we want a better club, we need someone to help Mr. Tichnell in all the good he is doing. I am sure that parents can find the time to come and visit us once or twice, and don't be afraid of the thought that all the parents might come at the same time. If so, o. k. the armory is a large place, and I am sure it will hold them. It is not fair for the responsibility to be placed all upon the shoulders of a few. Share the weight and it will become lighter with each pair of shoulders. This club is for our community in a very big way, so how about the community being for the club in a big way.

I will have an exclusive interview with one of the top new r 'n r groups. They are called The Knightcaps and they have a new disc out called "The Bug". This will be within the next few weeks. The interview will be with Jerry Dallman, leader of the group.

Billboard's pick of the top tunes around the nation is as follows: number one is "Tom Dooley," number 2 is "To Know Him Is to Love Him."

McKeldin Declares His Administration Has Been Successful

Gov. McKeldin, who moves out of the State House early next year, said Sunday he figured his eight years at the Maryland helm had been successful ones.

Reeling off a list of what he described as some of the major accomplishments during his two terms, the governor said:

"I believe our administration has been a successful one." He'll be turning over the reins January 14 to Democrat J. Millard Tawes.

The governor listed these as some of the major accomplishments:

1. Setting up Maryland's most ambitious roads program.
2. Establishment of the Patuxent Institution for defective delinquents.
3. Construction of the harbor tunnel in Baltimore.
4. Repeal of Maryland's last "Jim Crow" law.
5. Improvement at state training schools.
6. Putting Maryland on a program budget basis designed to give lawmakers a better idea of how money will be spent. Setting up a central payroll bureau.
7. Acquisition of lands for park and recreation purposes. Establishing numerous roadside picnic areas.
8. Overhauling the state's unemployment benefits and workmen's compensation laws.
9. Construction of libraries at the University of Maryland and the State teachers' college.
10. Construction of new state office buildings in Baltimore and Annapolis.

Just for a moment we survey the road we have travelled. We are grateful for the abundance we have received . . . for the strength and the happiness that have been given us.

But then we sense the real meaning of Thanksgiving. We look ahead along the road to tomorrow. We face all the uncertainties of the future with one supreme confidence; the loving God who has so blessed us in the past is our hope and strength and happiness through the years to come!

Faith more than gratitude is the spirit of Thanksgiving. When you come to your Church to thank God, you are taking another confident, faithful step toward life's spiritual goal.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

Why Parables?

Lesson for November 30, 1958

LIKE all good teachers, Jesus was not tied to any one style of teaching. But his favorite style was the story style. To some people this seems puzzling, as if Jesus were almost forgetting his divine dignity. You can imagine some Roman intelligence officer, on the alert for suspiciously large gatherings of restless orientals, going down to the lakeside to hear what was going on that was attracting such large crowds. some political agitator, maybe? Or maybe only a traveling magician. But he would find neither. Only a man in a fisherman's boat, his great voice (for outdoor speakers in those days had to have tremendous voices) booming out over the crowd—of all things just telling stories. Very simple stories too, no plot to speak of, no dramatics. Just stories about farmers and wheat and housewives and fish . . . everyday things, harmless and (from the Roman's viewpoint) meaningless.

Dr. Foreman

For Simplicity

"So this is their great Teacher!" the Roman would think to himself. "Well, he may be all right for farmers. There's surely no harm in him." The Roman would not realize that he was listening to the greatest teacher of all time, and that in those simple stories, or thumb-nail illustrations, which we call parables, were wrapped up ideas which were destined to change the world.

Why did Jesus choose the story style for his teaching? He could teach with parables, as for instance in parts of the sermon on the mount. But according to Mark, he never spoke without a parable somewhere in his talk. One reason why he did this was for simplicity's sake. The story reduces down a complicated idea, high-lights the heart of it. People who have difficulty following or remembering a lecture will remember a story.

For Survival

There are still on record the sermons of some of the rabbis who lived and taught about at the same time with Jesus. The are pretty impressive for their scholarship, their quotations from authorities, their ponderous correctness. But nobody would remember them. They are literally curiosities today, little more. Jesus' little stories on the other hand, are memorable. They have passed into the language and culture of many lands, they have inspired works of art, they comfort the grieving, rebuke the sinful, give a lift to weary hearts.

Strange things have happened to the human race, and will still happen. Our ancestors would find it hard to find their way around our electronic world, and lectures in our class-rooms would bewilder them. If Jesus had spoken in the learned terms of his day, his teachings would have been laid away in obscure libraries like the lectures of other teachers of that time. But speaking as he did, in story form, his teaching endures to this very day, and will be understood in the space-age of the future, if the world lasts so long. Lectures die; stories survive.

For Selection

You remember our imaginary Roman official who went off thinking what a stupid affair this story-telling was? That was part of Jesus' intention. The reader will notice that it was not the Roman officials, it was not the chief priests, it was the disciples, who stayed for an after-meeting and asked what Jesus meant by his parables. Jesus' main effort in teaching was to get at his own inner circle of followers. He wanted to stir their interest and curiosity, and at the same time let the careless, the indifferent, the hostile, go their way. The story style which he made his own, was just right for this purpose. The parables were like magnets that would attract only the men with true steel in them. The sophisticated, the know-it-alls, then and now, hearing or reading the parables, think only "What simple stuff!" But the people who are attracted by these tales and feel there is something beneath the surface, find in them a wisdom beyond this world. They are as clear as the night sky through which we see the glory of the stars.
